The Kansans put up a battle for the honors and for a time appeared to have sli the better of the gridiron contest, but by the efforts of Coo Hubka, the Cornhuskers emerged victorious.

The start of the game was delayed 15 minutes, 500 Kaysee fans evidently wishing to delay departure to the arid state of Kansas until the last minute, started for Lawrence 30 minutes late so the accommodating Jayhawk officials held up the opening of hostilities until the tardy ones arrived.

Kansas won the toss and chose to defend the west goal. Munn was sent into the game to

Gibbons and McFarland May Box in Omaha for Army Athletic Fund

Omaha may be treated to a four-round boxing match between Mike Gibbons and Packey McFarland, if plans of Gene Melady and Carl Marfisi of this city do not go astray.

Gibbons and McFarland are in the service of Uncle Sam at Camps Dodge and McArthur, respectively. They have agreed to box four rounds for the benefit of the athletic funds of the cantonments at which they are stationed.

Chicago is making a bid for the event. Gene Melady is now in Chicago and he wires Carl Marfisi in Omaha that he has a chance to land the show for Omaha. If given assurance that Omaha would patronize the event as it should, Melady says he believes he can land the bout for the Gate City.

Marfisi suggest the bout might be held here the night of December 1. On that day the Camp Funston and Camp Dodge foot ball elevens will clash in Omaha and if the proposed Gibbons-McFarland bout could be held here that night, December 1 would be one gala day of patriotic sport events in Omaha Marfisi wir

Creighton gridiron warriors massacred the heavier Haskell Indian tribe from Lawrence, Kan., on Creighton field yesterday afternoon, rushing over three touchdowns on the completely out played Redskin team. Final score was 19 to 0. The game was replete with thrills, with Leahy and Harmon for Creighton and Black for the Indians giving an exhibition of foot ball that long will be remembered by the large crowd of enthusiastic Blue and White rooters.

Leahy was easily the bright star of the game for Creighton. The big fullback's brilliant punting was a joyful surprise to the enthusiasts of the school up on the hill. His boots were long and high and enabled his ends to race down and get under the ball, and down a Redman in his tracks and down a Redman in his tracks.
