Active Service Order Pleases New Officers (From a Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Nov. 15.—(Special Telegram.)—Secretary Baker's announcement that practically all student officers commissioned at the close of training camps will be called into active service at once with pay, has been hailed with intense satisfaction, not only at Fort Myer, but throughout all the training camps of the country.

This announcement came in response to the storm of protest arising from an announcement last week that the War department was seriously thinking of giving reserve officers their commissions, but keeping numbers of them on the reserve list without pay. The protests were loud and long over such action and it now appears that the War department in restudying the question has arrived at the conclusion that practically all the men commissioned will be needed at once in the several branches of the service.

For More Xmas Packages
An S. O. S. call for more Red Cross Christmas packages was telegraphed from Washington Wednesday morning by Frank W. Judson to Mrs. T. L. Davis and Mrs. Edwin T. Swobe of the woman's committee, which last week prepared 4,000 packages for soldiers at the front.

"Omaha must furnish 1,000 more by the end of the week," Mr. Judson wired, and the women got back to work immediately. Having given up their quarters in the First National bank building, the work will be resumed in the Oscar Keeline building, 315 South Seventeenth street.

All packages donated by the public must be received here by Saturday. No candy or eatables will be accepted, according to orders.

Red Cross officials requested 36,000 more packages from the Central division.

SOUTH SIDE

FATHER KALAMAJA

HURT IN RUNAWAY

Thrown From Buggy and Out and Bruised While in Wisconsin Doing Church Work.

Rev. Theobald Kalamaja of the Church of the Immaculate Conception in Pulaski, Wis. W. Mike Kalamaja, 3828 South Twenty-fourth street, brother of the Polish priest, has received word that Father Kalamaja and a companion were thrown out of the carriage in which they were riding home from the country mission, where they had been visiting Sunday evening. Father Kalamaja was bruised about the head and face and his collarbone wrenched, just how badly South Side friends of the priest have not yet been able to learn.

Father Kalamaja was in Wisconsin on a mission from Rome. He was examining members of the Franciscan order and was attending a conference of Catholic priests. He is being cared for by friends at Pulaski.

Details of Death of Williams Are Learned

The body of Oscar L. Williams, found dead in a coal bin at the Morris Packing company plant Wednesday morning, will be taken to his old home in Chillicothe, Mo., for burial Friday. He lived in Chillicothe until last June, when he moved to South Side.

Williams was employed as a night fireman at the Morris packing plant. About 5 o'clock Wednesday morning he said to his partner, Glen Lauderback, 4008 V street, that he was going up to fix coal bunker No. 7. The coal had not been going down the chute as it should. After he had been gone for some time Lauderback and some of the workmen called to him, but received no answer. Alarmed, Lauderback and O. H. Chandler, assistant engineer, 3118 V street, went up the ladder in search of Williams.

Lauderback felt around in the coal bin and soon let out a shriek. "He's in here! Here he is!" Williams was buried in the fine slack coal. He was standing upright in the bin and was entirely covered by the coal. Evidently he had gone up to loosen the coal and slipped into the bunker and the coal slid down and covered him. The bunker has a capacity of 35 tons. It contained 25 tons.

Williams was 34 years of age. He lived with his wife and three children, Claude, aged 11 years; Mabel, 9 years, and Ralph, 5 years, at 5410 1/2 South Twenty-fourth street.

The death of the husband and father leaves the family almost destitute.

Admits Having Booze and Is Fined One Century

Ed Akromis, proprietor of a soft drink parlor and dance hall at 5524 South Thirty-sixth street, pleaded guilty to illegal possession of liquor in South Side police court Thursday morning. He was fined $100 and costs. Akromis was arrested Sunday night by Officers Sheahan and Goss who saw him pour out drinks for three thirsty patrons.

Fitzgerald Keeps Eye

Out for I. W. W. Delegates

Police Judge Fitzgerald is on the outlook for Industrial Workers of the World. He questioned every vagrant who appeared before him Thursday morning closely and asked some of them if they belonged to the Industrial Workers of the World.

"You boys look like bums. You are Industrial Workers of the World in the making," he said to Peter Bruno, Chicago, and George Boorman, Madison, Wis., when they appeared before him charged with vagrancy.

"Are you an Industrial Worker of the World?" he asked of George Wolf, Peoria, Ill. Wolf denied the charge.

"Well, anyway, five days in jail won't hurt you," commented the judge after asking him if he had registered.

U. of O. Organizes for

Efficiency and Economy

Students of the University of Omaha have completed the organization of "The Society of Higher Efficiency and Economy Among the Students of the Universities." The local collegians believe that they are the first students to initiate the movement and predict that before long all the universities and colleges will follow their lead.

The new organization is the outcome of war conditions. In introducing the subject Dean Stevenson said: "The financial demand of the Liberty bond issues, the Young Men's Christian association campaign, and the high price of everything make it necessary for faculty members and students to be more economical and more efficient. We must decrease our social expenses and increase our scholastic efforts. We must get right down and practice these two principles. To do this we must actually organize so that every man is accounted for. Women are included, too."

A committee consisting of the class presidents was appointed to draw plans for the organization. It is understood that a literary society will be formed and the ideas carried out in it.

Fort Sill Soldiers Ask

Omaha Girls to Write

"We wish that you would publish our note to you, for the boys are lonely and would like to receive some cheerful letters," reads a missive received by The Bee Wednesday morning.

Here is another chance for Omaha girls to do some letter writing. The address of the nine boys signing the letter is "M" Company, One Hundred and Thirty-seventh Infantry, Camp Doniphan, Fort Sill, Okl. They declare they all occupy one tent and wouldn't mind receiving a treat now and then.

A. J. Lacerre, S. J. Owens, Jack Gordon, Ferd Courtwright, G. N. Winters, Sam Carpenter, Ivan Snyder, Amos Crosby and D. N. Webb.

Take your choice and go to it, girls, remembering that there is nothing in a name.

Navy Offers Chance

To Become Engineer

The boy who has always wanted to become an engineer now has a splendid chance if he joins the navy. The navy will start him to work at once as a fireman, $0 he will skip the one or two years he would have to work around a roundhouse if he became a railway engineer.

He will learn to fire and later become engineer, managing the gas engines, learn to run the electrically-propelled battleships and torpedo boats. He will get the finest kind of training in all branches of engine work, such as he will find nowhere else.

There are splendid openings now in the navy for engineers of experience.

Military Notes

Upon recommendation of Captain Metz, the following noncommissioned officers have been appointed for Company G: Sergeants: Robert A. Nelson, Jay Dudley, Eugene Sisker, Julius West, Gustav Thomas, Darley A. Holbrook, Frederick R. Houtler, Leo Ryan, William T. Corboure, Joseph E. Whitaker, Richard H. Kelley. Corporals: Arthur W. Harn, Howard Allen, Burns Kaleve, Richard B. Engelman, Howard F. Hartell, Frank L. Reed, Gustav B. Bowman, Ambrose J. Kallighen, Axel C. Larsen.

Four hundred and fifty-three men have enlisted in the army in the Omaha district for the first 14 days of November. This is 100 more than were taken in last month by the same date. And October was a record month at that.

"If this keeps up, we'll have a thousand men for November," said Major Frith. "I shouldn't be surprised if Omaha were first in the United States in recruiting now. In September the district four and we are far ahead of that month now."

The Coming

on of Age

The coming on of age means the shutting off of a certain amount of the nerve power of the body.

Every chiropractor knows that disease is progressive. Gurnie Pepple, Marion, Ind., fell out of a tree, broke his hip, face, at the age of 3, and was 17 before the spinal trouble caused by the fall, began to affect his mind.

Bad habits of sitting, standing or walking affect the spine. Chronic poor health originates in spinal nerve pressure, and comes to an end when the pressure is removed by a chiropractic adjustment.

In my experience with chiropractic, disease has lost its mystery. The spinal adjustment has torn away the veil. To be sure of your spine, call for free examination.
