GIANTS RIDE INTO CHICAGO CONFIDENT OF VICTORY OVER SOX; SCALPERS BOOST PRICES

National League Champs Convinced World's Title Will Be Theirs; Hose None Too Happy Over Gotham Defeats; Complain Muggsy's Men Roughed Them At Second Base.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—The victories of the New York Giants in the third and fourth games of the world's series, thus evening up the score, caused speculators to raise the prices of seats today for the fifth game, which is to be played at White Sox park tomorrow.

For single grandstand seats the brokers are demanding $10 and for a box seat $15.

The sale of reserved seats for tomorrow's game also was opened at the park box office today. The tickets are those redeemed from purchasers who bought for the three games here, and later found themselves unable to attend the third game of the series. A record-breaking crowd is expected to attend if the weather permits.

The official weather forecast today for tomorrow's game reads: "Saturday fair, with slowly rising temperature."

This prognostication does not necessarily mean warm weather, as the temperature was distinctly cold today, with an occasional stray-fake of snow in the air.

Giants Confident. On Board Giants' Special Train, Oct. 12.—No more confident ball club ever sallied forth to battle than the New York Giants today, enroute to Chicago for the fifth game of their world's championship series with the White Sox.

Do Not Underdate Sox. Yet the Giants carefully resisted any temptation to prophesy a complete triumph within the next two playing days. They were frank to confess that they regard the White Sox as already beaten, but they do not display the slightest tendency to underdate their opponents.

McCarty Comes Back. All the Giant players except Lew McCarty were in perfect physical condition as the club traveled westward, and McCarty's injured shoulder had mended to such an extent that he was able to carry his own handbag.

La Follette Probe Opens Again Today. Washington, Oct. 12.—Investigation of Senator La Follette's alleged disloyal speech before the Nonpartisan league at St. Paul was continued today by a special senate committee.

"We'll Start Again in Chicago." "We simply could not hit," said Chick Gandil. "If you can't hit, you can't win. We will start again in Chicago. Banton pitched the best game so far against us. We have hit better pitchers than Schupp."

Some of the Sox players complained that the Giants roughed them as they went into second base, and said that if the New Yorkers were looking for trouble they would find it before the series was over.

HUSKERS BATTLE IOWANS TODAY IN FIRST BIG GAME

Clash With Hawkeyes Today Will Give Nebraska Followers Line on Stewart's 1917 Eleven.

By FRED S. HUNTER. Nebraska's strong and sturdy Cornhuskers start today on their 1917 gridiron campaign, which it is hoped will bring the western football championship to the golden rod state.

The Cornhuskers today play the first of the series of six "big" games. This clash is with Iowa university on Nebraska field at Lincoln.

Prospects for success on the gridiron have never been more brilliant at the Husker institution. Despite the fact that many veterans of the 1916 team are gone, indications are that Nebraska will have the greatest eleven in the history of the school.

Last Saturday, the Huskers walked Nebraska Wesleyan, 100 to 0. It was the largest score ever recorded by a Nebraska eleven and it was accomplished without the aid of the man who gives promise of being the individual star of this year's team.

Four New Stars. Four new men of exceptional gridiron talent and ability are largely responsible for the optimism in the Cornhusker camp. They are: William Day of Beatrice, Sam Kellogg of Nebraska City, Harold McMahon of Lincoln and Schellenberg make up the quartet.

It was Schellenberg who was the big factor in running up the century count on Wesleyan. This young giant, a powerful line plunger, as well as a brilliant offensive runner, and a 10.2 man, carried the ball almost at will against Wesleyan.

Three-Fingered Pitcher Sues for Back Salary. Chicago, Oct. 12.—Seeking to recover $8,000 alleged to be due him in back salary, Mordecai Brown, the three-fingered pitcher, has filed suit in the United States district court here for the appointment of a receiver for the defunct Federal league.

The suit was filed in Chicago at this time so summonses could be served on a majority of the defendants, who are here attending the world's series.

Day at Center. Day, normally a backfield man, has been converted into a center and is doing such a satisfying job of it that he has practically cinched the place.

Mulford Picked to Win At Chicago Speedway. Chicago, Oct. 12.—Ralph Mulford was regarded tonight as favorite to win the Grand Prix races of twenty, fifty and 100 miles at the speedway course tomorrow.

Stewart's freshmen recruits means the possible retirement of two of last year's players to the second string or at least alternating with them. It is quite likely that Stewart will start the game Saturday with McMahon and Schellenberg as halfbacks, and Dobson and Kellogg as fullbacks.

Stewart is still driving his team in the use of the forward pass, which cost the team of 1916 two defeats. In the Wednesday and Thursday practice the Husker mentor would not permit the varsity to use any other plays, and in spite of it the regulars

HUSKER HOSPITAL SQUAD NOW IS O. K.

McMahon and Other Six Injured Athletes Return to Game Ready for Fray With Iowa.

Lincoln, Oct. 12.—(Special)—The Cornhusker football squad, with seven men in the hospital after the game with Wesleyan last Saturday, has rounded into superb physical shape for the annual battle with the University of Iowa Saturday afternoon on Nebraska field and should give the Hawkeyes a sound thrashing.

Dr. E. J. Stewart, the head coach, professes to be mightily concerned for fear the Huskers will become overconfident. He expects a grueling battle with the Hawkeyes, for the information which the Nebraska mentor has received indicates that Coach Jones has a squad which is far superior to the eleven Nebraska tussled with last year.

The dash and spirit of Cornhusker football eleven, which was so sadly wanting in the 1916 eleven, has characterized the entire week's preparations for Iowa, however. McMahon came back into the lineup Wednesday night and signaled his return by providing a series of thrills for the bleacherites when he raced around the freshmen yards for two long runs of fifty yards each and each netting a touchdown.

OMAHA HIGH TRIMS CREIGHTON, 52 TO 0

Catholic Lads No Match for the Huskies From the Central School, Who Score Eight Touchdowns.

The football warriors from Central High romped away from the Creighton High school squad Friday afternoon on Creighton field. Making long end runs almost at will and uncovering a brilliant aerial game they came off to the tune of 52 to 0.

The dope was completely upset. Followers of the blue and white before the game boasted that they had a team that would give Central a hard tussle if not actually defeat them. But Central got a start after the first five minutes of play and then it was touchdown after touchdown for the Omaha boys.

Maxwell was Central's star and particular shining light. He was responsible for two touchdowns, several long passes and did what kicking was necessary. Smith at right half played a brilliant game scoring three touchdowns and going through the line for big gains.

Creighton held for the first five minutes of play, then Central began an inexorable march up the field with Noble, Smith and Logan carrying the ball. A pass from Maxwell to Smith, and out to Carson netted the first score. Maxwell kicked goal.

Smith started the second quarter with a ten-yard dash followed by a long pass. The ball seasawed back and forth, until Smith went over the line on a forward pass from Maxwell. By means of line bucking and end runs Central scored another touchdown.

In the second half Omaha resorted to more open field work using end runs and forward passes with continued success. Creighton failed signally in feeble attempts to block the passes.

The New York Giants go into today's game with the White Sox long favorites with the Omaha fans, who have suddenly switched from their original hopefuls, the Sox, to the lads from Manhattan Island.

When the big series opened Omaha fans all were with the Pale Hose, largely because of Comiskey's widespread popularity and because the Sox are westerners. When Rowland's troupe carried off the first two games the odds sailed a mile high in Omaha, but following the Giants' marked reversal in form, odds now favor the Giants. Betting is 7 to 5 the Giants capture the series and some bets have been made at even money that Muggsy's athletes will take two straight games.
