New York Coffee Market.

New York, Nov. 1.—After a very quiet merning the market for coffee futures became a little more active, ruled firmer on covering while there also appeared to be a moderate demand from houses with foreign connections. The opening was unchanged and business seemed to be rastricted by the fact that Brazilian markets will be closed for the balance of this week. When buying orders appeared there were very faw sellers around the ring, with the result that March sold up to 7.43c and May to 7.50c, with the close showing a net advance of 5 to 8 points. Closing bids: December, 7.17c; January, 7.25c; March, 7.40c; May, 7.59c; July, 7.74c; September, 7.91c.

Spot Coffee—Steady; Rio 7s, 3c; Santos 4s, 3½c; firm offers showed little change so far as Santos was concerned, 4s being offered at 2.10c, London credits by steamer. A sale of Rio 7s was reported at 6.50c, American credits for shipment by sailing vessels. Insurance, including war risk on this business was said to amount to $2.50 per bag. Steamer freights are quoted at $1.70 km and sailing vessels at $0c a bag.
