

SOCIETY WOMAN GIVEN DIVORCE AND BIG ALIMONY

Prominent Omaha Physician Ordered to Provide for Only Child; Were Married Ten Years.

Annabel M. Coulter has been granted a decree of divorce from Dr. Frank E. Coulter, prominent Omaha nerve and mental disease specialist, who is also connected with the faculty of the University of Nebraska College of Medicine at Omaha.

Dr. Coulter is ordered to pay $3,500 alimony and to convey to Mrs. Coulter, the house and lot at 309 North Forty-first street, in Poppleton park, including all household furnishings therein. Among the articles designated is a large and valuable oil painting purchased some time ago at Whitmore's art gallery.

Hoyt Says He Has First Three-Cent Stamped Envelope

R. C. Hoyt, clerk of the federal court, believes he has the first stamped 3-cent envelope to pass through the United States mails under the war tax act raising postage to 3 cents. Mr. Hoyt is a stamp collector. Among his collection he had a 3-cent unused stamped envelope of the issue used prior to 1882, when 2-cent postage was introduced. He sent this envelope to a friend in Wyoming with instructions to mail it to him. It came through the mails duly postmarked and Mr. Hoyt has added it to his collection with the statement that it is the first 3-cent stamped envelope to pass through the mails under the 3-cent postage rate of 1917.

Letters sent to points in the same city cost but 2 cents.

SIX CARS STOLEN BY AUTO THIEVES

Marauders Operate Boldly in Both Downtown and Residence Districts; Police Recover One Machine.

Omaha is still a harbor for automobile thieves, as is noted by the fact that six cars were stolen in a short space of time last night.

J. D. Reed, 2033 Howard street, and M. F. Lienard, 509 South Twentieth street, reported to the police that their cars were taken from in front of their homes. The car belonging to the latter was later recovered at Thirty-first and Dorcas streets, where it had been left standing by the thief. An automobile belonging to John Gibson, Wahoo, Neb., was taken from in front of the Clarkson hospital, and another belonging to E. C. Gethcher, 806 South Fifteenth street, was stolen from in front of the Labor temple.

W. F. Humpal, 3705 South Twentieth street, and R. Kronstadt, 3030 California street, reported to the police that their cars, which they left standing on downtown street parkings, were also stolen.

Two Grocery Stores Ransacked by Thieves

Two grocery stores were broken into and ransacked last night and quantities of provisions were taken from each.

H. Rickard's grocery at Fifty-eighth and Center streets was entered via the front window. Ten dollars and 40 cents in money was secured and provisions valued at $400 were taken.

Old Corn Brings High Price on Omaha Market

Omaha prices on old corn were 4 to 5 cents up, selling at $2.12 and $2.15 a bushel. New corn was not in good demand, owing to the arrivals being too full of moisture. Prices were $1.18 and $1.45 a bushel, but whether up or down could not be determined, as there was no way of making comparisons. Receipts were 23 carloads. Oats were a cent up, selling at 60 cents and 61 cents a bushel. The receipts were 56 carloads. Wheat receipts were 23 carloads.

Armenian Committee To Ask Monthly Pledges

The Omaha committee for Armenian and Syrian relief will begin Sunday a pledge campaign, the intentions of the committee being to secure subscriptions, payable monthly, in order to create a sustaining fund.

The ministers of Omaha have heartily endorsed the movement and on Sunday will make the announcement that three days—November 18, 19 and 20—have been set aside as a period for intensive soliciting. Committees from every congregation will be appointed to carry the plan into effect.

Interesting Reunion Held By Fremont Normal Alumni

A reunion of former students of the Fremont Normal school was held Friday at the Paxton hotel. State Superintendent Clemmons, formerly president of the institution, presided and about 200 ex-students, mostly teachers now, filled the parlors of the Paxton which were turned over to them. Refreshments, music and speaking entertained the guests.
