STATE TEACHERS IN OMAHA TO HOLD CONVENTION; LOOK FOR A RECORD ATTENDANCE

Interesting Sessions Start in the Various Divisions; Kelly Shows How "Star Spangled Banner" Should Be Sung to Make it a Martial Air; Prominent Speakers Here.

The fifty-second annual session of the state teachers started off with auspicious weather conditions and favorable attendance. More than 1,600 had registered before the noon hour, with many arriving on every train.

VETERAN SCHOOL HEAD.

The principal speakers are all here. Dr. Ambrose L. Suhrie of the department of education, University of Pennsylvania, visited Central High school with Principal Masters, arriving at the state teachers' headquarters at the Rome hotel in time to get in at the close of the superintendents' and principals' section meeting.

OMAHA SUFFS TO CELEBRATE THEIR BIG N. Y. VICTORY

Are So Elated They Can Not Formulate Plans at Present For Their Big Mass Meeting.

Omaha suffragists plan a monster mass meeting and a dinner to celebrate the victory of votes for women in New York. "Our joy is so unbounded we can hardly calm down enough to formulate the plans today," said Mrs. Draper Smith, former state suffrage president.

Suffragists' telephones were busy all morning, leaders of the movement calling each other for congratulations and to discuss the "surprise of their lives" as most of them expressed it.

"A suffrage victory in New York seemed impossible," said Mrs. Smith, "with its large foreign element and its corporation-ridden influence."

Look for Effect in Congress. Mrs. Smith is especially jubilant over the effect the New York victory will have on the federal suffrage amendment in congress in December.

"Passage of the national amendment is assured," said Mrs. Smith. "It doesn't seem possible," said Mrs. H. C. Sumney, "I nearly fainted when I read the Morning Bee's returns. The suffrage victory shows the turn of sentiment and is proof of the fact that thinking people were not affected by the silly picketing at Washington."

Very Little Campaigning. Mrs. Sumney points out the fact that very little campaigning for suffrage was done before Tuesday's election. "The women were too busy with war work," she says.

HYLAN'S BIG PLURALITY. Judge Hylan's plurality, based on virtually complete returns early today, was 148,178. Mayor Mitchell's plurality four years ago was 121,209. With 27 election districts missing, the vote for mayor stood: John F. Hylan, democrat, 297,282; John Purroy Mitchell, fusion, 149,307; Morris Hillquit, socialist, 142,178; William M. Bennett, republican, 53,678.

Aside from the overwhelming Tammany victory, the outstanding feature of the mayoralty vote was the great increase in the socialist vote. In 1913 Charles Edward Russell, the socialist candidate, polled 32,100 votes. At the presidential election last year Allan L. Benson, socialist candidate for president, received 31,788 votes.

The socialists, while disappointed because their vote was short of expectations, got some comfort out of
