AN IDEAL SUITE

This suite, consisting of six rooms, is very beautifully furnished and is in a high-class fireproof building in which there is a cafe where excellent meals may be secured whenever desired. As a place suitable in every way for six young bachelor business men, who have accumulated books and other personal belongings and paraphernalia, there is nothing its equal in Omaha, as will be seen by the following description: The rooms of this suite open off a large private corridor—there is an immense room which may be used as a library; still another larger room which may be used as a living room—both these rooms having fireplace and both opening into a large sun parlor which has windows on the East, South and West. On the opposite side of the corridor are three very fine bedrooms in which double or twin beds, whichever desired, will be placed. There are two bath rooms, both of which have a tub and a shower, and in addition, this apartment has seven large clothes

In fact, if there is a group of six bachelors in this City who would like to find an ideal suite of quarters at a very reasonable cost, here is something that is sure to satisfy.
