SYRACUSE ELEVEN TO STOP IN OMAHA

Will Practice Here Three Days Before Game With Huskers; Omaha to Have Wire to Ann Arbor Saturday.

Syracuse university foot ball eleven will spend three days in Omaha prior to the Nebraska-Syracuse game at Lincoln Thanksgiving.

University of Nebraska, yesterday re-ceived information that the Syracuse team would remain in Omaha the three days before the game with Nebraska instead of going to Lincoln.

The New Yorkers play the Michigan Aggies the Saturday before Thanksgiving. They will come right on to Nebraska after that game and will stay here until Thanksgiving.

their stay here. Hascall expects to make plans for entertainment of the New Yorkers while they are here and is anxious to get in touch with local Syracuse alumni for their co-operation.

A direct wire from Ann Arbor to the Omaha University club has been arranged by the local alumni association. The plays will be flashed over the wire as they occur and will be read at the club. All Omaha alumni of Nebraska are invited to be at the University club Saturday.

"I only care to say that if the club owners of Indianapolis, Louisville and Toledo have decided to secede at the annual meeting at Louisville, November 12, as reported, it is only proper that we should be prepared, said Mr. Hickey. "It is true that we have been discussing plans to be carried out in the event of withdrawal by the three clubs, but announcement rela-tive to these plans now would be premature.

According to reports received here, backing has been obtained for association teams in Chicago, Detroit and Indianapolis in case any members withdraw from the association.

NORFOLK LOOMS UP STRONG CONTENDER

Omaha Central High Fears Strongest Rival for Missouri Valley Honors; Beatrice Is Next Opponent.

Norfolk high school foot ball team is in an unexpected rival for the Missouri Valley championship. The team consists of six former players, a veteran backfield, and a line averaging Vincent C. Hascall, secretary of eran backfield, and a line averaging the Omaha Alumni association of the 145 pounds. So far Narfalls has met no defeat, having disposed of Stanton, West Point, Creight High and Grand Island.

In the back field Norfolk has three veterans, Captain Simkins, right half, Ballantyre, full back, and Rosenthal, left half. On the line, Zubrigen and Willeyat, tackles, and Shively, end, will stay here until Thanksgiving are former players who are helping in mosning. They will hold their practice probably at Rourke park during the last week the team is reported to have improved greatly and is expected to put up a stiff fight when it comes to Omaha on November 23 for the last home game of the season.

Most of the Central players are back on the eligibility list and are confident of beating Beatrice Friday on Creighton field. Beatrice does not stand much chance in the championship race, and will be content to put up a hard offensive game. Seven of the second team men are still out on studies. The first team played the soldiers at Fort Crook yesterday. Sioux Falls High has defeated Ver-million, Yankton and Flandreon high

TENPIN TOPPLERS BOOST MIDWEST

Two Teams From Omaha Have Entered and Usual List From This City Is Ordinarily Not Less Than Twelve.

Only two weeks are left for Omaha bowlers to organize teams and enter the Middle West tournament, which is scheduled to open in Des Moines, Ia., November 16 and last until November 27. Entries will close November 6, at midnight, after which it will be impossible for the tardy ones to enter. Local bowling enthusiasts are some what slow in getting started this season, and unless some early action is shown Omaha's reputation as the middle west's best supporter of tournaments will fade away. Des Moines tournament boosters are counting on Omaha for 10 to 12 teams. They have carried out successfully preliminary arrangements and in spite of the present unsettled conditions are prepared, and expect to stage the association's best tournament, to the extent of passing last season's entry of 171 teams in St.

A cash prize fund of $10,000 is esti-mated. The Des Moines Chamber of Commerce is back of the tournament

Up to the present only two local quintets of pin topples have filled out entry blanks and reserved dates. The Central Furniture Co. team has entered its strong lineup, also the Scott Tent & Awning five. One or two other organized teams have an-nounced their intentions of entering.

Expect All Carriers to

Ask Higher Freight Rate

Washington, Oct. 23.—Southern and western carriers are expected to petition the Interstate Commerce commission for an upwards revision of freight rates, following announce-ment of the decision of the commission to reopen on November 5 the 15 per cent rate advance case for the bentfit of the eastern roads. While reopening of the case is by no means tantamount to the granting of a rate revision, it gives carriers in the east an opportunity to lay before the commission data regarding costs on which request for an advance may be predicated.

CONSIDER PLANS FOR ARMY RECREATION

National Conference of War Camp Community Service In Session at Washington.

Washington, Oct. 23 .- Delegates to the national conference of the war camp community recreation service, including representatives from national and state defense councils, chambers of commerce, women's organizations, Rotary clubs and other associations from all over the country, met here to discuss the problem of taking care of the American soldiers and sailors in the cities and towns outside their training camps. "Help to keep the soldier fit to fight," was the keynote of the speeches. Secretary of War Baker declared that it was the opinion of army officers as well as of himself that the actual military efficiency of the army would be greatly increased if proper surroundings outside the camps were provided for the men in training. The purpose of the work is not merely to entertain and amuse the troops, but to make and keep them better fighting men.
