FLAME SHOOTS UP.

A half hour later, just before the War's End in 12 Months; end of the first act a flame shot up from the bomb, the occupants of the seats on that floor of the building surged in panic toward the exits and Galli Curci, aided by the artists of the Chicago Grand Opera company, started the Star Spangled Banner, the audience joined in, the fuse was extinguished and quiet restored.

The bomb was taken for investigation by officials of the fire department and federal agents at once began an effort to learn who placed it in the

Whether it was intended as a protest against the extravagance of Grand Opera, the rich gowns and jewels of the theater-goers and the high salaried vocalists in these wartimes or whether it was a demonstration of an enemy alien's frightfulness could not be learned tonight.

Suspect Three Germans.

Two women who occupied seats near where the blaze flared up told Hinton Claba gh of the federal Depart ment of Justice that three men of marked German appearance had sat near them and had left soon after the auditorium was darkened. An effort is being made to learn to whom the seats were sold.

Judge Hugo Pam was sitting two rows away. "I was startled by the burst of flame," he said. "It shot up at least two feet and was accompanied by a smell of sulphur."

Two women whose names were kept secret told the federal agents sulted in the turning of the tide and they had overheard three men, apparently of German descent belitting the bending of the German line northward.

This delegation is headed by Major Stanley Washburn, an American of when the Germans were turned." ficer with three years intimate knowledge of Russian military conditions on the battle front, and comprises in addition W. W. Saldatenkov, representing the Russian minister of foreign affairs, and A. J. Sack, director of the Russian reformation bureau. The purpose of this visit is to interpret the new Russia to the American people. The Chamber of Commerce of the United States urges arrangements for a large meeting, as this affords an excellent opportunity to all Omaha to receive first hand informa-tion on the Russian situation. Major Washburn was a member of the Root commission to Russia, the same commission of which Charles Edward Russell was a member.

Details of the entertainment of the Hsu Shi Chang, former prime minister, is expected to be named premier to form a coalition cabinet, giving south and central China representation. Hsu Shi Chang, one of China's oldest statesmen, was viceroy of Manchuria under the old monarchy and prime minister during the adminis-tration of President Yuan Shi Kai. He resigned at the death of Yuan Kai and when Isun Tung, the young emperor, was put back on the throne last summer, under protection of General Chang Hsun, Hsu Shi Chang was appointed one of the guardians of the emperor. South China has been seriously disaffected since the restoration of the republic.

Inter-Allied Negotiations

Progress Admirably

London, Nov. 17.—The work of the American mission to the inter-al-lied conference is proving most satis-factory from both the American and the British standpoint. The conferences of the experts have resulted in an exchange of much fuller information concerning the resources and needs of the allies, both in military and economic fields and the Ameri-can ability to aid, than has been obed heretofore.

The experts among the members of the mission have made a strong impression on the British officials by their energy and grasp of various problems.

"They are discussing both sides and have laid all their cards on the table." said one member of the government,

Child Like Innocence.

As for the small smuggler, he, or more often she, is amusing rather than serious, marching up to the barrier with a look of childlike innocence, and at times with a smirk of sophistry, and, with luck, getting through with a rucksack crammed with chocolate, tea, and tobacco, all of which will bring a profit of several hundred per cent at the next village.

Nominally these Swiss or Germans living on the German side of the border, but earning their daily wage in Switzerland, were until recently allowed to take out as much food as they needed for their own consumption; but when, better late than never. the Swiss douaniers realized that they executive committee of the Nebraska must be spending more money on each day's victuals than on a year's clothes, the allowance was appreciably curtailed.

Germans Want Pepper.

Among articles which have lately fetched the highest prices in Germany are pepper (said to be employed in the manufacture of lachrymatory shells) and saccharine. Both are commonly twisted up in little paper bags and thrown across the frontier to acscale, actually filled the frame of his machine with pepper.

His ingenuity would have met with its reward but for an unlucky jar which released some of the pepper. This found its way, as ill-luck would have it, to the nostrils of a customs official, and the pepper, as the cyclist, remained in Switzerland.

All manner of accomplices, including dogs, children and seductive young women, who distract the attention of the sentries, are enlisted in this traffic, and it is said that at the village of St. Ludwig alone, where smuggling is very capably organized by the official German censor, 40 families live Cotton and rubber are always wel-
