War Membership Cards for Church Members at Front

Methodist boys from Nebraska who are in the training camps and at other army posts, will be furnished with their membership cards from their home church, so that they may become associate members of the local Methodist church at any camp where they happen to be located. This was announced yesterday morning at the First Methodist church by Rev. J. B. Schreckengast, chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan university, who preached the sermon. Rev. Mr. Schreckengast said this idea and suggestion came from Bishop Homer C. Stutz, and that he was merely taking the occasion to announce it in the pulpit. He explained that the membership card from the home church will constitute credentials to admit any of the boys to associate membership in the local church at any of the camps or in any of the cities adjacent to the camps. Also he explained that when the boy leaves a given camp or city, the pastor of the church of which he has for the time being been an associate member, will endorse the card which will in turn make it good for the next church, and will show the boy's church record when he comes back home at the close of the war. These cards will be known as war membership cards. Rev. Mr. Schreckengast spoke of the great importance to the young men in the army of keeping up their church work and other spiritual activities. Though the First Methodist church in Omaha will probably be the first to use this war membership card system among its soldiers, the idea is to be carried on and the practice is to become general throughout the Methodist churches of Nebraska.

Woman Swallows Carabolic Acid; Dies Hour Later

Mrs. Bertha Beckingham, 36 years old, wife of Floyd Beckingham, 705 N. Eighteenth street, committed suicide last night by taking carabolic acid, after some trouble with her mother who had visited with her yesterday. Her husband found her lying on the floor in her room where she had gone a few minutes before. Police were called and took her to St. Joseph's hospital after Doctor Negro had given her first aid. She died an hour later at the hospital. The woman's mother took dinner with the family yesterday and trouble arose between them which led to the suicide. She is survived by her husband, mother and a 7-year old boy. Mrs. Beckingham was married twice. Her husband is an employee of the Omaha Ice & Cold Storage company.

Real Estate Board Takes Credit for Street Signs

The Omaha Real Estate board is taking to itself credit for the recent marking of the street corners. A committee from the board, C. F. Harrison and E. M. Slater, has been for a year urging such an improvement. Finding that the council was holding back because of the expense of securing high-priced signs to be set on standards at the street corners, the committee urged that stencil signs on the telephone or electric light poles were good enough for the present. It was found that this might be done for about $500, instead of an expenditure of $7,000 to $10,000 for the signs on standards.

Jewish Society Gives Fifth Ball at Mundy Auditorium

GERMANS LAY SNARES BEHIND TO ENTRAP FRENCH

Concealed Mines Discovered and Other Devices With Which to Do Injury to Enemy as They Retreat.

(By Associated Press.)
 On the French front, Nov. 5.—The French advance in pursuit of the Germans beyond the Chemin Des Dames has progressed within an average of a mile and a half of the southern bank of the Ailette. Altogether 50,000 territory have fallen into French hands. Many points in the line were bombarded by the German big guns during the French advance, especially in the neighborhood of Ailles, where numerous mustard-gas shells somewhat delayed the progress of the French troops. The French are displaying greatest prudence in their movements in consequence of the frequency of the caverns on all sides of the hills. As a result of this caution the troops while going forward discovered a number of traps for the unwary. In Cerny a steel helmet hung on a pole was found on examination to have an electric wire connection running into a mine which would explode in the event of the helmet being snatched away.

House Ransacked While Family Is Attending Funeral

The home of A. G. Weinstein, 2421 Charles street, was entered yesterday afternoon while the family was attending a funeral and ransacked of valuable jewelry, silverware and clothes. A diamond stud, valued as a keepsake, was taken. The burglars entered the house by breaking a panel of the rear door. The condition of the rooms when the family returned indicated that the thieves were familiar with the house and picked out the most valuable silverware and women's clothes. Abe Weinstein, who is married and lives at the house with his father, places the loss at approximately $2,500. A complete set of silverware was taken, besides a suitcase filled with his wife's silk garments and jewelry. A neighbor of Weinstein's whose name was not learned, told the police she saw an express wagon drive up the alley and stop in the rear of the Weinstein residence while the family was away and saw a man walk in the back yard, but observed nothing further about the affair.

German Efforts to Fraternalize With Russ Rebuffed

Petrograd, Nov. 5.—Teutonic attempts at fraternization yesterday met with a mixed reception on the Russian front. There was fraternizing in the Dvinsk region, but in the Buzoe area patrols approaching the lines with proclamations were fired upon and driven away, the war office announces. There were no military operations of importance, according to the statement. The entire position, which is a perfect honeycomb of trenches, was reorganized by the French during the course of the day and last night. It is uncertain whether the Germans intend to retreat further, although many movements of the troops toward the north have been observed.

Police Stop Meeting

Denver, Nov. 5.—Police Sunday night prevented a meeting in a local hall of the Denver branch of the People's Council of American for Democracy and Terms of Peace. "CALLED PIG AND SWINE" SAY FREED HUN PRISONERS

Toronto, Nov. 5.—Reports of conditions in German prison camps, particularly at Gottengen, Hanover, were made here today by Corporal Alexander Yetman and Allen MacDonald, Toronto Highlanders, who were captured at St. Julien in April, 1915. They were prisoners in Germany 19 months. But when they became ill of starvation they were returned home through Switzerland. "We were often hit, punished and kicked and called 'pigs and swine,'" the corporal said. "Now and then we could walk to town if we liked, but they made us walk in the middle of the road, for we could not walk on the side beside the Germans, and they jeered at us and called us vile names. "When you asked a guard for a cup of water, a German Red Cross nurse would knock it out of your hand. We had to sleep on the floor of the huts. We had no change of clothing and when we were wet to the skin we had to keep our clothes on." "The prisoners got no justice and the food was wretched," declared MacDonald, who was wounded and gassed at St. Julien and who was 15 months in Gottengen. "I was on the pick and shovel gang working on the roads. I refused to work once and for nine days was placed in solitary confinement and fed on bread and water."

VATICAN TOLD TO STOP PEACE MOVE

Italian Government Heads Make it Plain to Pope That Such Action is Unwelcome Now.

(By Associated Press.)
 Rome, Nov. 5.—The gravity of the situation and the fusion of all parties into one national entity, determined, at all odds, to drive the enemy from the mother soil, apparently, according to high officials, has reached even the Vatican, where it is realized, it is advisable to abandon any efforts toward peace, for the present, at least. The leaders of the Catholic party have made declarations of their support to united Italy in the supreme struggle, and it is said in official quarters that for the moment any attitude which might be considered to run counter to the national aspirations would be most unwelcome.
