Talented Southern Girl Being Entertained Here

Ruth Key

Miss Ruth Key of Mayfield, Ky., who has been visiting in Memphis, Tenn., for some months, is now in Omaha for a short time. Miss Key is a direct descendant of Francis Scott Key and General Robert E. Lee, and spent part of the summer on her uncle's plantation, Keyridge, near Vicksburg, Miss., the ground on which several battles of the civil war were fought. Miss Key is an accomplished harpist, having studied under Loretta De Lone, and expects to continue her harp study in one of the larger conservatories in the south.

CO. BLUFFS

DO IT NOW

Have Your Heavy Winter Suits, Your Overcoats and Jackets Cleaned and Put In Shape NOW.

The familiar little motto, "Do It Now," can be most aptly applied to the cleaning and repairing of your heavy winter garments. Procrastination means shivering later, when the snow flies.

Your last year's coat, overcoat, dress, or suit, if cleaned, will probably look so good to you that you will decide not to invest in a new one.

We have been repairing, relining, altering and cleaning clothes to the entire satisfaction of most of the people in Omaha for the past eighteen years. Phone us, and we will call for your cleaning.

Now You Can Reduce the Cost of Beauty Culture

Practical Economies in Banishing Complexion Blemishes; How to Make a Shampoo that Cleanses and Promotes Scalp-Health; Restoring the Beautiful Sheen and Lustre to Dull, Straggly Hair; Secret Method for Developing the Form; Removing Hairy Growths, Wrinkles, Etc.

By Madame Madeline Maree

MONA R. says: "My hair is straggly and brittle. Can you give me a formula for a good tonic?" Here is a formula that makes twice as much as good a tonic as you can buy at the same price of the ready prepared kind: Get 1/2 pint of bay rum and 1 ounce of beta-canthol and when you get home pour a little of the beta-canthol at a time in the bay rum, shaking it as you do so. Directions: Massage the scalp with this each night for a few nights, then two or three times a week and you will be rewarded with a beautiful growth of soft, silky hair of a rich, even color. This tonic gives quick relief when used on dry, itchy scalps, or where there is an excess of dandruff or oil. An ounce of beta-canthol will cost not to exceed 60c.

STENOGRAPHER: "My skin is horrible—pimples, blotchy and aching. Can you give me a good formula for it?" Here is my favorite formula for a face lotion: Get 2 ounces of amoral at the drug store and dissolve it in a pint of hot water. When cool it is ready to use. This is very easy to make and quite inexpensive, as it costs only 50c for a full pint of lotion. Directions: Apply twice a day. This lotion will not only get you positively astounded on how quickly the pimples and blotches will vanish. Use every day and you will reveal in a clear, soft, velvety skin.

MOTHER writes: "The superfluous hair on my face greatly annoys me. Is there a safe and painless way to remove it?" There is. No injury or inconvenience will result in removing hairy growths from the face, neck, arms or from any part of the body, if you use a paste made with some dolel and water. Leave this on the hairy surface 2 or 3 minutes then rub off and wash the skin and it will be entirely free from hair. Fifty cents' worth of dolel will be ample, and seldom is the second application required, unless the growth is very stubborn.

SPINSTER says: "I have a poorly developed figure. Is there any way to develop it?" Yes. Form-development, when rightly attempted, produces entirely satisfactory results, but too much should not be expected in a week or two. Here is an excellent formula: Make a syrup with 1 pint of water and 1/4 cupfuls of granulated sugar and to this add 1 ounce of gailol. Take a tablespoonful a day. The gailol will cost a dollar, but as this formula makes a full pint, you are saving about two dollars by making it up yourself. Results should be seen in two or three weeks, unless nature is quite slow to respond.

ELLA G. writes: "I have been using a shampoo for which I pay a dollar a bottle, but I find it injures the hair and scalp. Can you recommend a good one?" It is plain extravagance to pay a dollar for a bottle of shampoo when for 25c you can buy enough egrol that will give you many delightful shampoos. Furthermore, the shampoo you mention absorbs too much oil and in time will leave the scalp dry, itchy, and will give you greasy, straggly and difficult to manage. Just dissolve a teaspoonful of egrol in a cup of hot water and your shampoo is ready. You will find this the most pleasing and beneficial of any shampoo you ever used.

WORKING GIRL writes: "Can I make a good vanishing cream at home?" You certainly can. Here is a splendid formula which I have published several times before: Dissolve 3 ounces of cerol in a scant pint of water and heat to near the boiling point for a few minutes as you stir. When cool add two or three ounces of sweet milk. This makes nearly a full pound of vanishing cream that would cost three or four times as much were you to buy the same already ready prepared. Apply the cream generously and rub until it entirely disappears, then note how leamy and smooth your skin is! You will find this cream unequalled for rough, dry, sallow, lifeless skin and similar complexion faults.

BELLE S. asks: "Please recommend a rolling massage cream to remove wrinkles. Can I make my own?" I will give you the formula for a very excellent rolling massage cream made with sweet milk. Here it is: Dissolve 3 ounces of broyl in 1/2 pint of sweet unskimmed milk. Then heat this to near the boiling point as you stir it gently for a few minutes. When it cools you will have nearly a full pound at a cost of only 50c. As good massage cream ready prepared would cost about two dollars for the same quantity. Using this rolling massage cream will produce almost wonders with poor complexion, and as a wrinkle-remover and skin-cleanser it is positively unsurpassed.

NOTE: Should you be unable to obtain from your drugist any item mentioned above, send the name of it, your name and address and the necessary money to my Secretary, 360 N. Clark St., Chicago, and you will get a mail kit to you.—Madeline Maree.—Advertisement.

ceremony for the east with the body. Mr. James M. Kennedy and Miss Martha Marbel were quietly married Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock at the parsonage of the Fifth Avenue church by Rev. A. J. Mathews. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Frank D. Marbel, and was attended by Miss Bertha Currie. Mr. A. Hansen was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy will go to housekeeping at once in South First street.
