CENTRAL PLANS FOR LINCOLN GAME

Mulligan's Men Go Through Special Practice in Preparation for Clash for the State Title.

Tickets to Central High school football games will not be subject to the federal tax of 10 per cent. This was decided at a conference of the athletic board with the federal collector of internal revenue. Amusements whose proceeds go exclusively to an educational fund are not subject to the tax, the collector decided.

Coach Mulligan is putting his players through special practice on the field at Thirty-second and Dewey. All the players, save two, have cleared the eligibility hurdle and prospects seem bright for the game with Lincoln Friday.

been allowed to freeze and rot while in the railroad yards here, it became known that the food administration will seek to secure as severe penalties as possible under the law for the offenders, if their guilt is established. It is pointed out that stories of quantities of vegetables being allowed to rot while held in the railroad yards have not been uncommon in past years, but that in view of new laws which make destruction of food a criminal offense, the loss this year calls for federal investigation.

Artilleryman Found Dead. New York, Nov. 5.—Roy Mark, 28 years old, formerly a lawyer of Sheridan, Ore., and an artilleryman at Camp Mills, was found dead in bed from gas poisoning early today at the home of an uncle in Brooklyn.

Two Problems Solved War's waste of horses and the delays of railroad freight congestion are disorganizing local and interurban transportation. In the emergency more and more business men are finding the solution of the problem in the Pierce-Arrow Motor Truck. We undoubtedly have available operating records of Pierce-Arrow trucks which have solved the very transportation problem that is now troubling you. Pierce-Arrow Motor Trucks for example: The BARRETT COMPANY, manufacturers of "Tarvia" and "Barrett Specification" roofing, owns seventeen Pierce-Arrow Trucks in service in various cities. All are operating satisfactorily. Tank trucks have made an especially good record for efficiency and economy. Such great commercial successes are built upon sound economies like those effected by Pierce-Arrow trucks. A smaller business should not deny itself the advantages on which big business thrives. J. LUMBER-Extreme Bargain This is an unusual offer on straight, sound building material. Must be classed second-hand, must go immediately at slaughtered prices, but it's good as new—actually better. Weather seasoned. Used on the Omaha Speedway now dismantled. Surface boards go for kindling and firewood, but the items tabulated here were never in contact with racers. This lumber was never exposed to wear or dampness—seasoned in Nature's kiln and protected by the drain of the slanting track. All nails removed. Offered outright or in quantity lots. 700,000 ft. 2x6-2x8-2x12-16 to 22 ft. long 300,000 ft. 4x6-12 to 26 ft. long 100,000 ft. 3x6-12 ft. long 700,000 ft. 2x4-16 to 28 ft. long Prospective Builders— Now you can save. Reduce heavy lumber costs—studding and other frame material. Make your interior finish and other features that much more beautiful and convenient; just like you wish for. CONTRACTORS Let's get even on some of those low estimates. No one could anticipate such decided advances in material costs. Lay in a stock of this lumber now. You're sure to need it. The scarcity and big demand will bring still higher prices. Prepare now—make your future bids attractive. Kindling and Fire-Wood In abundance. Store enough for your winter's use. Larger cities have already been threatened with coal famines. Buy this quality fuel now at practically your own price. Make these farm improvements equally substantial at far less cost. Economize on the lumber expense. Do the building now you had decided to put off another season. Here's a sure money-making investment. Cash in on it. Store this lumber for future use or sell any time at a big profit. Lumber Offices at Speedway. Phone Webster 5071, or Write. ALEX BECK, 208 Keeline Bldg., Omaha
