Beef steers, both grassers and the medium kinds of cornfeds looked strong, to mostly 10@15c higher. Good grass steers sold as high as $12.25. Stockers and feeders were also atrong, and if anything a little higher, and very ready sellers. Packers inability to get all the steers they wanted this week has improved the demand for butcher stock, and today's trade was active and strong to 10c or more above yesterday. The heavier kinds of stock heifers and hulk of the stock cows are selling very readily at prices that are strong to a little higher than yesterday, and fully 25c higher than last week. Light stock heifers have falled to share the improvement. On the general run of stockers and feeders today's prices are 256 56c higher than the latter part of last week, while desirable range beeves are 25c higher, and the medium kinds of cornfeds show a similar advance. higher. Pessimistic Reports of Slowness of Husb clined traders put emphasis on statements that prevailing temperatures were too high for the best results in handling grain which contained any heavy percentage of moisture and which was likely to get quickly out of condition. Complaints of car scarcity together with lightness of rural offerings tended further to keep the market almost constantly on the upgrade, and so too did unabated attention to the effects of government establishment of a virtual minimum price on hogs.

New York, Nov. 7.—Coffee—While advances were not fully maintained the market for coffee futures made a generally steady showing today, closing steady at a new gain of about 2 to 6 points. General business was quiet and the improvement was attributed to local covering, with scattered investment, buying which control is the seattered investment buying, which some sup-posed to be partly for foreign account. The market opened unchanged to 4 points higher, but scattering December liquidation ing Causes Materiaal Advance.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Pessimistic reports as to the slowness of husking had considerable to do with a material advance which took place today in the corn market. Prices vances from 7.17c to 7.25c, while May advance today in the corn market. Prices to 23%c net higher with slowed strong 1%c to 2%c net higher with slowed strong 1%c to 2%c net higher with slowing net advances of about 4 to 10 points during the midle of the day. Last points during the midle of the day. Last prices were a few points off from the best prices were a few points off from the best prices. Delays to husking appeared or result largely from the fact that the new crop of corn was not drying out as rapidly as expected. In this connection builtship inclined traders put emphasis on atatements that prevailing temperatures were too blay for Santos 4s. Cost and freight offers were a few points off from the best under realizing. December, 7.29c; January, 7.27c; March, 7.43c; May, 7.62c; July, 7.78c; September, 7.93c.

Spot was reported in fair demand, with prices steady at 7% c for Rio 7s, 7c, and 9% c for Santos 4s. Cost and freight offers prices steady at 7% c for Rio 7s, 7c, and 8% c for Santos 4s. Cost and freight offers were about unchanged, comparatively few being ### received. The official cables reported no change in the primary markets except Santos futures, which were unchanged to 25 rels lower.

St. Louis Live Stock Market, St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 7.—Cattle—Receipts, 9,000 head; market lower, native beef steers, of government establishment of a virtual minimum price on hogs.

Outs hardened with corn despite absence of urgent demand either domestic or export.

Buyers, ascribed to packers, gave a lift to provisions. The purchasing was believed to be largely against intended shipment to Europe. Besides the hog arrivals were less numerous than had been looked for and slaughterings not half as great as a year ago.
