

Nebraska WON'T CLOSE ALL SCHOOLS TO AID CORN HUSKING

When Necessity Appears Students Fitted for Farm Work to Be Granted Leave of Absence.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Oct. 23.—(Special.)—Schools and colleges of the state will not take a vacation during the corn-husking period to allow students to assist in harvesting the corn crop, according to action taken by the educators of the state at a meeting here. Representatives of the University of Nebraska, normal schools and other educational institutions agreed that when students were capable of husking corn, they be granted leave of absence to help in the work. It was the opinion of the men that if the schools closed down a large number of students not in the corn shucking class would be deprived of the benefits of school. A motion by E. M. Pollard of Nebraska that the school year end May 1 and that school be held on holidays and Saturdays met with the approval of the meeting. This it was thought necessary because of the large acreage of all kind of grain which will be put in next year.

Not Binding on University.

The action will not be binding on the University of Nebraska providing it is found necessary to use the students on the farms nor will it call for school on Saturday because so many students work on that day in order to earn money to carry them through the school year. Every effort will be made to credit those who leave school for corn shucking in their studies and special assistance will be given them to catch up.

A peculiar condition exists at the state agricultural farm, according to H. C. Filley. Generally it would be considered that the call of the farm would lure the boys who are taking farm work, but it appears that only about one-third of them are willing to leave school. Mr. Filley said, however, that those boys who were opposed were not "admirably fitted" to do the greatest service on the farm. Superintendent Minnie P. Knoots of Lancaster county, the only woman in attendance at the meeting, said she had discovered farmers were afraid of the novice. They thought that the green corn picker would confine his more aggressive work to eating chickens than in getting out before sunrise to shuck corn in the field.

Want Schools Open.

This morning, President Hayes of Peru normal and President Dick of the carney normal, held a conference with State Superintendent Clemmons. Both were opposed to the idea of closing their schools. President Hayes said that there were 30 young men attending his school who would go out to the cornfields and probably more.

He did not think it good policy to shut the schools against the hundreds of others who were not adapted to the work. When those who go come back there will be special consideration given them so they can catch up in their studies by the close of the school year.

President Dick was of the same opinion. He said that he was urging as many students as were capable of doing good work in the field to go and there would be quite a number of them, but he did not want the rest to be put to the inconvenience and extra expense of sticking around with no school. Both men said that there were girls students in their schools who were anxious to try the cornfields.

In a letter to State Superintendent Clemmons, C. Ray Gates, superintendent of the West Point schools, says Cuming county will not suffer for want of huskers and that there will not be a deficiency of more than two or three per cent. He has made an estimate of the "prospects" and finds that while the draft has taken about that per cent of the men in the country, if everybody on the farms who can will get busy, there will be no trouble. He estimates that there are 2,400 families on the farms of Cuming county and that each family will average two corn shuckers. They will make 4,800 corn shuckers in that county outside of the town people and with 98 farmers taken by the draft, the loss is only a little over two per cent.

The Bank of Pickrell and the Bank of Adams yesterday increased their Liberty bond purchases to $5,000 each. People generally are responding liberally in the drive for the sale of bonds. CONTROL BOARD BOOSTS FOR BONDS

State Commissioners Urge Superintendents of Nebraska Institutions to Help Along Liberty Loan Campaign.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special.)—The State Board of Control urges superintendents of state institutions under the control of the board to get busy on the Liberty loan at their institutions and help along the work. Following is a communication sent out to them today:

"This suggestion is not mandatory, but it means the conservation of lives of soldiers and sailors at home and abroad who are fighting for freedom of the civilized world. Unofficially, you are requested to see every employee in your institution and tell them the importance of buying Liberty bonds, immediately. Our president has called for quick action. All over the United States men and women are responding, and yet more bonds must be sold. Americans, let them be foreign or native born, are vitally interested. Our country has called every normal man and woman for action. It requires money in vast sums to win the war for civilization. Every man and woman who enjoys Liberty under the folds of the American flag should respond and buy as many Liberty bonds, at once, as they can."

"No one is compelled to buy Liberty bonds, but it is the duty of all to do so, if they can. As superintendent in your institution you are violating no law or breach of etiquette in presenting the bond issue to those under your supervision as employees. You can secure from any bank full information, and cards to sign. It is hoped you will act promptly and effectively. This is the last week in which you, or those with you, can assist in this splendid bond drive."

"At the close of this week a letter giving results, with names and amounts, will be appreciated by the undersigned."

"Remember that no bond that is provided by our government is too small to dispose of—or is any bond, specified, too large. The value of the bond rests with the person buying the bond. The security is the best in the world."

Colonel-Governor and Secretary-Captain on Mysterious Journey

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Oct. 23.—(Special.)—The mystery which overhung the state house yesterday over the disappearance of Governor Neville and his secretary, Lee Metcalfe, was partially solved today when about 9 o'clock allows but one dentist to each 1,000 of the latter came striding into the executive office massaging his little "Charlie Chaplin" and trying to look innocent.

As far as he was concerned he had been performing double duty while away. As secretary to the governor he had been to Omaha to talk with the exemption boards and other officials regarding transportation of officers men to the training camps. As captain and adjutant of the Seventh regiment he went to confer with other military celebrities regarding the duties of the hour.

Regarding the whereabouts of his chief, Captain Metcalfe simply said that he was "Somewhere in Nebraska." He believed that Governor Neville had taken Colonel Neville with him for company and that the two would get along very nicely, at least as well as the members of the board of educational lands and funds, of which the governor is a member, have been getting along lately.

Mr. Taylor's story is that he went to Alaska, where he remained seven years, making $1,000.00. He got ready to come home, but missed the last boat for the winter and was forced to stay there till the next spring, during which time he "fooled away" his money. Then he took a homestead in Saskatchewan, Canada, where he has lived for 14 years, accumulating considerable property. He is a son of William Taylor, one of the pioneer settlers of Dakota county, now residing at Carey, Idaho.

Fremont, Neb., Oct. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—Since Sunday Fremont has been the mecca of a horde of cornhuskers from Missouri and Kansas, attracted to Dodge county by reports that farmers are paying 10 cents a bushel for husking corn.

At the Young Men's Christian association where a free employment bureau is maintained, scores of men congregate to make application for work. The men demand 7 cents, while farmers are holding out for 6 cents. Some are paying 8 and a few 10 cents a bushel, but the majority hold out for 6.

Included in the small army of workmen are huskers who have given up jobs in Iowa for 6 cents and come to Fremont with the expectation of getting 8 and 10 cents.

Ohio to Vote On Suffrage Referendum in November

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 23.—The people of Ohio will vote on a referendum on the presidential suffrage question at the coming November elections, according to a decision of the state supreme court today. The suit brought by Ohio suffragists, to have the proposed referendum on the Reynolds presidential suffrage act, passed by the last general assembly, was today dismissed by the supreme court.

This decision ends a long standing dispute between the suffragists and anti-suffragists regarding the validity of more than 70,000 names on the referendum petition circulated last year, the suffragists alleging that thousands of these names were fraudulent and many of them repeated on the petitions in several different counties.

Merchant Cruiser Orama Torpedoed And Sunk by Sub

London, Oct. 23.—The British merchant cruiser Orama has been torpedoed and sunk, it is announced officially.

A British destroyer has been sunk in a collision. Two officers and 21 men were saved from the destroyer. No lives were lost on the Orama.

The Orama, 12,927 tons and 551 feet long, was built in Glasgow in 1911. Before being taken over by the British admiralty it was operated by the Orient Steam Navigation company of Glasgow. It was one of the small British squadron which in March of 1915, off the Chilean island of Juan Fernandez, sank the German cruiser Dresden, which escaped at the time the other vessels of the German Pacific squadron were destroyed by the British in the battle off Falkland islands, three months previously.

The announcement follows: "One of his majesty's destroyers has been sunk as a result of a collision. Two officers and 21 men were saved."

"His majesty's armed mercantile cruiser Orama, Commander W. Morrison in command, was torpedoed and sunk on Friday. There were no casualties."

BEST GULD WATER
LAXATIVE TASTES GOOD
Now Form of Salts Easy To Take

Everybody knows that it is impossible to find a treatment for constipation that is as good as old-fashioned salts. That remedy has been prescribed by thousands of physicians and used regularly in as many homes.

The chief trouble has always been the very bad taste and the necessity for taking salts in warm water, which upsets the stomach in so many cases. Medical science now comes along with these old-fashioned salts in a new form. It has taken old-fashioned salts, combined them in a certain way, added fruit acid, and perfected what the trade knows as Salinos pronounced Sally-Nos. That name is used simply to identify this new product and because it is so much easier to say than the long medical names of the salts.

Salinos (laxative salts) is known to more than 25,000 physicians in America alone and has been generally prescribed by them in treating constipation and the many troubles which it causes.

Salinos dissolves at once in cold water and may be taken with absolute safety by every member of the family. It is not a heart stimulant and contains no caffeine and no acetanilid. It rarely if ever fails in giving almost immediate relief from constipation and its use for a short period will invariably show a greatly improved condition. By providing regular daily habits, poisons are removed from the blood, digestion is better, rheumatism is reduced and the old time vigor comes back.

Try it tomorrow morning before breakfast. You'll feel better within an hour and the day won't end with a sick headache and a sour stomach.
