

SECURITY SHRINKAGE PROCESS CONTINUES

Shares of All Description Add 3 to 7 Points to Decline During Week; Seasoned Industrials Better.

New York, Oct. 12.—Operations in the securities market this week were curtailed to an extent by the observance of a double holiday, but the process of liquidation continued with little interruption.

Shares of all descriptions, particularly investment shares, added 3 to 7 points to their shrinkage of the last month. Utility issues were hardest hit, suspension of the dividend on People's Gas being preceded and followed by extreme losses of 10 to 20 points.

Declines in rails, many of which touched lowest quotations of the year and not a few for many years, excited widespread comment, inasmuch as the movement included shares of high intrinsic value. Steady offerings of these stocks occasioned much conjecture respecting future dividends.

Employees' Demands Complicate Rails.

Numerous additional statements of railroad earnings compiled by the Interstate Commerce commission accompanied the revival of agitation for increased freight rates. The demand of the railway employees east of Chicago and north of Potomac for more pay added to the complicated conditions already existing in the transportation field.

On the whole seasoned industrials fared better than most other shares, although United States Steel came within easy approach of its low quotation for the year and affiliated issues were even weaker.

Time and call money loans were decidedly lower, but funds were not available for stock market purposes. Rates to some of the neutral European countries hardened on the more restricted embargo, but remittances elsewhere showed no material alteration.

Brazil May Put German Vessels at Allies' Service

Paris, Oct. 12.—Maurice Long, minister of provisions, was asked in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday whether he believed the sequestration of German shipping in Brazil could be raised. The minister replied that he not only hoped so but he believed that he could assure the house that this tonnage was at the disposal of the allies for use in carrying food. Brazil severed diplomatic relations with Germany on April 11, 1917, and seized forty-six German merchant ships aggregating 240,779 tons, laid up in Brazilian harbors. On September 5 the Brazilian minister of marine announced that his government would not lease the German ships to the entente allies.

Four More Suspects Are Indicted in Ship Bomb Case

New York, Oct. 12.—Indictments charging a conspiracy to "plant" incendiary bombs aboard ships carrying munitions of war from this port to the entente allies in 1915 were returned by a federal grand jury here today against Eugene Reister, Joseph Zeffert, Walter Uhde and Bonford Boniface. Three of the men were taken into custody last night by the police "bomb squad" and the fourth today. In default of bail they were sent to jail.

Germer Says Socialist Party Ordered Pamphlets

Omaha Kiddies Rehearse for Russian Dance Under Tutelage of Mrs. J. Ervine Brandeis and Her Sister

Cinderella, Cupid, and a tiny Russian ballet, made up of eleven little dancers between the ages of 6 and 11, will appear on the second floor of the Brandeis stores this morning at 10, then at 11 o'clock, and in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. E. John Brandeis, a talented dancer and a student of Vestoff and other celebrated dancing masters, has been training the little terpsichoreans almost since her arrival in Omaha as a bride. Her sister, Miss Aileen Frank, of San Francisco, who has been visiting Mrs. Brandeis for several weeks, assisted the little Omaha woman in getting the ballet ready for the public performance. Miss Frank helped design the costumes of the children also.

Mrs. Brandeis originally planned the ballet to be given for a Red Cross benefit and had trained the little dancers especially for this purpose. So many Red Cross affairs have been given, however, that it was deemed wisest by local authorities not to make any more demands for funds in the name of the Red Cross.

"The children were so disappointed. They had looked forward to their 'debut' so eagerly, we decided to give the performance in the Brandeis stores," said Mrs. Brandeis.

Besides the dance in honor of Cinderella, there will be interpretive dancing with much pantomime work. The children will appear in several different costumes, besides the Russian.

The photograph of the little dancers, with Mrs. Brandeis and her sister, Miss Frank, was taken at a dress rehearsal Thursday.

The dancers are: Cinderella, Gwendolyn Mayes; Cupid, Anne Amsden; Russian ballet: George Perlman, Josephine Thomas, Marguerite Rhine, Adele Brady, Stephen Brady, Frances Harrison, Doris Secord, Agnes Burns, Hazel Lewis.
