Liberty Bond Sales Fall Short of Minimum Set

Washington, Oct. 10.—Liberty bond sales in the chief financial sections of the country have fallen below the daily average which should be maintained to reach the $3,000,000,000 minimum set by Secretary McAdoo. The Treasury department has set in motion virtually every agency in the country through which Liberty bonds can be sold and now, it is pointed out, the result is up to the people themselves. To show the country just what must be done without putting it off even one day, treasury officials are seriously considering the advisability of publishing a daily compilation of returns from every federal reserve district.

OMAHAN LIKES LIFE IN FLYING SERVICE

Peter C. Holmes, Formerly, With Kilpatrick's, Tells of Activities in Camp at San Antonio.

Peter C. Holmes, formerly manager of the drapery department at the Thomas Kilpatrick store, now training for the flying service at San Antonio, Tex., writes an interesting letter to Walter Oehrle, former member of The Bee family. The letter follows:

"Army life is great, at least in this branch of the service. I was fortunate enough to be transferred from the 105th squadron to the Fifth. The 105th was a construction squadron and the Fifth is a flying squadron. They took sixteen noncommissioned officers from the 105th company, and as I was a corporal, I got my chance. The Fifth squadron is the oldest in the field. I am at present detailed to the aeroplane supply room, but not as corporal, for we have to forfeit our titles when we transfer, but I think I will benefit by transferring.

Schedule for Day.

"Here is the schedule for the day. First call of reveille at 5:45 a. m. Assembly and roll call at 6. Fifteen-minute exercise. We then make up our bunks and wash up. Breakfast call at 6:30. School, study and work from 7 until 11 o'clock. Dinner mess at 12. School, study and work again from 1 p. m. until 4. We then have supper mess at 6. If we put in application for a pass we can go to town until 6 a. m. the next morning. We are through at 11 o'clock on Saturdays, but most of us stay in the barracks and study. We have thirty-six aeroplanes, twenty-five quad trucks, six sidecar motorcycles, one seven-passenger Cadillac car. The men are divided into crews or squads of eight men to a squad with an instructor. Each crew has its certain line of work. There are many of us going up for flying commissions before very long. They told me Saturday I would get my turn to go up with the major some time next week. We get to take turns in flying as passenger-observer with some of the birdmen, as they are called down here. They fly from ninety to ninety-five miles an hour and in a strong air current they will go 125 miles per hour. Talk about fancy stunts! Beachy wasn't in it to what they do out here. Loop-the-loop seems to be very ordinary and a good many times at that.

"Here are some of the stunts they pull off. At a height generally from 10,000 to 15,000 feet in the air they very often go up out of sight, and that is going some down here, for the atmosphere is very clear most of the time. They do the tail spin, fluttering leaf, tail-and-nose dive, side turns and loops. It is the pilot's delight to get one of us new boys and do the stunts. It affords them great amusement to watch the expressions of our faces. Your actions go a long way in your examinations, so I am getting ready for the funny work. All of these aeroplanes are two-seated. The pilot sits in the back seat, while the observer sits in the front seat. It certainly is wonderful.

Only One Accident.

"We have only had one accident as yet. One officer was killed in one of those sidecar motorcycles. The driver ran into a truck. We had an aeroplane funeral, the most spectacular

OMAHA BOY'S THRILLING STORY OF ARMY LIFE.

scene I have ever witnessed. The casket, all draped with the flag, was placed on a flat truck, with a big procession in the street behind, and twenty aeroplanes flew above, throwing flowers down upon the casket. It sure was grand.

"I forgot to tell you Bob Massey is down here also. He is in the non-flying cadet school and came in to see me the other day. I was sure glad to see him, as he is the first friend I have met from Omaha since I left. He said he couldn't pass the physical examinations. He didn't have the sixth sense, so he is trying for the nonflying. He was in to see me again today, so if I don't pass the flying examinations I suppose I will be over with him; but here's hoping I can pass and I think I will. I can tell better after my flight with the major.

"P. C. HOLMES, "Aero Squadron, Kelley Field, South San Antonio, Tex."

Filling National Guard Divisions From Cantonments

Washington, Oct. 10.—Redistribution of the forces in national army cantonments in the south, middle west and east was ordered today by the War department in order to fill up three National Guard divisions in southern states to war strength and to provide for the organization of an additional national army division composed of negro troops.

The National Guard divisions to be filled up are the Thirtieth, Thirtieth and Thirtieth, all composed of troops from the far southern states. Drafted men from the national army cantonments at Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C.; Camp Gordon, Atlanta, Ga., and Camp Pike, Little Rock, Ark., will be transferred to fill the gaps. Why Actresses Never Grow Old

Nothing concerning the profession seems more puzzling to the dear old public than the perpetual youth of our feminine members. How often we hear remarks like, "Why, I saw her as Juliet forty years ago and she doesn't look a year older now!" Of course, allowance is made for makeup, but when they see us off the stage at close range, they need another explanation.

How strange women generally haven't learned the secret of keeping the face young! How simple a matter to get an ounce of mercurized wax at the drug store, apply it like cold cream, and in the morning wash it off! We know how this gradually, imperceptibly, absorbs old cuticle, keeping the complexion new and fresh, free from fine lines, sallowness or over-redness. We know, too, that this mercurized wax is the reason actresses don't wear moth patches, liver spots, pimples and the like. Why don't our sisters on the other side of the footlights learn the reason and profit by it?—Theatrical World.—Advertisement.
