

CONSPIRACY CASE COMES UP MONDAY

Maloney and Other Omaha Men Go to Alliance to Answer Charges Made Against Them.

Stephen Maloney, William S. Dolan, Gust A. Tylee, Harvey Wolf, Charles W. Pipkin and Philip Winckler, Omaha defendants in the Chadron conspiracy case, have gone to Alliance to appear in district court Monday morning, when their case will be called before Judge Grimes of North Platte.

The other defendants are Allen G. Fisher, Louis K. Mote and Charles I. Day of Chadron.

Ben S. Baker, Frank S. Howell and M. F. Harrington of this city will represent the nine men who were bound over last May by Judge Slattery at Chadron. Harry C. Brome has gone to assist in prosecution.

Edwin B. Crites, Davest county attorney, is complainant and will be one of the chief witnesses.

All except Stephen Maloney of the Omaha defendants were connected with the Omaha Detective Association at the time this case broke. Mr. Pipkin recently left the association.

The nine men are charged with conspiracy to blackmail County Attorney Crites and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hood at Chadron last May. It is further alleged in the complaint that the conspirators contemplated demanding that Crites sign an agreement to abstain from seeking public office in the future and to drop bootlegging cases which were pending last May. Mr. Crites is serving his fifth consecutive term as county attorney.

The preliminary hearing was marked by sensational evidence, involving the operations of Central Bath institute by Elsie Phelps and a night scene in the office of County Attorney Crites.

History of Case.

This case had its inception when Mrs. Phelps was engaged by the detective association to go to Chadron to work on the Hood case, wherein Robert Hood was seeking evidence against his wife. Before leaving Omaha the woman detective confided her mission to Detective Paul B. Sutton, then a member of the morals squad under Superintendent Kurel of the police department. Mrs. Phelps admitted during the preliminary hearing at Chadron and at a subsequent police investigation in the city council chamber that she went back to Chadron with the avowed purpose of "uncovering some questionable methods of the detective association," and to accomplish those ends she double-crossed the detective association by making a cat paw of Detective Philip Winckler, who had preceded her to Chadron and who was on the Hood case. She began her operations at Chadron by posing as "Mrs. Ellen Lovry of Omaha," a woman who was going to establish a residence to obtain a divorce. So far as Winckler knew, until the "blowup" she was working as his confidante and in the interests of the detective association which had engaged her. Mrs. Phelps contended that the people she is now fighting conspired to blackmail Crites and the Hoods and claims to have been present in Crites' office on the night of May 14, when the "big scene" occurred.

"I am quite convinced they will be unable to make a case against my clients. I doubt even if the judge will allow the case to go to the jury," commented Attorney Baker before he entrained for Alliance yesterday.

tion for negotiations with England will be the different. England desires negotiations now and her position is comparatively favorable. The decisive factors are the shipping losses suffered by the entente and by neutrals who expose themselves to our U-boat war.

Stronger Than France.

"No definite time can be fixed for our success. Economically and as regards raw materials, our position today is stronger than that of France or Italy. How far England will be able to make her supplies last cannot be predicted.

"But the decisive factor is that while we supply four-fifths of our economic needs from our own productions, England has to fetch four-fifths of hers from overseas.

"We are now at the fateful hour of our existence. Germany cannot maintain her position as a world power against England unless her position is founded on might."

First Mate Lost in Wreck of Steamer

opened and the money taken out. The machines will be confiscated. When asked for an explanation as to the machines being in his place of business Givens stated that he had seen machines running in Fort Crook and thought that he could run too.

Three Days Next Week to Push Bond Campaign Here

Subscriptions thus far reported for the Liberty bonds in Omaha total $7,670,700. These are the actual subscriptions reported in with the duplications removed and the figures properly tabulated. Many subscriptions have been taken which have not yet been reported in to the central committee and tabulated by them.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week are to be set aside as days for special activity for the bond campaign all over the state. An effort is being made to get Governor Neville to set these days apart for this work in a special proclamation.

Telegrams have gone to all county chairmen calling their attention to these three days, and urging them to begin the activity early in the week and to center their hardest work on these three days.

Want Photograph Records From Boys in Trenches

Washington, D. C., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—That mothers and relatives who are serving with the United States marines in France a Massachusetts woman has suggested that blank photograph records be forwarded to the boys in the trenches.

"Such records would prove dear to every household from which a son is serving; it means that even though he is killed in battle his voice can still be heard by those he held most dear," writes the woman to marine corps officials here, who have taken the matter under consideration.

Mrs. Davidson's maiden name was Houser and she was born in Illinois. She had lived in Tecumseh for many years and was prominently identified with the social life of the city. She was sixty years old. She is survived by her husband and seven children and a sister, Mrs. W. W. Clifton, who resides at Guthrie, Okl. Funeral arrangements are not yet made.

Investigating Origin Of Fire in Three New York Grain Elevators

New York, Oct. 13.—Origin of a fire which for a time threatened the destruction of three elevators on the Brooklyn water front today is being investigated by fire department authorities. One of the structures, which are owned by the New York Dock company, was badly damaged and many thousands of bushels of grain were consumed.

Fire Marshal Brophy, after a preliminary investigation, said he was of the opinion that the fire was due to the ignition of "grain dust." Superintendent Tompkins, in charge of the elevators, declared the nature of the explosion caused him to suspect incendiarism and the use of a bomb. It was declared the loss would be around $500,000.

Three Members of Jefferis Family Hurt in Auto Wreck

Mrs. Albert W. Jefferis, 1025 South Thirtieth avenue, her son, Albert, and daughter, Janet, received injuries when their automobile was overturned at the intersection of Eleventh and Harney at 11 o'clock this morning, when struck by the automobile driven by J. C. Monahan, Portsmouth, Ia.

Albert Jefferis, who was driving the Jefferis automobile, a large closed car, received cuts from glass. Janet Jefferis was cut about the legs and badly bruised and Mrs. Jefferis sustained a sprained back. Dr. Foltz gave first aid and the injured people were taken to their home.

According to Mrs. Jefferis their car was well across the intersection going west on Harney street when the Monahan machine going south on Eleventh street hit the rear of their car, completely overturning it. The glass panels were broken and the occupants were extricated with difficulty. Monahan was taken to the police station.

No Word From Stefansson Since in March, 1916

Dawson, Y. T., Oct. 13.—Commander Vilhjalmur Stefansson, noted

explorer, has not been heard from since March, 1916, according to Bishop Stringer, who was here today after a five months' trip up the Arctic coast as far as Cape Bathurst. In March, last year, Stefansson was in Banksland. Northerly gales which carried the Arctic ice pack toward the mainland shore are thought to have made it impossible for him to travel toward Dawson. His original plan was to proceed eastward through the northwest passage, it was understood.

Push Thrust Back.

Paris, Oct. 13.—German forces last night made several attacks on French positions north of the River Aisne. The official statement issued this afternoon by the French war office says that all the assaults were repulsed.

Michaelis Must Go.

Copenhagen, Oct. 13.—The German Reichstag adjourned, leaving behind it a latent crisis which political observers believe will lead sooner or later to the retirement of Dr. Michaelis, the chancellor, without a following. Although other parties are less actively in opposition to Dr. Michaelis than the socialists, not a voice has been raised against the Vorwaerts slogan "Michaelis Must Go."

Recent arrivals from Berlin report that current gossip there is that Michaelis can scarcely last a month. The chancellor's blunder in springing the disclosure of the alleged naval plot against which, according to the National Zeitung, he was strongly advised, and his failure to make headway against the Reichstag majority, appear to have lost him the conservative and pan-German support.

The speeches at the concluding session of the Reichstag must be read in a light of the expectation that the days of Michaelis are numbered. The speech of the radical deputy, Haussmann, contained passages intended to launch the candidacy of France von Buelow, which is still being pressed as vigorously as possible.

Germans in Africa Hard Pressed.

London, Oct. 13.—Occupation by British troops of an important junction point, flanking the German line of retreat in German East Africa, was announced by the war department today. The British have occupied Ruwanda and are pressing the rear guard of the enemy's main body.

Berlin, Oct. 13.—The British gain in Flanders yesterday amounted altogether to about one and one-fifth kilometers at two points where the German lines were broken into, the war office announces. The British are said to have suffered heavily.

We Have Only a Few Hudsons To Sell

There is a scarcity of Hudson Super-Sixes at the Present Low Prices. Our allotment is nearly exhausted.

You can make a substantial saving on Hudsons now. Do not put off buying yours until it is too late.

You know the popularity of the Hudson. When former cheaper cars could be bought at $200 to $300 less than the Super-Six, no two of them had sales equal to those of the Hudson. Now over fifty other makers of automobiles have advanced their prices from $100 to $700 since the first of January, and the Hudson price remains the same.

Is it any wonder that Hudson sales are larger than ever—that the demand is so great?

The schedule of production for an automobile factory calls for a definite output for a year. Materials are purchased and the cars allotted to dealers. When these cars are sold, materials bought on a later market go into the next production.

Materials today cost considerably more than they did a year ago, and so Hudsons will cost more. Other makers have had to increase their prices—but their materials were exhausted long ago: Hudson was more fortunate.

This is an opportunity to buy a car that has a world record for performance and endurance. Over 40,000 now drive Super-Sixes. It is the largest selling fine car.

We can fill a limited number of orders for immediate purchasers.
