Four American Airmen

Honored in French Army Headquarters of the Lafayette Escadrille, Nov. 15 .- (Via Paris) .- This afternoon "somewhere on the western front" an impressive service was held in honor of Captain George Guynemer, the famous French airman, recently killed in combat. The scene was the airdome of a noted fighting unit of the French air service from which the members of the Lafayette flying squadron and their French comrades daily go out to give battle to the German airmen. After the service there was a distribution of the honors recently won by French and American pilots.

The Americans decorated were Raoul Lufbery, now seventh on the list of French aces, and Sergeants Robert Rockwell, Robert Soubrian and David McKay Peterson.
