GIANTS AND SOX CLASH IN THIRD WORLD SERIES GAME; BENTON OPPOSES CICOTTE

walk. Had he missed the catch Gandil's smash would have gone for at least a two-base hit.

Slides to Third.

But Robertson was not done. The Norfolk player doffed his fielder's glove and stepping into the batter's box picked one of Cicotte's sharp breaking low balls and drove high and far into the right center. The sphere sailed up and onward under the force of the blow until it seemed certain that it would equal Felsch's home run drive of the opening game. Both Jackson and Felsch raced frantically after the ball, but it hit the bleacher fence and bounded away from their clutches. Robertson was sliding to third base when the ball was returned to the infield.

Cicotte Too Much for Benton.

Holke followed with a two-base drive to left field, scoring Robertson. Catcher Rariden, playing in place of McCarty who was injured in the second battle at Chicago advanced his teammate to third with a sacrifice, Cicotte to Gandil. Benton could not fathom Cicotte's curves and struck out. As Burns to bat Umpire Klem took the ball away from Catcher Schalk after examining it carefully threw it into the Giant's dugout while the crowd, sensing the "shine ball" boomed vigorously.

Cicotte Captures Sphere.

When Cicotte hurled up a new white ball Burns hit a puzzling slow grounder toward third which scored Holke, who was on his way to the plate when the bat met the ball. Cicotte finally captured the sphere and tried to retire Burns at first, but his throw was wild and the batter continued on to second. With Herzog at bat, the crowds were rooting strenuously for a continuance of hitting, but Gandil checked the rally with a wonderful running catch of the Giant's field captain's foul, which he speared one handed as the ball was about to disappear among the spectators in one of the ground row of field boxes. That was the end of the run making for the day, for after that spectacular inning both Cicotte and Benton pitched well-nigh perfect ball. While both teams got runners on the bases the hits to bring them home never were forthcoming.

As was the case in the two to one win of Saturday, the winning pitcher was forced to deliver more balls than his defeated rival. Benton today pitched a total of 105 balls to Cicotte's ninety-seven, just as Cicotte in his victorious game hurled 101 to Sallee's eighty-five. During the nine innings which Benton pitched, five Giants grender hurled twenty-five strikes, thirty-eight balls, fourteen foul strikes; the White Sox made five hits, drove out twenty-one field outs and fouled three balls.

Cicotte Makes 27 Strikes.

Cicotte, pitching ninety-seven times, obtained twenty-seven strikes, thirteen foul strikes, gave twenty-six balls and was fouled five times. The Giants reached him for eight hits; went out sixteen times on fielding plays and J. Collins two errors on Kauff's drives account for the remainder.

While there was little, if any, advantage between the two pitchers it appeared to many as though Benton had more on the ball than Cicotte. His delivery came up with wide, sweeping curves or broke with almost right-angle slants which had the White Sox missing or popping up most of the time.

Varies Pitching.

The Chicago twirler varied his pitching to a greater extent than Benton and his control was as perfect as usual. To those who saw him work in the first contest it appeared as though he did not have as sharp a curve as break as on Saturday when he turned back the Giants with seven hits and one run. His record today was eight hits and two runs, while Benton let the White Sox down with five hits, no two coming in an inning.

First Eight to Benton's Five.

Cicotte fanned eight Giants to Benton's five. Burns, Holke and Benton all fell twice before the Chicago hurler's slants while Benton's only double strike out victim was Cicotte. The New York team had twice as many runners stranded on the bases as the White Sox, the count being eight to four. Robertson led all the players with three hits in four times at bat for a total of five bases, while of Chicago's five hits, Eddie Collins and Weaver each obtained two. Neither Kauff nor Jackson had a fielding chance and Robertson stole the only base purloined. Neither pitcher gave a base on balls and none of the five errors contributed in any way to the success.

Attendance Slacks Up.

The total attendance was 33,616 and the receipts $73,081. Of this amount the players received $39,463.74; each club $13,154.58 and the National commission $7,308.10. Neither in attendance nor receipts did the figures of today's game equal several world's series contests played in other years at the Polo grounds.

The few vacant seats in either bleachers or stands were not visible from the field and the thousands rooted loud and frequently for the Giants. The White Sox, however, were not friendly to there was a delegation of some hundreds from Chicago and these supporters lost no opportunity to cheer on their favorites. The stern cautioning by the umpires against "riding" of opponents was effective and there was no repartee among the players and no disputing of the arbiters' decisions.

Boo Against Collins.

Early in the game there was some attempt to start an organized booing against Eddie Collins, apparently in retaliation for Zimmerman's treatment earlier in the series, but this was soon hissed down. In every other respect the contest was all that world series contest should be. The sky was partly overcast and there was little wind, but the cold damp atmosphere made wraps a necessity.

With Cicotte turned back for a few days at least, the Giants supporters are looking for McGraw to start either Schupp or Sallee in the next game, but the New York manager would give no inkling of his plans tonight. He confined his remarks to a statement that at last the team had got going and that he expected them to continue the winning pace from now on. So far as could be learned from the Chicago team headquarters Manager Rowland's choice for tomorrow's game probably will lie between Faber and Russell.

Before the players took the field the players gathered around the plate and an American flag was presented to Corporal Hank Gowdy, who is now in the Ohio National guard.

Smoke more — Tom Moore!

We are told that the reward for good work is more work. The man who realizes that, will realize also that the reward for mild smoking is the permission it gives for more mild smoking. He will be governed accordingly, in his selection of a cigar.

A cigar of mild aroma, yet with a tempting taste of mellow Havana in its filler, will suggest itself to him as excellent for a steady companion.

It is not unlikely that he will choose Tom Moore, "a light-hearted Havana," made especially for pleasantness.
