

STATE TEACHERS WILL GATHER IN OMAHA THIS WEEK

Fifty-Second Annual Convention of Nebraska Pedagogues to Be Held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Omaha is ready to extend a hearty greeting to the members of the Nebraska Teachers' association, who will hold their 52nd annual meeting here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

The Gate City has had this important state meeting for a period of years and is getting accustomed to these annual visits of the teaching staff of the Antelope state. Headquarters will be at the Rome hotel, where registrations will be entered from 7:30 o'clock a. m. to 10 o'clock p. m. Information bureaus will be maintained at the Rome, Auditorium, Central High school and the Young Men's Christian association, under direction of Miss Jeanette Newlan.

General meetings will be held in the Auditorium and sectional meetings at Central High school, Rome hotel, Castle hotel, Fontenelle hotel, High school of Commerce, Strand theater, Jacobs Memorial hall and Blackstone hotel.

Department Conferences.

In connection with the association meeting there will be conferences of the Nebraska High School Athletic association, Nebraska High School Debating league, Registrars of Normal Schools and the American School Peace league.

Banquets and luncheons will be given by Bellevue college, Fremont college, Hastings college, Kearney State Normal, Peru Normal and alumni, University of Nebraska, Nebraska chapter of Phi Delta Kappa University of Omaha, Wayne State Normal, Nebraska Wesleyan college.

Final arrangements for the caring of the delegates to the convention were made by the committee on arrangements, working through the publicity bureau of the Commercial club, Friday afternoon.

Committee Chairmen.

Some 250 Omaha people are assisting in the entertainment and work of making the convention proper a success.

Chairmen for committees who will have charge of the convention are as follows:

Dr. H. A. Sciter, chairman of bulletins.
Miss Alice E. Hitt, decorations.
Miss Jesse A. Robinson, greetings at depot.
Principal Masters, cadet guides.
E. E. McMillan, usher and door-keeper.

The executive committee will strictly enforce the constitution this year, which prohibits anyone from entering or leaving a convention hall while a speaker is on the stand.

A rooming house bureau will be maintained at the Young Men's Christian association, where over 250 rooms in private homes have been listed for teachers who may be unable to secure accommodations at hotels.

5,000 Delegates Expected.

Over 5,000 delegates are expected at this year's convention. Cities such as Fremont, and other places who have heretofore not sent delegates to the convention will come in force.

In order to have Omaha cleared up before the country delegates arrive, registering of local teachers will begin Wednesday evening at the Rome hotel. Eighty per cent of the teachers are expected in the city by Thursday night.

A feature of this year's convention will be the complete record kept of every teacher who registers for the convention. This will be available at the Hotel Rome, and anyone who wishes to get in touch with a certain teacher will be directed to where she may be found.

Prominent Speakers.

Foremost among the speakers who will address the teachers will be Prof. J. Montgomery Gambrill of Teachers' college, Columbia university, who will speak on "The Great War and its Causes," and he will give professional talks to the history and high school sections.

Dr. Ambrose L. Suhrie of the department of education, University of Pennsylvania, is an authority on rural and primary school education. He will address the general assembly on "The Educational Program of a Democracy," and to the kindergarten, primary and story tells sections he will give his address, "Things Worth While in Elementary Education."

Other prominent educators who will appear are: Miss Mae E. Schreiber of Boston, Prof. Albert Perry Brigham of Colgate university and one of the councilors of the Association of American Geographers; Miss Lida Lee Tall of Baltimore, assistant superintendent of grammar of her city; Dr. Clarence W. Wassam of the University of Iowa; Prof. Perry G. Holden, an agricultural authority of renown; G. W. Waffles, Federal Food commissioner for Nebraska.

War Draws Heavily On Burlington Operatives

Compilation of figures from the Burlington offices indicates that from along the railroad system 1,134 officials and employees have gone into the army and are now in the camps in the United States or in France.

A full company of Burlington traffic and operating men are now in France working on the reconstruction of the railroads there.

Pirates Pass Up Flynn, Recruits From the South

The Pittsburgh club has notified the Shreveport club that outfielder Don Flynn will not be retained. His work in the few games he played late in the season failed to impress the Pittsburgh management. Shreveport probably will act to use him next year, either, for it is understood he was caught in the army draft.

Claims Husking Record.

Railway Men to Ask 25 Per Cent Wage Increase

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(Special Telegram.)—Union leaders, representing organizations with a joint membership of more than 250,000 men, have practically completed their plans for demanding a wage increase. This will in all probability be followed by a strike. The men in conference are: B. G. Garretson, head of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors; W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; L. L. Sheppard, vice president of the conductors' organization; and James Murdock, vice president of the Trainmen's union.

While no authoritative statement could be obtained from any of the officials, it is generally rumored that as a result of their two days' meeting, they will recommend that demands be made on the managers of the railroads throughout the country for a 25 per cent increase above the present rate of wages.

"This recommendation will then be submitted to the rank and file of the four organizations on a strike vote. How the men will vote is forecast by the fact that local chairmen have already told the officials of the unions that their men are of the opinion they should be granted an increase of anywhere from 30 to 50 per cent, owing to the increase in the cost of living expense.

Chiropractic Health Talks

There is hope

"There is no hope whatever for recovery."

This is often the verdict of some true minded health practitioners, when all his knowledge and resources has ended in confessed failure of means at his command.

People who think themselves doomed to an existence under the burden of a so-called "incurable" malady should investigate the science of Chiropractic.

This health mode is actually helping legions of people who, having tried about everything else to no avail, have found the relief they so long desired and unsuccessfully sought.

If you are free from prejudice of dogma, you are in position to investigate my methods fairly.

Do not brood over the past nor live in dreams of the future that somehow perchance you may get well—but act now and secure the blessings of Chiropractic Adjustments.

Investigation costs nothing and means health and happiness. Adjustments are $1.00 or 12 for $10.

Fred R. Campbell Dies Of Cerebral Hemorrhage

Fred R. Campbell, assistant in the law office of P. A. Wells, died suddenly of cerebral hemorrhage at his apartments, 2705 Chicago street. Mr. Campbell had a severe siege of illness nearly two years ago, but it was believed he had completely recovered. Thursday morning he came home saying he felt very tired. The hemorrhage occurred shortly afterward and he died almost instantly.

Mr. Campbell was born in Montgomery Center, Vt., May 27, 1877. He completed a law course in the east, practiced for a time and then came west. For nearly a year he was with the Bankers Realty Investment company as a solicitor. In September, 1916, he was admitted to the Nebraska bar, and entered the office of P. A. Wells.

Mr. Campbell is survived by his wife in Omaha, his mother in Vermont, a brother in Connecticut, and a sister in Massachusetts.

The funeral will be held Monday at 3 o'clock at the home of C. H. Hopkins, 3626 Mason street.

MAKE THE OLD CLOTHES SERVE

Dresher Brothers, Omaha's Renowned Cleaners and Dyers, Are Real Friends of the Populace Today.

Make the old clothes do instead of buying new!

You read of "conservation" in almost any publication you may pick up, and still one of the biggest bills of the nation today is the clothes bill that its citizens must foot up daily, weekly or monthly.

Dresher Brothers do not wish to cripple the business of the tradesmen by any means, yet, the fact remains that folk could in thousands of cases wear better clothes by "fixing up" those they already possess than by buying new attire, which is of admittedly poorer quality than that offered a few seasons ago.

Now then, lady, your last year's suit or dress may be cleaned, taken apart and put together again in the highest of style. Gentlemen may have their suits, overcoats and hats remodeled in the same way. At Dresher Brothers' vast Cleaning and Dyeing Plant at 2211-2217 Farnam street, Omaha, this work is done by positive experts in their respective lines. All work on ladies' or gentlemen's suits, for instance, is done by professional men tailors; all work on ladies' dresses, on the other hand, being in charge of really able dressmakers. Hat repairing, etc., here is handled by real hat makers, and fur work is done by furriers.

And, if you only knew of the big amounts of money to be saved by fixing up your present attire instead of buying new clothes, you would immediately make up a bundle too big to be carried to Dreshers.

If you see this "conservation" point in the right light, phone Tyler 345 for a Dresher Man, leave your work at the Dresher plant, 2211-2217 Farnam St., at Dresher The Tailors, 1515 Farnam St., or at one of the Dresher branches in the Burgess-Nach or Brandeis Stores.

Dreshers pay express or parcel post charges one way on all out-of-town shipments.—Advertisement.

big lot of it which is soft and unfit for anything except early feeding. Damaging frosts and damp weather in October prevented the corn from drying out promptly. A report from Pochontas county declares that 50 per cent of the corn there is soft and will have to be fed. Tests of Polk county corn already show that only about 25 per cent is fit for seed corn. A careful selection of seed corn is being urged.
