Woman's Relief Corps Fosters Plan of Observing Date of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

Grand army men and all other citizens of Omaha have united in laying plans for the proper observance of the anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg address, and it is proposed to make the occasion a holiday. The date falls on Monday of this week and public services will be held in the Auditorium. The Women's Relief corps has taken the matter up and the members are active in perfecting arrangements.

George Crook Women's Relief corps No. 88 at the last meeting adopted the following resolutions: "Whereas, We most heartily approve of the great effort of the patriotic orders to hold a mass meeting November 19 at the Omaha Auditorium, commemorating the anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg address; therefore be it

"Resolved, That we, the Women's Relief corps, urge all citizens and their friends to attend and co-operate with us along these patriotic lines. We owe it to our country and our beloved martyred President Abraham Lincoln.

Woodmen of the World.

The morning degree conferred on 100 candidates at Druid hall by the patriotic central committee last Monday night was much enjoyed. This will be repeated again in the near future and a part of the proceeds will go to the Red Cross.

The protection degree will be exemplified in Alpha camp hall by the central committee next Friday night. Members secured on the present drive will be present for final instruction. Thursday night, December 6, Druid hall has been donated by Sovereign Ed Foster, manager, for a dancing party to be given by the central committee.

The next meeting of the central committee will be held at the Woodmen of the World building Wednesday night.

Omaha Seymour camp No. 16 will have a big presentation of live poultry for the lucky members attending the meeting November 20 and on the 27th a dancing party will be given by this camp to members and friends.

Modern Woodmen of America.

The camps of the Second Congressional district will hold a class adoption Wednesday evening, November 21 at Crounse hall, 117 North Sixteenth street. A large gathering of Woodmen is expected and each of the thirty lodges in the district will bring the candidates secured during the campaign of the past six weeks that they may see the Modern Woodmen of America goat in all his glory.

A picked degree staff will confer the degrees, assisted by the Forester team of Camp 120. National Lecturer Jack F. Harris of Chicago and the society's state officers will be present. Many men of draft age are taking Modern Woodmen protection, for the reason that this order has made provision by establishing a patriotic war fund to carry the man in the trenches in Europe at the same rate as the man plowing corn in Nebraska and the policy is worth its face from the date of delivery. The society, with its 1,050,000 members, takes this plan of doing its bit for the good old United States of America, as the cost per member to pay these claims will scarcely be noticed.

Woodmen Circle.

W. A. Fraser grove No. 1 will give a ball and entertainment Friday evening at Crounse hall.

A program is in store for members of Welcome grove No. 34 and their friends Monday night. A number of the sovereign officers of the Woodmen of the World and supreme officers of the Woodmen Circle will be present to assist in the christening of the "Mary E. LaRocca guards." After the ceremony of naming the team and the rendering of a musical and fancy dancing program refreshments will be served.

Alpha grove No. 2 will give the third of its series of card parties in Lyric building Tuesday night.

American Yeomen.

Last Wednesday evening Omaha homestead No. 1404 gave a dance to its members and their friends.

The campaign for membership closes Wednesday night with a large class adoption, at which time a member of the supreme board of directors will be present to assist in conferring the degrees. The Omaha degree team, under Captain Kolb, will exemplify the work.

The editor-in-chief of the official Yeomen paper, Harry Evans, gave a talk on the war and his Ford peace party trip last Sunday evening to the members and their friends.

Fraternal Aid Union.

Mondamin lodge No. 111 will give a prize card party in its hall in the Lyric building Tuesday evening.

Maccabees.

Omaha Tent No. 75 had a large class of candidates Monday evening, when the degree staff of Council Bluffs exemplified the work. The Reds and Blues are working hard in the contest for the prize.

Tribe of Ben Hur.

Fontenelle court No. 158 will give a card party Wednesday evening in the Eagles' hall. Eight prizes will be awarded—poultry and groceries.

Ear Is Cut Off When Auto Truck Tips Onto Him

On one side of his head hereafter Leo Waxenberg, a driver for the Omaha Packing company, will be ears.

Waxenberg was driving an auto truck for the company for which he works. At Twenty-third and Q streets the rear wheels of the truck skidded into the curb. The machine tipped over and Waxenberg was thrown to the pavement. A deep gash was cut in his head and his left ear cut off by the impact with the brick. He was taken to the hospital, where a number of stitches were taken in his scalp.

Jensen Draws $100 Fine For Lugging Liquor

James Jensen, arrested at 1109 South Ninth street, pleaded guilty to illegal possession of intoxicating liquor and was fined $100 and costs by Judge Madden in police court.

Their Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Emory W. Johnson

On Monday, November 19, Mr. and Mrs. Emory W. Johnson will observe in a very quiet way at their family home at 1018 South Thirty-first street, their golden wedding anniversary. Four out of five of their living children will be present, and four grandchildren.

Mr. Johnson was born in 1844 and Mrs. Johnson in 1846, making both past the three score and ten years. Both came from rugged New England, where the early years were spent in the trades common to those days, following the civil war, in which Mr. Johnson saw almost four years of hard service, being wounded at Sabine Cross Roads, was in the Red River campaign and many other skirmishes, being one of five brothers, four of whom were in the army the entire period.

Immediately following the war he married Caroline L. Cleveland and they both followed the injunction of Horace Greeley to "Go West," where, with many others, they have helped to pioneer and make possible comfortable living in the great and glorious west. Since 1884 their residence has been definitely in Omaha.

Mr. Johnson has been active in Grand Army circles. Next to his church the Grand Army of the Republic and its interests lie closest to his heart. One of the pleasantest experiences in his life has been his connection with the "Boys of '61" quartet, composed of four comrades, all past 70 years of age and boasting of over 12 years civil war service combined. This quartet has been in great demand with their repertoire of army songs for pioneer and Grand Army of the Republic gatherings of various kinds.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Johnson feel keenly the sadness of the homes contributing recruits for the present war. Their own sons are over the draft age, but they are ready to give them if necessary, and feel perhaps there may yet be some way in which the old soldiers may still "do their bit" in some sort of guard duty.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are the sole survivors of their own respective families. With them will be their children, Willard H. Johnson and daughters, Edward H. and Ora E., all of Omaha, and Hosea C. and sons of Lincoln, Neb. An invalid daughter of Ingleside, Neb., will be unable to attend.

A quiet day will be observed with as many friends as may wish to call during the afternoon and evening.

Reputation and Character

Reputation is made overnight—

Character is the work of a lifetime.

"Reputation is what people SAY you are—Character is WHAT YOU REALLY ARE."

Reputation is a fickle jade, she follows the crowd, listens to the jingle of money, bestows her favor upon the worthy and unworthy alike.

Dr. Cook, of North Pole fame, was placed upon a pedestal of popularity by reputation—and in a few weeks torn from his lofty place to become the laughing stock of two continents.

The opinion of either friend or foe as to my reputation matters not, but I defy my bitterest enemy or most intimate friend to say one word against my personal character.

In my dealings with the people of Nebraska I have endeavored to give them value received, or more. In my publicity I have endeavored to stick to the truth, but have not hesitated to state facts forcibly and bluntly, because I pledged my word to give the people better dentistry and lower prices and I have and intend to continue to make good this promise.

I pride myself that no man leaves my office feeling he has been robbed—no woman ever left with a feeling that she had been treated discourteously—and that no child who placed confidence in my claim of painless extraction ever had cause to feel I had abused his childish faith in me.

Had I lacked Character people would soon learn it, and success would be impossible.

I have not tried to build my large practice by tearing down the practice of others—but to create NEW patients by making it extremely advantageous for them to come to me.

What was that joke about "the lower is higher" and the "upper is lower"?

You probably remember when Weber & Fields indulged in that side-splitting bit of repartee about a Pullman berth. And how they reminded you that the "upper is lower" and the "lower is higher." It isn't as much of a joke as it seems. It's an actual fact. It applies to clothing stores. This Dundee store is an upper berth of retail values—you save $5 and $10 because we didn't put the store in a lower berth.

UNION MADE

UNION MADE

All the saving isn't due to the rent. We haven't any credit losses or delivery costs. We run this store "close to the handle." We don't spend any more expensive money than is absolutely necessary and we spend more merchandise money than any other store can. It wouldn't surprise us a bit if we had to "expand" our space pretty suddenly.

Just a word about Dundee Clothes: first of all, they're tailored by hand. Next, they're made of the kind of fabrics that look like "ready money" and last a long time. And every Dundee suit or overcoat you buy is a $20 or $25 garment and all you pay is $15—that's certainly some value.

Hudson Super-Six Costs $300 Less

Promptness Means a Saving. Price to Advance
as Soon as We Sell 3 Cars

The price of Hudson Super-Six seven-passenger phaeton models advances at least $300 just as soon as we and a few other dealers have disposed of present stocks. In our case there remain only three cars.

Factory production of cars built of materials bought last year when costs were from 30% to 60% lower than they now are has already been closed. All cars to be produced from now on are to be built of materials bought in the higher market of this year.

Other manufacturers increased their prices some months ago. Prices have been advanced twice by some makers since the Super-Six has been selling at its price of $1650 for the phaeton model.

There is no way to escape the influence of increased material costs. All makers have met the same conditions. Hudson held a temporary advantage because of the large supply of materials bought at prices more favorable than those who bought later have had to pay.

Save a Season's Operation Cost by Buying Now

All automobile prices will be higher next year. Get one of these Hudsons now. The saving will cover a year's operation cost.

Motor car demand has steadily increased during the past two years. This fall has been a big buying season. All Hudson dealers have been short of certain models for more than two months.

The great wealth that is being accumulated by people in all sections, who until recently did not have the money with which to satisfy even their simplest wants, is today making a new crop of motor car buyers. That condition is increasing more rapidly than factory production.

Buy your car now to make certain of delivery.

It surely isn't necessary to add anything about the Hudson Super-Six. There are now nearly 50,000 Super-Sixes in service. It has led all other fine cars in sales from the day its deliveries were large enough to count. You can buy your Super-Six now at a saving of at least $300. When stock of three cars is sold, then the price goes up.
