

Nebraska STATE FAIR BOARD IN TRACTION ROW

Up to State Board of Agriculture to Tear Up Tracks on Grounds to Make Way for Swine Barn.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—It will be up to the State Board of Agriculture to pull up the tracks of the Lincoln Traction company running into the state fair grounds in order that it may erect the big $80,000 swine barn at the place selected for it.

The location necessitates the moving of the tracks of the street car company in order to give room for the barn. The company refuses to remove its tracks and also refuses to rebuild them at a location donated by the state.

The matter came up at a meeting of the State Board of Agriculture and representatives of the traction company. Mr. Bramlett, manager of the traction company refused to accept any offer of the board to adjust matters. He refused to do anything which might cause expense to the car company, notwithstanding the week's state fair session brings into the company one of its greatest revenues.

The board offered to donate grounds for the new tracks entering the fair grounds west of the boy's camp and then pass north of the live stock pavilion.

Mr. Bramlett did not want to go to the expense of grading the track way and then the board offered to bear the expense of the grading. Still Mr. Bramlett refused saying that if the state fair associations wanted the tracks laid in that location they could lay them and stand the expense not only of the grading, out the laying, the rails and the ties. He said that by doing so the Fair association would own them.

If the company will not move its tracks where the location of the barn has been determined upon, the fair management will tear them up and make room.

According to statements made, it is probable that the business interests of Lincoln may take hold of the matter, as it is not likely that they will see any action on the part of the street car company that in any way embarrasses the State fair in the management of its property and the permanent improving of the same.

Already there are rumors that the people may be called upon to vote this spring on the city owning the street car service, and the action of the company today is known to have made friends for the proposition who were opposed to city ownership before.

Supreme Court Reverses Judgment in O'Brien Case

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—The supreme court reverses the judgment of the district court of Douglas county in a case brought by James O'Brien against the South Omaha Live Stock exchange, which expelled him from membership therein for alleged bad faith and dishonest conduct in violation of certain of its rules and by-laws.

An initiation fee of $1,000 was paid by Mr. O'Brien for a certificate of membership. He pleaded guilty to the charge against him and his certificate of membership was cancelled and he was expelled from membership.

He brought suit to recover $3,000, the alleged value of the certificate, and was awarded $1,414 damages, and the stock exchange appealed.

The court holds that courts cannot interfere with the enforcement of rules and by-laws of incorporated voluntary associations or exchanges organized not for pecuniary gain, but to provide convenient facilities for the orderly conduct of business at the common expense.

Germans Always Yield To Fierce Bayonet Attack

Fremont, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—Sidney Flowers, the former Fremont boy who was wounded in trench fighting in Flanders several months ago, in a letter to a local newspaper writes of the part the American troops are taking in the fight. Mr. Flowers is confident that when the fresh troops from this country arrive there and are put into action the "Fritzes," as they are called, will make another victorious retreat.

Flowers writes that the Germans are extremely susceptible to bayonet fighting and predicts that the war will be won by this kind of warfare. Flowers was at Vimy Ridge, Messines and Ypres and observed that the Hunns always faltered when they were encountered by soldiers of the allies in the bayonet charges.

Flowers gives a graphic description of the gas method of fighting. In this style of warfare the British have met the Germans on their own grounds and now lead in effective gas fighting. Flowers is at a hospital at Birmingham, England, where he is recovering from a gas attack.

Chiropractic For Women

In all diseases of women so great has been the success of Chiropractic that thousands who formerly suffered are finding relief through Chiropractic Adjustments.

The cause of the trouble is invariably found due to impinged nerves in the spine, caused, perhaps, from a fall in childhood, or from some slight accident, which at the time of happening was not deemed to be of any importance, as effecting a person in after life.

It is the pressure on nerves which causes headache, chronic or otherwise, dizziness, insomnia, goitre, nervousness, rheumatism, stomach and bowel troubles, backaches and heavy bearing down pains in the pelvic region.

No known agency or science helps a woman under such conditions as Chiropractic Spinal Adjustments, which removes the pressure from the nerve or nerves controlling the region involved.

Investigation costs nothing and means health and happiness. Adjustments are $1.00 or 12 for $10.00.

Leamer Loses Contest Case in Supreme Court

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—George W. Leamer, county attorney of Dakota county, loses in his contest to hold his position, according to the opinion of the supreme court.

Leamer was elected last fall by a plurality of only 13 votes and Sidney T. Frum, his opponent, contested the election. A demand for a recount was made by Frum in the county court, which was refused, and on appeal to the district court was affirmed. An appeal to the supreme court reverses the opinion of the lower court.

The court holds that Frum was entitled to introduce as evidence ballots which had been properly preserved without first making proof that error had been committed in the first count.
