

WOLVERINES TROUNCE HUSKERS, SCORE 20 to 0

Dubuque Falls Before Creighton

OMAHA ELEVEN LICKS IOWANS; SCORE, 21 TO 0

Eddie Mullholland Scores All Three Touchdowns; Morearty Gets Into Game for First Time This Year.

Outplaying Dubuque in every department of the game, Creighton trampled all over Coach Dorais Blue and Gold eleven yesterday, 21 to 0. Coach Mills' proteges charge up and down the field to their hearts content, and would have scored two more touchdowns had not the Iowa collegians braced when the Omaha eleven had the ball beneath their goal posts and presented a stone wall defense to the Creighton warriors.

Mullholland was the hero of the game for the Blue and White, gaining the three touchdowns scored for his comrades, and bearing on his shoulders the brunt of the offensive work. It was Mullholland on 10-yard plunges through the line, Mullholland who carried the ball over the line, Mullholland here, there and everywhere. And following closely in his wake and gaining fresh glory for themselves were Leahy, Kelly, and Morgan.

The Dubuque ends, Ivis and Beudage, were all they were cracked up to be. Time and again the Creighton backs would depart on a long scout around the ends only to have one of this speedy pair rudely ignore the interference upset the man with the ball. The Blue and Gold backfield, consisting of Allen, Martin and Kenning did not show up so well, but twice they threw the Creighton rooters in a panic by marching down the field on a series of trick plays and some straight foot ball, only to lose the pigskin on the local's 10-year line.

Improvement Marked. Altogether Coach Mills seemed to have accomplished wonders with his team last week. The Blue and White crew had lots of ginger and worked like a well-oiled machine, and their performance both on offensive and defense gives evidence of the fighting spirit of the Omaha squad.

When it came to hard playing, the airt Dubuque eleven were in the game from the first sound of the whistle, fighting bravely for their alma mater, until the last shrill pipe of the whistle sounded the death knell to their hopes.

Creighton won the toss and chose to defend the south goal. The Blue and White immediately began a parade up the field, with Harmon, Leahy and Mullholland alternating in carrying the pigskin, until Dubuque's seven-yard line was reached. Here a Creighton fumble was recovered by Dubuque and Sheeley for Dubuque kicked the oval out of the danger zone. Kelly received the ball in the center of the field. A pass from Mullholland to Leahy netted 10 yards, Mullholland went through right tackle for 6, Leahy made two more yards, Harmon took the ball for 10 yards, and on three successive plays by Mullholland, the doughy halfback took the ball over the line for the first score. Campbell kicked goal.

Creighton Threatens. Sheeley received the ball on the kick-off and after unsuccessfully trying to pierce the Creighton line, was forced to punt. Mullholland reeled off 25 yards around right end, Harmon took the pigskin for five, and then three and Leahy plowed through the line for five more yards, after which Eddie Mahan Captains Strong Marine Eleven The widespread enlistment of football players in various branches of the government service has resulted in the organization throughout the country of fort, camp, naval and barracks elevens which have already demonstrated their claims to serious consideration on the part of college teams.

Game Grows Faster. The game lived up to its reputation in the last play of the third quarter when Captain Nielsen of Kansas around the Ames' right end gained of 24 yards. When the quarter opened up Kansas tried to hit the Cyclone line, but then attempted a 24-yard pass to Vanderloo then punted the midfield, where Foster punted to Boyd on the Iowa state line.

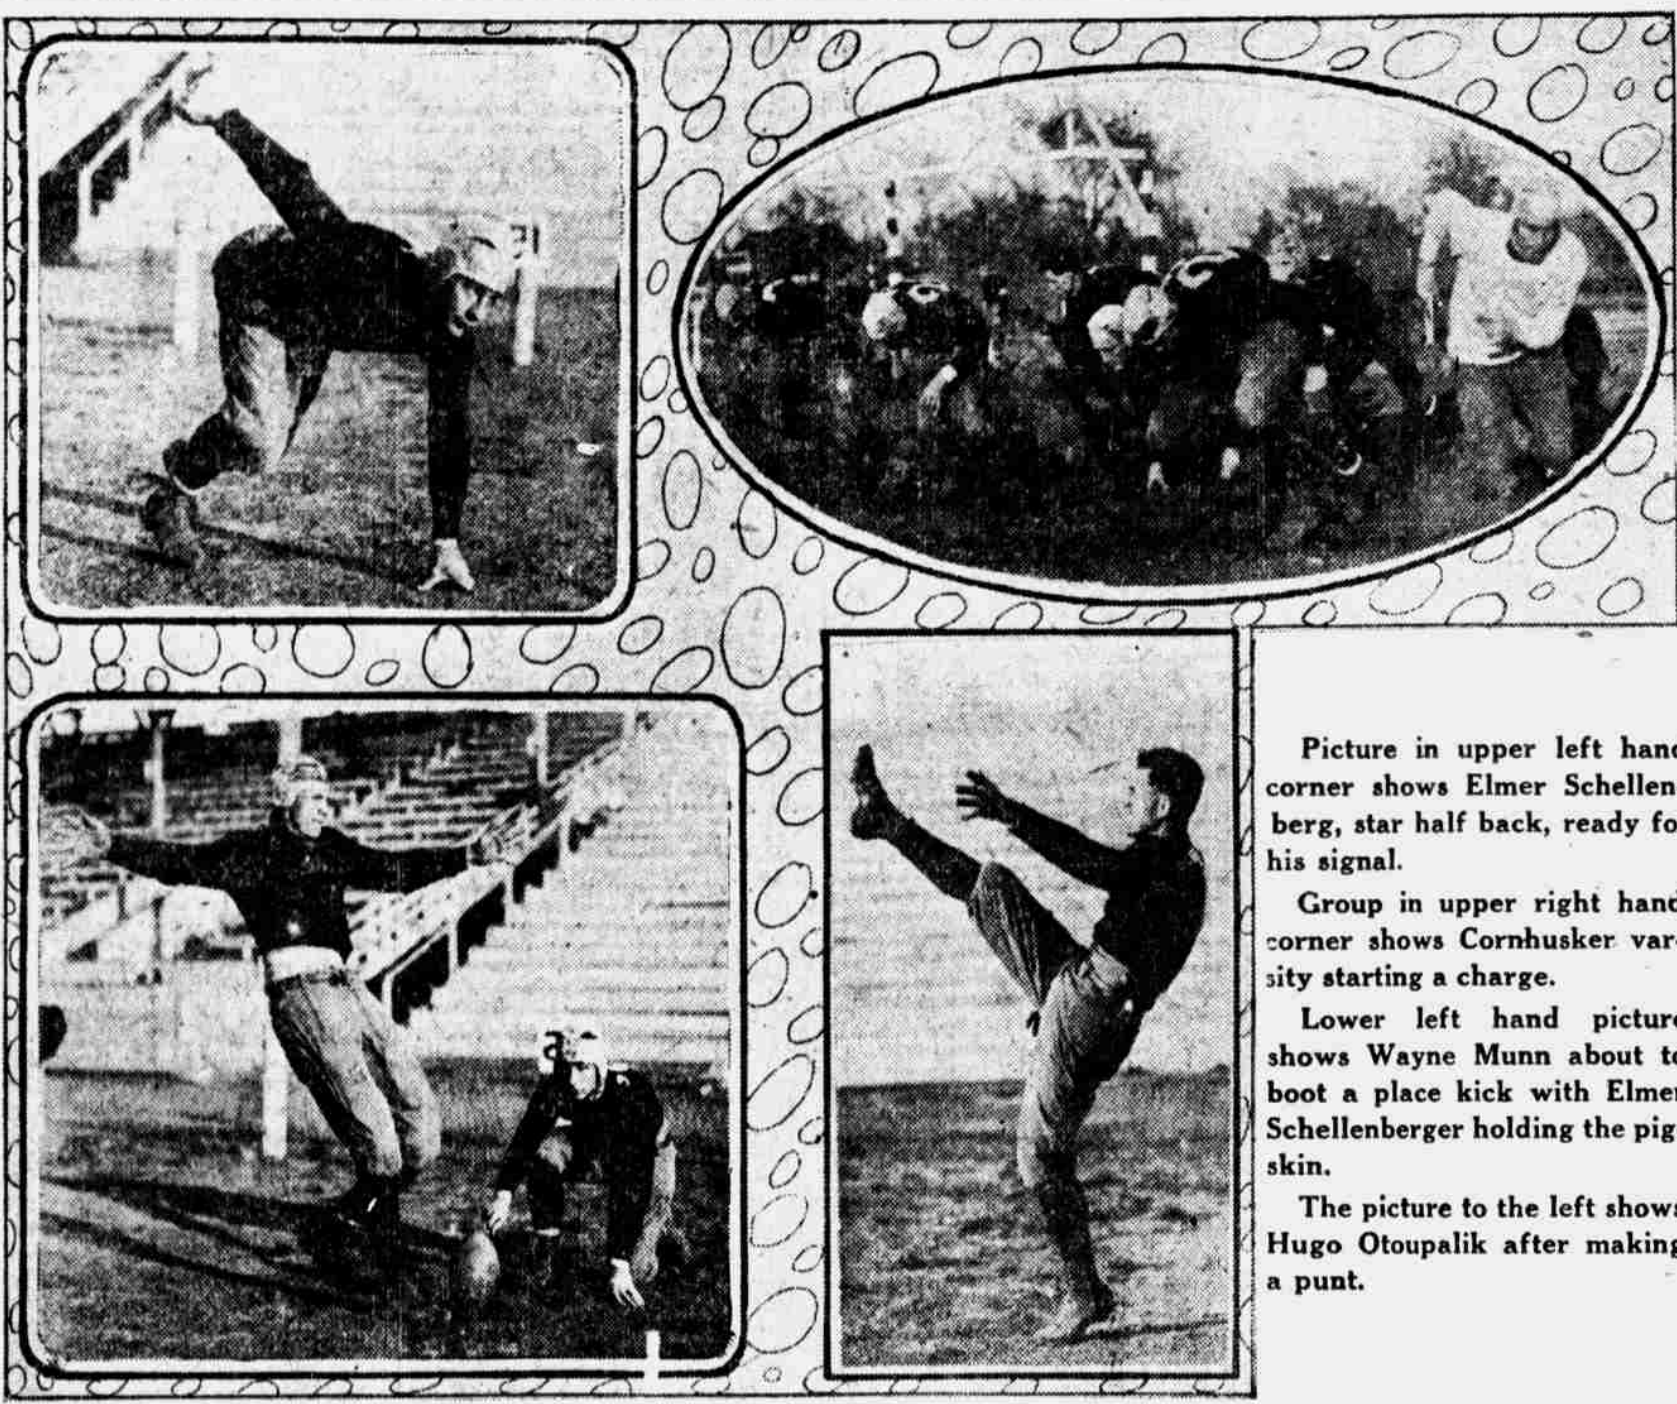

Another punt by Vanderloo out of bounds on the Ames line. The Jayhawkers then ball forward eight yards and were penalized for interference. Pringle then dropped the play was on which more Bringle passed the ball to Boyd, who had raced to the yard line in the far corner. He tucked the ball and evaded McFarland and

Cleveland Y. M. C. Course As an indication of the part of realtors calling the Realty board, in a recent issue to the fact that a sectional course is under way with the local Christian association, consists of 25 lessons. The subjects are presented in the questions of valuations, appraisement and all phases of sale

Golf Club in Ireland Bars Slackers From List The Royal Portrush Golf club of Ireland has made a rule that a person of military age shall be elected a member unless he has a medical exemption from the army.

Persistent Advertising Is the Road to Success.

Cornhusker Stars Who Suffered Season's First Setback

JAYHAWK ELEVEN WINS FROM AMES IN BITTER FRAY Twenty-five-Yard Forward Pass From Pringle to Longborg Gives Kansas Victory in Garrison Finish.

Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 27.—(Special Telegram.)—With a 25-yard forward pass Pringle to Longborg, which resulted in a touchdown, Kansas won the annual battle with Ames on McCook field here this afternoon, 7 to 0. The ball was passed through the 35-yard line to Longborg, on the Ames' nine-yard line, who raced across the line for the only score of the game, and the victory for Kansas in the first conference game of the season. The play came in the final quarter, when only five minutes of play remained allowing Ames, in spite of its 15 attempts to complete a forward pass, insufficient time to score.

The Iowa state team and Kansas were the most evenly matched teams seen on McCook field in many years. A glance at the summary will bear out the statement for during the entire game Kansas gained but three first downs while Ames made six, three of the Ames first downs being on forward passes in the last quarter of the game.

Game Grows Faster. The game lived up to its reputation in the last play of the third quarter when Captain Nielsen of Kansas around the Ames' right end gained of 24 yards. When the quarter opened up Kansas tried to hit the Cyclone line, but then attempted a 24-yard pass to Vanderloo then punted the midfield, where Foster punted to Boyd on the Iowa state line.

Another punt by Vanderloo out of bounds on the Ames line. The Jayhawkers then ball forward eight yards and were penalized for interference. Pringle then dropped the play was on which more Bringle passed the ball to Boyd, who had raced to the yard line in the far corner. He tucked the ball and evaded McFarland and

Cleveland Y. M. C. Course As an indication of the part of realtors calling the Realty board, in a recent issue to the fact that a sectional course is under way with the local Christian association, consists of 25 lessons. The subjects are presented in the questions of valuations, appraisement and all phases of sale

Golf Club in Ireland Bars Slackers From List The Royal Portrush Golf club of Ireland has made a rule that a person of military age shall be elected a member unless he has a medical exemption from the army.

Persistent Advertising Is the Road to Success.

SAM CRAWFORD IN OMAHA FOR VISIT OF WEEK Famous Outfielder and Slugger to Spend Week in Gate City to Visit Mrs. Crawford's Mother.

Wahoo Sam Crawford, grand old ball player, accompanied by Mrs. Sam and their daughter Virginia, arrived in Omaha last night to spend a week with Mrs. Crawford's parents before going to Los Angeles for the winter. Yesterday, Sam visited Fremont where a reunion of the Crawford family was held.

Conference Bars Scott, Full Back of Hawkeyes The western conference eligibility committee has ruled against Homer W. Scott, the Ida Grove football star, who has been a crack full back at Iowa during the last two years. Scott played about three minutes in a game three years ago, and the committee has ruled that he is ineligible as a consequence. He had not participated in any games this year, as he was waiting the committee's ruling. The blow is a severe one to the Hawkeye eleven, as Full Back Von Lackum is needed else where on the team.

Detroit Hurler Confined To Hospital on the Coast Johnny Couch, former San Francisco pitcher and later with Detroit, is in a hospital at Palo Alto, Cal., suffering from appendicitis. He believes his illness due to an injury

Carlisle to Battle Army and Navy For First Time This season the Carlisle Indians' football team, for the first time in the history of the gridiron sport, will visit the Army and Navy grounds for games against the government's teams.

Dubuque Athletes Delay Massacre By Getting Lost in Fort Dodge, Ia. Coach Dorais' Dubuque athletes must have had a hunch Creighton intended to annihilate them yesterday afternoon. The Dubuque team came to Omaha over the Illinois Central. That railroad goes through Fort Dodge. About dawn the train on which the Dubuque players were riding rolled into Fort Dodge for a short stop. Six Dubuque athletes, Supple, tackle; Whalen, guard; Mead, guard; Ives, end; Judge and Hanahan, substitutes, tumbled off to look at the scenery. Apparently they had never been so far west before and were determined to see all the sights. When the train resumed its journey toward Omaha the six ath-

PITT BARELY WINS FROM PENN ELEVEN Warner's Machine Fails to Work With Accustomed Smoothness, But Pulls Out 14 to 6 Victory.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—The University of Pittsburgh's great foot ball machine did not work as smoothly as usual today in the game against the University of Pennsylvania, but won, 14 to 6.

Pennsylvania's defense in the first period held Pittsburgh to spasmodic gains, while by a series of overhead passes and end runs the Quakers approached within 10 yards of Pittsburgh's goal, only to lose the ball on an intercepted pass. In the second period the playing was mostly in Pittsburgh's territory.

In the third period Pittsburgh, obtaining the ball on its own 10-yard line on the kickoff, carried it back by short runs and line plunging to Pennsylvania's 30-yard line. McLaren doing most of the carrying. McCarter then tossed a pretty pass to Carlson, who shot over for a touchdown.

War May Wreck Leading Hockey League of Canada According to reports in Canadian newspapers, the prospects of professional hockey in Canada during the coming season are decidedly bleak.

Semi-Pro Club Ties Can To Red Dooin, Ex-Great Another of the old-timers who helped make the game what it is has passed up the bat and glove in answer to the call of age. Charles Dooin is the latest. Red was playing with a semi-pro club around Philadelphia and was released because of his inability to hit. His average was exactly .045. Only a few years ago Dooin was regarded as one of the best marksmen in the big show. He managed the Philadelphia Nationals for several years, finally giving way to Pat Moran. After leaving the Quakers he played with the Cincinnati Reds, the New York Giants, and bussed a team in the International.

Chicago Takes ANOTHER HURDLE IN BIG TEN RACE Maroons Win Close Contest From Northwestern by Single Touchdown by Captain Higgins.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—The light Northwestern eleven held Chicago to a 7-0 score today in a bitterly contested game on Stag field. Higgins, the big Chicago fullback, plunged across Northwestern's goal in the third period for the only touchdown of the game. The contest was marked by frequent penalties for both teams.

Yost's Men Prove Too Strong for Nebraska Eleven

Stewart's Charges Fail Utterly in Attempts to Check Onslaughts of Michigan's Forwards; Cornhusker Attack No Match for Defense of Foe; Fumbling Costly for Nebraskans.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 27.—Michigan's green but powerful foot ball eleven sprang a surprise this afternoon by defeating the Nebraska university eleven, 20 to 0. At no time after the first period did the visitors have a chance and poor generalship and glaring fumbles cost the Wolverines two or three touchdowns.

The game was played in a steady rain. The gridiron had been soaked by previous rains and was very heavy. In the first quarter Nebraska showed superior ground-gaining ability and worked the ball to within striking distance of Michigan's goal. Then Froemke recovered a Nebraska fumble and sprinted more than 80 yards for a touchdown. Weimann kicked goal.

Michigan showed a better offense in the second period and Weimann finally crashed for a touchdown and kicking goal. Weimann got a field goal in each of the periods.

The Lineup MICHIGAN 20 NEBRASKA 0. Goetz, L. E. L. E. Rhoads, Goodsell, I. T. L. T. Munn, Culver, J. G. L. G. Kostitzky, Lambert, G. C. Took, Fortune, R. G. R. G. Wilder, Weske, R. T. R. T. Shaw, Boyd, R. E. R. E. Hubka, Weston, F. B. F. B. Schellenberg, Froemke, L. H. L. H. B. McMahon, Hanish, K. H. K. H. B. Dubson, Weimann, F. B. F. B. Day.

Michigan's easy victory over the Cornhuskers not only surprised local enthusiasts—it startled them. It was beyond their meager powers of comprehension. "Incredible!" exclaimed one Nebraska man who was a star at the Lincoln school a decade ago and has since been a close follower of the gridiron sport at the Husker institution.

At first, gloom predominated. Nebraska fans had expected to score a rather easy victory over the Michigan foe. The last time the Huskers played the Wolverines a Nebraska eleven far weaker than Stewart's team held an eleven more powerful than Yost's crew this year to a 6 to 6 tie.

Turns to Wrath. Unable to answer satisfactorily, the gloom of the fans slowly turned to wrath and many were the angry exclamations of disgust heard among Omaha fans last night.

Team of Stars. The Nebraska eleven this year in the point of talent is the greatest Nebraska ever had. Excepting, perhaps, Guy Chamberlain, Nebraska never had a backfield man superior to either McMahon, Schellenberg or Dobson, and in the Iowa game at least, Kellogg looked just as good as any that ever wore the scarlet and cream.

White Sox and Giants May Play Spring Exhibitions The question of the White Sox and Giants playing a series of games next spring as they wind their way home from their respective training camps has been broached. It has gone no further than that, but may take on more definite form.

Quimet and Guilford Win From Evans and Sawyer Newton, Mass., Oct. 27.—A 36-hole best golf match in which Charles G. Evans, jr., of Chicago, national amateur and open champion, and D. E. Sawyer of Chicago former western champion, were pitted against Francis, Quimet, western champion, and Jesse Guilford, Massachusetts amateur champion, today was won by Quimet and Guilford, 6 up and 4 to play.

Yost's Men Prove Too Strong for Nebraska Eleven

Stewart's Charges Fail Utterly in Attempts to Check Onslaughts of Michigan's Forwards; Cornhusker Attack No Match for Defense of Foe; Fumbling Costly for Nebraskans.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 27.—Michigan's green but powerful foot ball eleven sprang a surprise this afternoon by defeating the Nebraska university eleven, 20 to 0. At no time after the first period did the visitors have a chance and poor generalship and glaring fumbles cost the Wolverines two or three touchdowns.

The game was played in a steady rain. The gridiron had been soaked by previous rains and was very heavy. In the first quarter Nebraska showed superior ground-gaining ability and worked the ball to within striking distance of Michigan's goal. Then Froemke recovered a Nebraska fumble and sprinted more than 80 yards for a touchdown. Weimann kicked goal.

Michigan showed a better offense in the second period and Weimann finally crashed for a touchdown and kicking goal. Weimann got a field goal in each of the periods.

The Lineup MICHIGAN 20 NEBRASKA 0. Goetz, L. E. L. E. Rhoads, Goodsell, I. T. L. T. Munn, Culver, J. G. L. G. Kostitzky, Lambert, G. C. Took, Fortune, R. G. R. G. Wilder, Weske, R. T. R. T. Shaw, Boyd, R. E. R. E. Hubka, Weston, F. B. F. B. Schellenberg, Froemke, L. H. L. H. B. McMahon, Hanish, K. H. K. H. B. Dubson, Weimann, F. B. F. B. Day.

Michigan's easy victory over the Cornhuskers not only surprised local enthusiasts—it startled them. It was beyond their meager powers of comprehension. "Incredible!" exclaimed one Nebraska man who was a star at the Lincoln school a decade ago and has since been a close follower of the gridiron sport at the Husker institution.

Turns to Wrath. Unable to answer satisfactorily, the gloom of the fans slowly turned to wrath and many were the angry exclamations of disgust heard among Omaha fans last night.

Team of Stars. The Nebraska eleven this year in the point of talent is the greatest Nebraska ever had. Excepting, perhaps, Guy Chamberlain, Nebraska never had a backfield man superior to either McMahon, Schellenberg or Dobson, and in the Iowa game at least, Kellogg looked just as good as any that ever wore the scarlet and cream.

White Sox and Giants May Play Spring Exhibitions The question of the White Sox and Giants playing a series of games next spring as they wind their way home from their respective training camps has been broached. It has gone no further than that, but may take on more definite form.

Quimet and Guilford Win From Evans and Sawyer Newton, Mass., Oct. 27.—A 36-hole best golf match in which Charles G. Evans, jr., of Chicago, national amateur and open champion, and D. E. Sawyer of Chicago former western champion, were pitted against Francis, Quimet, western champion, and Jesse Guilford, Massachusetts amateur champion, today was won by Quimet and Guilford, 6 up and 4 to play.

White Sox and Giants May Play Spring Exhibitions The question of the White Sox and Giants playing a series of games next spring as they wind their way home from their respective training camps has been broached. It has gone no further than that, but may take on more definite form.