

PARRISH TO BE PUBLICITY MAN FOR STATE FOOD

Hoover Asks Omaha Bureau to Release Manager for the Duration of the War.

E. V. Parrish, manager of the bureau of publicity in connection with the Commercial club, has been appointed by G. W. Wattles as manager of publicity for the food administration of Nebraska.

The appointment has the approval of Federal Food Administrator Hoover, and Mr. Parrish's acceptance is subject to his release by the governing committee of the bureau of publicity, with which he is now connected.

Since Mr. Wattles was appointed food administrator of Nebraska Mr. Parrish has been in charge of most of the publicity work for Mr. Wattles in this connection, but has had to handle it at odd moments when he could get away from his regular work at his own office of the bureau of publicity.

Needed a Publicity Man.

Mr. Wattles has decided that the food administration in Nebraska will require a publicity man throughout the entire campaign, and that everything depends upon getting the right kind of publicity for all movements undertaken by this administration. For this reason he has decided to appoint Mr. Parrish to take complete charge of his food administration publicity work, and to attempt to get him released from his responsibilities in the other position at his former bureau.

Mr. Wattles went to Washington a few days ago, and a telegram has just been received stating that he there announced Mr. Parrish's appointment after receiving the O. K. of Mr. Hoover.

Mr. Parrish has been manager of the bureau of publicity of Omaha for over six years. He has built this bureau up to a powerful organization, which has not only gained for Omaha favorable and constant publicity the world over, but has drawn conventions to Omaha until Omaha is now known as the "Convention City," where nearly 80 conventions meet annually.

Goes to Work Soon.

Mr. Parrish's connection with the food administration will take effect when Mr. Wattles returns from

CORN PERMITTED TO MOLD IN CRIBS

Letters to Food Administrator Assert Farmers Crib Grain Before Sap is Thoroughly Dried in Fields.

Corn is molding in the cribs in both the northern and southern sections of Nebraska.

This is shown by letters which have been received at the office of Food Administrator Wattles in Omaha. The letters come from several parts of the state, including points as far apart as Albion in the northern and Sterling in the southern part.

The letters call attention to the fact that much of the corn already cribbed is molding and absolutely spoiling by reason of the fact that the cob was full of sap when cribbed and this sap soured the cob and the corn when cribbed before it became thoroughly dry in the field.

The writer from Sterling said that in some instances around Sterling farmers are shoveling this molded corn out of the crib and allowing it to go to waste because they have no hogs to which to feed it.

The state food administration has called the situation to the attention of the agricultural extension department of the University of Nebraska and to the State Council of Defense.

Iowa Merchant Says Wife Humiliated Him

A cross petition filed by Robert P. Irvine, in answer to a petition for divorce by his wife, Eriza Irvine, alleging cruelty, declares that Mrs. Irvine represented herself to him as a member of the New Thought society and other spiritual organizations, while in fact, she has no religion or beliefs.

He declares that she has engaged in the fortune telling business, much to his humiliation, and concludes by saying he does not think she is entitled to any of the $20,000 which he is worth.

$35 WORTH OF REMEDIES FAILS CUTICURA HEALS

Baby's Face and Hands Swollen Twice Their Size. In Pimples and Blisters. Used 2 Boxes Ointment with Soap.

"When my sister was a small baby a soap that was too strong and rough was used for her skin. Her face and hands were swollen twice their natural size and the skin was red. Then it broke out in pimples and blisters, and she would rub and scratch. She cried and never had a good night's rest.

"My parents used thirty-five dollars' worth of medicines but she never got any relief. A friend advised Cuticura Soap and Ointment. She got relief right away, and the itching stopped, and after using two boxes of Cuticura Ointment with the Cuticura Soap she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Geo. L. McClellan, Box 144, Montpelier, Ohio, February 13, 1917.

If your skin is already healthy and clear keep it so by using Cuticura Soap for toilet purposes assisted by touches of Cuticura Ointment to soothe and heal any tendency to irritation, redness or roughness of the skin or scalp.

For Free Sample Each by Return Mail address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. H, Boston." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c.

First Red Cross Class in Schools

Women of Edward Rosewater School Community Center Organize to Make Bandages for Soldiers.

The first of the Red Cross classes to be organized at all community centers was started Thursday night in Edward Rosewater school.

Miss Goodwin of the Red Cross organization met 20 women of the Rosewater school neighborhood and instructed them in making bandages for the soldiers. This class will meet once a week at the school during the winter. Various Red Cross activities will be undertaken.

While these mothers were doing their bit for democracy their boys and girls were improving themselves in choral work in another room of the school.

Red Cross work at community centers was one feature of the winter's program outlined a few weeks ago by the Board of Public Recreation.

The women of the Rosewater school district have demonstrated their patriotism in this instance as they have on other recent occasions. More members will join the class next Thursday night.

Central High School Observes Bum Day

"Bums' Day" was observed Friday by the boys of the Central High school. Almost every boy wore some outlandish costume. One boy appeared as in a plaster-bespattered coat, a shirt that beggars description, a tie containing all the colors of the rainbow, mismatched shoes, multi-colored socks, and a hat that appeared to have been rescued from an ash can for the occasion.

Another long-legged male specimen donned some long-neglected shorts, trousers and a pair of white stockings. Loud neckties and shirts were the commonest.

Principal Masters let the boys have their fun out, but saw that no disorder resulted. Several of the teachers refused to allow the boys to enter the classrooms.

One pupil was heard to remark that "bums' day" ought to be observed for a week to economize on the good clothes during the war.

Ak-Sar-Ben Did Not Have Money to Spend on Fair

The board of governors of Ak-Sar-Ben gave the interstate fair proposition a lot of thought, said Secretary J. D. Weaver of Ak-Sar-Ben. "At the last meeting of the board the matter was discussed thoroughly again. The consensus of opinion was that the board would not be justified in fathering at this time any scheme which involved such a money outlay as this would. It was felt that with the war on and a lot of other things it would not be policy to take up with this new venture."

"Who Is Number One?" Well, Sir, in the Tailoring Business It's Dundee

"Who is number one?" The title of the picture is mystifying. The answer to the question, if put to the clothing buyers of Omaha, is Dundee—Dundee is "No. 1" in the field. Dundee is "No. 1" in value giving. Dundee is "No. 1" in economical operation. And if you're wise enough to watch out for "Number One," you'll buy Dundee Clothes at $15 and save $5 and $10.

Get out your pencil and do a little figuring. If we ran charge accounts we'd run across some men who would forget to pay their bills. And if we had a delivery system we'd find that tires, gasoline, chauffeurs, garage men, etc., were precious little luxuries. We'd have to add $5 or $10 to our prices to take care of these costs. And you'll be asked to pay more for the same clothes.

We've put this business on a "brass tacks" basis. We're down to bed rock. We center our efforts on increasing the value of our clothes and not on building up our expense budget. We deal only in hand tailored goods. We have a fabric test that only the finest weaves can pass. This store is growing a little bigger and better every day. The reasons for its growth are the reasons that should convince you that this should be YOUR tailoring store.
