

LIBERTY BOND SALESMEN ARE WORKING HARD

Related Reports Bring Total Above Seven and a Half Million Mark; Bankers Ask Details.

Liberty bond subscriptions thus far tabulated in Omaha total $7,554,650. Four Omaha firms have added their subscription to the subscriptions announced at the mass meeting in the Commercial club Tuesday.

This does not yet include any of the scores of items of subscriptions taken by the many committees which spent the day Wednesday canvassing various sections of the city.

On account of the difficulty of compiling the figures coming in from day to day from the many committees at work, it has been impossible as yet to get any accurate totals on the results of the first day's work.

Throughout the state the biggest part of the drive will begin next week. This is partly due to the fact that the bankers, who are all taking part in the Liberty loan drive, are this week attending the bankers' convention in Omaha.

While at the convention, however, the Liberty loan drive ahead of them is occupying a large part of their attention. This morning the Omaha branch of the Federal Reserve bank at Thirteenth and Farnam, streets was packed with bankers from all parts of the state.

OMAHA PORTIAs PLEAD CAUSE OF LIBERTY BONDS

Speakers at club meeting today were: Benson Woman's club, Mrs. C. H. Tracy; Eastern Star Kensington club, Mrs. Halleck Rose, and Swedish women at Zion church, Mrs. Anson Bigelow.

The revised list of the executive committee includes Mrs. E. M. Fairfield, chairman; Mrs. Warren Blackwell, vice chairman; Mrs. Edward M. Syfert, secretary, and Mrs. W. A. C. Johnson, Mrs. T. P. Reynolds, Mrs. John L. Kennedy, Mrs. E. S. Westbrook, Mrs. J. T. Stewart, 2d, and Mrs. George A. Joslyn.

The young women of the "Twentieth Century Maids" burlesque show at the Gayety theater, gave a demonstration of feminine patriotism when they subscribed for $400 worth of Liberty bonds.

"We want to do our share to win this war," smilingly remarked Juliette Belmont, the ingenue, as she proudly showed her bond. "I believe it is a splendid investment," she added.

"Peggie Irwin bought a $100 bond and Mrs. Nellie Rueling took a $50 bond for herself and one for her little daughter, Vivian.

One of the company who has a modest annuity bought a $100 bond. The total for the company will be considerably more than $400 before the week is over.

"These young women are very much interested in Liberty bonds," said Manager E. W. Chinaman of the show. "One of the girls had only $30 to spare, so I advanced her $20." Manager E. L. Johnson was commissioned to buy the bonds.

"It is a splendid way to save money. If one has a Liberty bond, he or she always has money, because in time of stress you can sell it," was the comment of Agnes Foster.

Members of the company are promoting Liberty bond sales among the theatrical people they meet.

"They are an O. K. bunch," remarked Jim Barton, head liner of the company.

PEACE TALK KEPT FROM THE GERMANS

Socialists in Reichstag Cite Army Orders to Prove That Men Anxious for Peace Are Given War Propaganda.

Copenhagen, Oct. 10.—An unreported report of Monday's debate in the Reichstag shows that the socialist speakers produced a whole series of instructions from the higher military authorities concerning the "Enlightenment campaign," which were in direct variance to the principle of no politics in the army and with the general regulation which Lieutenant General von Stein, Prussian war minister, said governed the campaign.

The socialists also directed attention to the fact that the general order for enlightenment against peace was issued immediately after the adoption of the Reichstag peace resolution, July 19, showing that the campaign was directed against the Reichstag majority.

They brought out also the fact that a conference was called by the war ministry in the middle of August to discuss preventive measures against strikes and that the strike movement of the radical socialists against the war and food and labor conditions was still a menace.

Heinrich Dove, radical socialist, who has returned from the front, reported to the members of the Reichstag that the soldiers everywhere had expressed the desire that the war speedily be ended.

Ask Resignation of Episcopal Bishop For Stand On War

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 11.—The Right Rev. Paul Jones, bishop of Salt Lake diocese of the Episcopal church, has been asked to resign his position. The demand was made by his council of advice, the vestrymen of St. Paul's church, and the dean, wardens and vestrymen of St. Mark's Cathedral parish late last night.

In their conviction that Bishop Jones had forfeited his right to be leader of the diocese by his alleged unpatriotic attitude and his membership in associations not in sympathy with the national struggle for human rights and the democracy, the vestrymen at two meetings went on record unanimously condemning him for his stand he has taken towards the government of the United States.
