CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Huge Purchase by Big Concern Gives Initial Impetus to Corn.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Liberal buying on the part of strong houses, together with accompanying assertions that liquidation and short selling were overdone, brought material advances today in the corn market. Prices closed firm, 1%c to 1%c net higher, at $1.14 to $1.14% for December and $1.05% for May. Oats finished $4.6%c off to %c up and provisions unchanged to $0c higher. The fact that one bir concern alone purchased more than 1.000.000 bushels of corn in the first half hour of trading gave the initial impetus to the upturn in prices. Further broadening out of demand soon took all the surplus offerings out of the market and forced many shorts to cover. On the buige commission firms and pit tial Impetus to Corn. Shipping demand for lard and ribs put some firmness into provisions. Considerable buying was based on reports of inquiries from the Belgian relief computies.
