Felsch hit to Pitcher Benton, who threw to third to get Collins, who straggled home. Catcher Rariden was half way to the bag to help trap the White Sox field captain, but Zimmerman took it upon himself to make the putout and started to chase Collins toward home. Before the spectators or the other players could realize what was happening Collins, with Zimmerman in his wake, sprinted for the plate and passed Rariden flat-footed, while the pursuer, outdistanced in the dash, saw his score without a chance for a play of any kind.

Gandil Singles to Left. While this diamond disaster was being enacted Jackson and Felsch were perched on third and second respectively when Collins slid across the unguarded plate. Gandil promptly arose to the occasion by singling to right, scoring both teammates and went out when he tried to stretch his hit into a two-base drive, Robertson getting him at the midway with a fine throw. Weaver fled to Burns and Schalk singled in the same direction. Faber worked his rival for a pass and with two on, John Collins closed the run-getting by hitting to Fletcher, who toed him out at first.

Rariden Passed to First. After Holke fanned, Rariden was passed to first by Faber, and Wilhoit, batting for Benton, also received first passage to Gandil's post. With two on and one out, the thousands began to root for a rally and the uproar was deafening. Cow bells, automobile horns and sirens led the chorus, while the stands fairly rocked with the stamping. The White Sox were steady, however, even in the tumult as Burns forced Wilhoit at second, Weaver to Collins. Captain Herzog then came through with a screaming drive past J. Collins to the right field wall, scoring both Rariden and Burns. With the tying run on third, the din was strident for Benny Kauff who was seen striding to the plate swinging three bates viciously. He failed to meet the emergency however, his effort being a high foul fly which Gandil gathered in, leaving Herzog stranded.

That was the finish of the Giants' offense but the Chicago club added a final run in the ninth as a margin of safety should the home club start a belated rally. Weaver opened with a single to left, took second on Faber's sacrifice and scored on Leibold's single to center. The pitcher's analysis shows that Faber in a total of 113 deliveries

Plestina and Big Roll of Bills Going After Edwin Lewis

Marin Plestina, Omaha heavyweight wrestler, left for Detroit last night. Plestina was accompanied by $1,000 regular money.

The purpose of the visit of Plestina and the $1,000 to Detroit is to chase out Ed (Strangler) Lewis clear out of Michigan.

For the last year, the Strangler has been justly claiming the wrestling championship of the universe and among other bits of information he gave out, was that he once earned a victory over Plestina.

As a matter of fact, Marin dumped Lewis and the Omaha is sore because of the Strangler's contention. Lewis is now working out of Detroit so Plestina is invading the enemy's camp to make Lewis put up or shut up.

Avery Sends Out Appeal to Employees of Uni to Buy Bonds

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—Chancellor Samuel Avery of the University of Nebraska this evening sent out a ringing patriotic appeal to all employees of the university to back the second Liberty loan to the limit—to strive to "do more than our just part"—adding that he has pledged to the two Liberty loans "all that I could save in the past year and all that I can hope to save through frugal living in the present year."

The chancellor's call, issued on the evening before the second Liberty loan university mass meeting—tomorrow at convocation—is as follows: "The future of our nation, the perpetuation of American institutions, and the lives of our comrades, who have joined the colors, depend on the outcome of the present struggle. The successful prosecution of the war depends upon the success of the second Liberty loan. Can we not, in spite of stationary salaries and high price of living, through rigid self-denial, do more than our just part? The editors of The Outlook recently wrote to me in regard to the patriotic Personally I have pledged all that I could save in the last year and all that I can hope to save through frugal living in the present year to the two Liberty loans. When the third comes I shall find some way of participating in that as well. The smallest amount subscribed by the poorest paid employe in the institution may represent the final dollars that will make the loan a success."

Flush Kidneys With Salts If Back Is Aching

Noted authority says we eat too much meat, which clogs Kidneys. Take glass of Salts when Kidneys hurt or Bladder bothers you. No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid, which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Neglect all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus equating bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Adv.
