BARE HINDU PLOT TO MURDER COOK. ARCTIC EXPLORER

Scheme to Foment Anti-British Revolution in India Included Wholesale Assassinations; Money From von Papen.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, Oct. 18 .- Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the Arctic explorer, and a crew of 19 sailors were among those marked for assassination by the leaders directing the plot to foment a revolution in India to embarrass Great Brita'n during the war, according to testimony given by Sukumar Chatterji, a Hindu priest, in Judge Landis' court at today's session of the trial of Gustav H. Jacobsen, Chicago real estate dealer, and his three co-defendants, charged with conspiracy. The plot against Dr. Cook and his party, Chatterji said, was revealed to him in Manila by George Paul Boehm, one of the defendants. Thomas J. Tuney of the New York police department testified to an alleged confession made to him by Gupta, one of the defendants, in New York, March 10, 1917, and his testimony was corroborated by George C. Barnett, New York detective ser-

Received Money From Von Papen. "He told me that Captain von Papen, the military attache of the German embassy in the United States, paid him between $15,000 and $16,000," said Tuney. "He said he received the money in six or seven payments and it was to be used in making a trip to the orient. He said later he went to China and Japan and purchased firearms and ammunition for use in the revolution in India. Gupta told me that Von Papen said he would buy additional firearms and ammunition in the United States and ship to the orient by way of the South Seas. Gupta said he returned to this country in June, 1916, after having been followed by detectives all over China and Japan. He said that while in Japan he was on one occasion given pro-tection in the home of a high public
