THIRD WORLD SERIES GAME CALLED OFF ON ACCOUNT OF RAIN; STAGE CLASH TODAY

Steady Downpour All Night Soaks Diamond and Makes Contest Impossible; To Play in New York Wednesday and Thursday and Chicago Saturday.

New York, Oct. 9.—Heavy rain which began shortly before noon caused a postponement until tomorrow of the third world's series game scheduled for today between the Chicago White Sox and the New York Giants.

The rain fell during the night and early morning, but there was every prospect that the game would be played until the beginning of the heavy downpour that lasted all afternoon. The forecast for tomorrow is fair and warmer. The rain today was accompanied by a decided drop in temperature.

There was evidence that the game would have been attended by a capacity crowd, for fully 15,000 spectators were on the Polo grounds stands when the postponement was made. The lines in front of the gates extended for several blocks when the ticket boxes were opened early in the afternoon and the men and boys, many of whom had stood in line all night, filed into the grounds.

As usual, every ticket sold today had a rain check attached which will be good only for the third game of the series. Many of these found their way into hands of speculators. In most cases the rain checks were sold at a profit to the holders.

With the first streaks of dawn and while the rain was still falling lightly the lines began to grow. Fans began to tumble from "L" trains and soon all arteries of travel led to the Polo grounds. When the gates to the lower grandstand and bleachers were opened at 9 o'clock the lines stretched up and down the streets and around the grounds.

Despite every precaution taken by President Hempstead, reserved seat tickets were to be had from speculators at the grounds and at the prominent hotels. Last night $35 was asked for one set of tickets to the three games, but prices fell today due to the damp weather. The total attendance was expected to be more than 38,000, the capacity of the stands.

While the betting odds favored the American league champions all the way from 2 to 1 to 3 to 1, supporters of the Giants still were outwardly optimistic. The local rooters, while admitting superiority of the White Sox in the first two games, insisted that McGraw's men have not yet displayed their real base ball ability.

Outside of the main question as to whether the Giants can stage a spectacular comeback, the followers of the national pastime devoted the rest of their speculations as to the rival pitchers, in the absence of official announcements. The opinion seemed to be general that either Cicotte or Russell would start for the visitors, while McGraw would pin his faith on Sallee or Benton.

New York rooters admitted today that the Giants must win the third game to have a look-in at the championship. To lose this game, they agreed, would mean that the world's series title probably would go west for the first time since 1909, when Pittsburgh captured the series from Detroit.

Delving into the records of past games does not hold out any encouragement to the followers of the National leaguers. These records show that since the world's series have been played under the rules laid down by the National commission no team that lost the first two games ever came through the winner of base ball's classic.

Again, should New York win the third game, the records would still be against the Giants, for in the last twelve years no team that has captured only one of the first three games decided ever won the championship. The New York fans, however, pin their faith to the uncertainty of the game and feel this is just as good a year to upset the law of averages as any other.

Cleveland Lands Fifth Game in Series With Reds Cincinnati, O., Oct. 8.—Cleveland took the fifth game of the Ohio series today, 6 to 3, making the game score now stand, Cincinnati, 3; Cleveland, 2. Schneider's wildness coupled with Red errors at critical moments were largely responsible for the Cleveland victory. The sixth game will be played in Cleveland tomorrow. Cicotte Probably Will Oppose Sallee for Today

The consensus of opinion tonight was that Cicotte would pitch for Chicago tomorrow and that he would be opposed by Sallee.

The probable lineup: Chicago—J. Collins, lf; McMullin, 3b; E. Collins, 2b; Jackson, cf; Felsch, cf; Gandil, lf; Weaver, ss; Schalk, c; Sallee, p. New York—Burns, lf; Herzog, 2b; Kauff, cf; Zimmerman, 3b; Fletcher, ss; Robertson, rf; Holke, lb; Rariden, c; Sallee, p.

Notes From Beatrice And Gage County

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 9.—(Special.)—The township vice presidents of the Gage County Crop Improvement association held a meeting in County Agent Rist's office and discussed the question of harvesting the bumper corn crop in Gage county this fall. It was decided to pay from 6 to 7 cents a bushel for huskers, and an effort will be made to have the corn in the crib before the holidays. About 300 corn huskers will be needed in Gage county this fall.

The chiropractors of southeastern Nebraska held their third regular meeting in the Commercial club rooms here last evening. A number of papers and addresses of interest to the profession were given. It was voted to hold the next meeting at Lincoln on December 31.

A petition is being circulated at towns between Beatrice and Manhattan, Kan., asking that the Union Pacific company run its motor to Manhattan on Sundays so that parents of the soldier boys at Camp Funston can go there and visit with their sons and return home in the evening. It is understood the Red Cross is behind this movement and it will undoubtedly go through all right.

The State Railway commission has granted the Rock Island company permission to take off two passenger trains running between Fairbury and Horton through Beatrice. One of the trains goes through here in the morning east bound at 5:20 and the other west bound in the evening at 9:20. Business men of Beatrice and other towns along the route have fought this move on the part of the company, but have been unsuccessful. It is not known when the service will be discontinued.

SUGGESTS SIX CENTS FOR CORN PICKERS

Committee Appointed by State Defense Council Recommends This as Minimum; Must Board Men.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Oct. 9.—(Special.)—Six cents per bushel for husking corn where the corn is good with team, food and lodging included and also facilities for unloading, with an increased price for poorer corn, is the recommendation of the committee appointed by the State Council of Defense to be paid by the farmers of the state. The report reads: "After careful consideration this committee unanimously recommends and suggests to farmers that the general price for husking in good corn shall be 6 cents per bushel and in addition to said price that machine unloading facilities be furnished the husker; also, that team, wagon and board and lodging be provided. Where the corn is poor the price shall be increased sufficiently to meet the equities in the case and if machine unloading facilities are not furnished additional remuneration shall be given to those pickers who unload corn by hand, which will be fair pay for the work they do. In case the husker furnishes a team, the employer shall board the same. "The committee realizes the absolute necessity of loyal co-operation with the national government in its endeavor to secure the harvesting of foodstuffs rapidly and with as little waste as possible. Nebraska's contribution to the nation's needs must be belyingly and heartily given. Employers and employees are called upon to do their part particularly in the garnering of Nebraska's banner corn crop. The cry of the nation is that "Food will win the war."

Deputy Sheriff John Spaniak, Jailer S. G. Clayton and the latter's wife all testified that the Jolstead girl had told them that Donovan did not pay her fare. Clayton said the girl told her this on a dozen different occasions. It was stated that Mrs. Ida Rockefeller, the notorious madame who was convicted and is serving a year in county jail for bringing a girl to Omaha as an inmate of her house, was confined in the same room with Ida Jolstead. Miss Jolstead is the daughter of respectable parents in Cannon Falls and this is her first offense. She is a young, shrinking and pathetic figure.

U. S. OFFICIALS IN ARMS AGAINST SHERIFF'S AIDS

County Jail Employees Testify for Government Defendant Accused of Violating the Mann Act.

Federal officials here are up in arms against conduct of employees of the Douglas county jail. A deputy sheriff, the jailer, the jailer's wife and the matron of the county jail appeared on the witness stand in federal court and gave testimony in favor of Lee Donovan who was on trial for violation of the Mann white slave act and who was found guilty by the jury in federal court yesterday.

Donovan was charged with bringing Ida Jolstead, a 17-year-old girl, from Cannon Falls, Minn., to Omaha. The girl was kept in the Douglas county jail as a federal prisoner for several weeks. It was there that the four county employees talked to her and they testified in federal court that she told them that Donovan had not paid her railroad fare to Omaha.

Deputy Sheriff John Spaniak, Jailer S. G. Clayton and the latter's wife all testified that the Jolstead girl had told them that Donovan did not pay her fare. Clayton said the girl told her this on a dozen different occasions. It was stated that Mrs. Ida Rockefeller, the notorious madame who was convicted and is serving a year in county jail for bringing a girl to Omaha as an inmate of her house, was confined in the same room with Ida Jolstead. Miss Jolstead is the daughter of respectable parents in Cannon Falls and this is her first offense. She is a young, shrinking and pathetic figure.

Stayed at Hotel

Miss Jolstead swore on the witness stand that Donovan paid her fare and brought her to Omaha. The first two nights, she said, they stopped at the Harney hotel.

Donovan said they rented only one room, "because that was cheaper." He said they did not undress, but that he laid down on the bed while she sat up. They then took room at 2039 Harney street as man and wife. He said there was nothing wrong with their relations there. Miss Jolstead's testimony was contrary to this.

Donovan is proprietor of a small hotel at Cannon Falls. He is 38 years old.

Miss Jolstead says she tried to find Walter Olson when she came to Omaha. He was her sweetheart in Cannon Falls. Her father objected to their marriage, she said, and Olson left home and game, she thought, to Omaha.

Wealthy Columbus Man Dies; Civil War Veteran

Columbus, Neb., Oct. 9.—(Special.)—C. H. Sheldon, who died Sunday, was buried here today. He was born in Ashtabula county, Ohio, August 7, 1841. He was the last survivor of a family of eight. His boyhood days were spent on a backwoods farm and his school days were limited to four years of four months each.

He responded to the first call for troops for the civil war and enlisted in the Twentieth Ohio infantry, the first Ohio regiment to get into service. After being mustered out of service he enlisted in the Eighty-eighth Illinois infantry and was wounded in the battle of Perryville. Recovering from his wounds, he raised a company and was commissioned adjutant of the 150th Illinois infantry. He came to Nebraska in 1882 and bought land. The following spring he moved to Columbus and had since been engaged in farming and stock raising. His son, Clarence C. Sheldon, has been associated with him since 1893 and they have developed a system of co-operative farming. He was rated as one of the wealthiest men in this section of the state and had always given liberally to Columbus institutions.

Last week he donated $10,000 toward the building of a new Federated church and also $10,000 toward an endowment for the Columbus Young Men's Christian association.

STATE MAY PURCHASE THE ASHLAND BRIDGE

If State Board of Irrigation Approves Decision, Autoists Will Not Pay Toll in Future.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Oct. 9.—(Special.)—If the State Board of Irrigation approves the findings of the State Railway commission in an opinion prepared by Chairman T. L. Hill, the Ashland toll bridge on the Omaha-Lincoln-Denver highway near Ashland across the Platte river will soon be owned by the state and counties and become a free bridge.

The opinion of the commission, based on the findings of its engineers places the value of the bridge at $20,000. The company owning the bridge had placed a little higher valuation upon it, but it is believed it will not seriously object to the figures placed upon it by the commission.

Bridge Company Asks $50,000. The first figures furnished by the bridge company placed its valuation at $56,369, basing its value upon present prices of building material and labor, with a depreciation value of $47,913. Engineer Forbes of the railway commission placed a value of $22,573, based on the normal cost of material and labor with a depreciation value of $19,481. However, the commission finds that the bridge company paid for construction of the bridge, $18,000, $750 to Sarpy county for right-of-way, $500 for ripparing the bank of the river, $250 to the superintendent engineer and about $1,500 for a toll house. The bridge has always paid a good dividend to the company. If the price is satisfactory all around, the state will pay $10,000 of the purchase price, Sarpy county and the Omaha-Lincoln-Denver association the other $5,000.

(Continued From Page One.) expenditure of 750,000,000 rubles annually, which the government has decided to meet by a rearrangement of railway rates. Simultaneously the government will promulgate a law providing for special food supplies for railway men.

The newspapers, however, say that pending the publication of these measures the government will refuse to negotiate with the strikers and has under consideration the question of taking legal action against the strike committee. A number of railway battalions have notified the government of their willingness to co-operate in ending the strike. Latest reports are that only the Moscow and Petrograd railway systems are affected by the strike and that the workmen on other lines are protesting against the strike.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW OVER LARGE FEES

Lawyers in Celebrated Capital National Bank Case Are Battling for Share of Judgment Rendered.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Seward, Neb., Oct. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—The trial in the celebrated Capital National bank case relative to the division of attorney's fees, is now progressing in the district court of Seward county. Judges Good and Corcoran both are on the bench. Ex-Judge of the Supreme Court Fawcett represents L. C. Burr, one of the attorneys in the case, and B. F. Good of Lincoln and Attorney C. J. Thomas of David City are assisting J. J. Thomas. The case has been in litigation since 1894 and it has been disclosed that the attorneys have entered into an agreement whereby they are to receive one-third of the amount of any judgment received in the actions. Harry I. Jones was appointed trustee in this case and it is alleged that he has in his hands at least $115,000 and that the sum of $35,000 belongs to the attorneys.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Oct. 9.—(Special.)—Many letters are being received at the office of the governor, inquiring what steps will be necessary for men to enlist in the Seventh regiment when there are no companies in their counties belonging to that regiment.

Captain Lee Metcalfe, secretary to the governor, announces that any man desiring to enlist in the regiment who is not near one of the companies already organized may write a letter to Captain Metcalfe and he will send all papers and blanks necessary. He will later be assigned to some company. The letter should be addressed to "Captain Lee Metcalfe, adjutant Seventh regiment, governor's office."

Quit Meat When Back Hurts or Kidneys Bother

Says Uric Acid in meat clogs Kidneys and irritates Bladder. A glass of salts is harmless way to flush Kidneys, says authority.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and waken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.—Advertisement.
