The club is especially anxious to reach the boys who will otherwise have no Christmas packages. Mrs. H. M. Howard has just received a letter from Mrs. E. H. Schulz, wife of the commanding officer of the 109th Regiment of Engineers in which she says: "The 109th regiment, in which your husband is an officer, will undoubtedly be sent to France before the winter is over. I have recently received a letter from headquarters at Washington saying that some of the engineers regiments which have already gone were not provided with the knitted garments so necessary to their comfort. Consequently the wives of the commanding officers were asked to form a committee of the wives of their husbands companies to see that the regiments were provided with helmets, sweaters, wristlets and socks, which the men must have in order to be comfortable." The local club had already taken some steps in this direction and definite plans were completed. A special meeting will be held on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Walter I. Smith, 126 South Seventh street, and all those interested are urged to attend.

The next meeting will be held at the Young Women's Christian association on the evening of November 21.

Miss Alice Duval to Wed

Miss Alice Duval

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Duval announce the engagement of their daughter, Alice, to Mr. Rollin Sturtevant of Kansas City. The date has not been set for the wedding but it will be some time late in the winter.

Miss Duval is very prominent in musical as well as social circles. She is the possessor of a beautiful soprano voice and is the soloist at the First Congregational church.

Mr. Sturtevant is the son of Mrs. F. A. Sturtevant of this city, but he is now engaged in business in Kansas City. Mr. Sturtevant is a graduate of Dartmouth college and a member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity.

College club enjoyed a knitting party Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Willard C. Slabaugh.

Dr. and Mrs. I. S. Leavitt leave early in the week for the west. They go first to El Paso and then join Bishop and Mrs. Bashford in Tucson, Ariz., for a few weeks before going to Los Angeles for the winter.

Miss Elizabeth Stewart sailed from New York for France, last week (Thursday) with the Young Men's Christian association canteen. Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Stewart, the parents, are left alone, as another daughter, Mrs. Clinton Brome, has joined her husband at Camp Cody, Deming, N. M.

Mrs. Frank S. Selby gave a tea at her home, 1300 North Fifty-second avenue, Thursday afternoon for Miss Ruth Slabaugh.

Probably the largest amount of war work accomplished by one small group of girls has been done by a club of workers in North Platte who are known as the "Sammy Girls." They have already bought $22.75 worth of yarn, two-thirds of which has been used for knitted garments. A box weighing 75 pounds full of good things to eat has been sent to the boys of Company E at Camp Cody. A similar box weighing 30 pounds has been sent to the boys of the same company who have been transferred to other camps. Ten or more pounds of "goodies" to North Platte boys who are scattered in different branches of the service. Eight lucky boys at different forts have been the recipients of these boxes of good cheer beside. Bed socks and other garments have been sent to various boys who are in the navy.

Mrs. John McGraw is the leader of this group of energetic bees and from a dozen members the club has grown to 75 and there is not a drone among them, each active, full of enthusiasm and in love with the good work they are doing.

Still another task which these Sammy sisters have set for themselves is the filling of a Christmas box for every boy from their home town who is in the service of Uncle Sam. Such zeal and patriotism is certainly worthy of the highest commendation and is an example for all to follow.

Little Economies in Banishing Objectionable Hairs, Clearing and Beautifying the Skin, Restoring the Silky Lustre and Fluffy Softness to the Hair, Cleansing the Hair and Scalp, Removing Wrinkles, Developing the Figure, Etc.

By Madame Madeline Maree

WORRIED writes: "Hair under my arms embarrasses me so I cannot wear the new style evening gowns. What shall I do?" Get 50c worth of delol and with some water make enough paste to cover the hairs. Let remain on the skin 2 or 3 minutes then rub off, wash the skin and the hair will be entirely gone. This is a quick, safe and painless method. If the growth is thick or stubborn a second application a few weeks later may be necessary to entirely discourage it. Be certain to get real delol.

F. E. S.: "My skin is wrinkled and ugly-looking. Please publish the formula of the new rolling massage cream made with milk." The formula: In 1/2 pint of sweet unskimmed milk dissolve 2 ounces of bryol, then put it on the fire for a few minutes and stir carefully. When it cools you will have a half-pound of the most delightful rolling massage cream you ever used and the cost for the whole amount will be only 10c! As a wrinkle-remover and skin-cleanser you will find this massage cream all you can wish for, and I am sure you will never use any other kind.

MRS. G. says: "Please recommend a safe shampoo. My scalp and hair are in terrible condition from using shampoos containing lye." Get 25c worth of eggol and when you wash a shampoo just dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and it is ready. This makes a very soothing and cleansing head wash and leaves both scalp and hair immaculately clean. Using it regularly soon will restore the natural lustre and soft fluffiness to dull brittle hair.

ANNE writes: "My face burns and is full of pimples and blotches. Doctor says cheap powder caused it. Please help me regain my once lovely complexion." Wash the face with tepid water and a mild soap, then apply the lotion made as follows: In a pint of hot water dissolve 2 ounces of amard. This is very soothing and healing and will do wonders in restoring the clearness and velvety smoothness to pimply, blotchy, sore or rough skins. The amard lotion costs not to exceed 50c for a full pint and is truly an economy lotion.

GRACE R.: "Your gallot recipe for developing the figure is truly wonderful. Please publish a good hair tonic." Here is one I frequently recommend because of its extraordinary results. Wash the face with beta-cantol. Pour a little of the beta-cantol at a time into the bay rum and shake

Volney Hampton Writes Play for "Buy Gum" Club; Cash Buy Gum for Sammys

Volney Hampton, playwright and director of many amateur performances, witnessed a splendid interpretation of his latest efforts Saturday night at the Hamilton residence, 3230 Webster street.

"Halloween in a Boarding House" proved to be a success financially. The idea was a child of Volney's brain and imagination; the scenery was improvised and patriotic.

This "Musical Review" combined some of the best talent of Central High, where Volney is a freshman. The cast included five boys and four girls. Patriotic and popular songs were featured throughout the two acts and Vic Eisler's (as near Fritz Kreisler as possible) violin moaned, wept, wailed, laughed and sang during the evening, lending itself to the musician's moods.

Costumes were designed by Volney Hampton and Miss Penelope Hampton.

Invitations read: "The Webster street bunch (that awful mob of kids) have decided (oh, mas said we could) to give an entertainment, at Hamilton's, the big house on the corner of Thirty-third and Webster streets. The play to be given is a musical review entitled, 'Halloween in a Boarding House.' All proceeds go to buy gum for the soldiers. Please come and all of us will be overjoyed at receiving your admission of 10 cents (if you are a kid, 5 cents.)

"On Saturday, November Tenth, at seven-thirty at Hamilton's."

Volney Hampton

Cast of characters: Calvin Hampton, Virginia Hampton, Nedie Hamilton, Luther Hamilton, Bert Baumgardner, Miss Erdice Baumgardner, Mable Gilbaugh, Everett Little, Victor Eisler.

The proceeds will buy gum for soldiers in the trenches.

The fatality of the same inning in five of the six games for the world's championship was a keen disappointment to advocates of a "noiseless Fourth."
