It Is None Too Early to Select

Christmas Gifts for Soldiers

At the Front or Various Cantonments

By choosing early the articles you desire to send to soldiers you allow sufficient time to enable their shipment to distant points. The United States government has informed the country that all gifts for the soldiers in France must be shipped not later than November 15. We are prepared to give you valuable assistance in the selection of gifts and clothing for soldiers—and will send packages for you, under such regulations as the government has laid down.

Stylish Stout Reduso Corsets

An Innovation for Overdeveloped Figures

STYLISH Stout Reduso corsets are distinctive creations for stout women. They will positively slenderize ungainly lines to a fashionable silhouette, and insure the appearance of less weight. A Stylish Stout Reduso will make any stout woman look ten years younger. Positively the most comfortable corset ever projected for overdeveloped figures. Scientific construction eliminates compression, no belts, no straps, no armor-like multiplicity of heavy boning. Stylish Stout Reduso corsets are guaranteed to fit nine out of ten stout figures at the first "try-on." They have the individuality of "made-to-order" garments, avoiding the stiffness, weight and endless fittings. A Stylish Stout Reduso corset purchased over the counter will give supreme satisfaction at the first wearing. Prices, $6.50 to $10.00.
