NEBRASKA'S VALLEY TITLE ON GRIDIRON UNDISPUTED; FOES WIPED OFF THE SLATE

Kansas by Defeat of Kansas Aggies and Ames Cyclones Had Eliminated All Contenders Who Had Not Been Laid Low by Doughty Cornhuskers Earlier In the Season.

Nebraska university's foot ball players are the champions of the Missouri Valley conference, following their defeat of Kansas, 13 to 3. Kansas held the Lincoln aggregation to a 3 to 0 score for the first half, but the heavy onslaught of the Nebraska in the third period was too much for the Lawrence eleven.

Nebraska's title is an indisputable one, Kansas having eliminated two other contenders, Kansas Aggies and the Ames Aggies, before their meeting with Nebraska.

OKLAHOMA PLAYS WELL

It was a hard fought game and the Lawrence team displayed form which rightly entitles them to second place conference ranking.

Missouri defeated Washington, 19 to 3. The Washington team did not at any time give the Missourians serious trouble.

The Kansas Aggies, Ames and Drake all were idle Saturday preparing for the final game of the season.

To the south of the conference, the Arkansas eleven played to a standstill with the Oklahoma team, the final score being 0 to 0. The Oklahoma Aggies romped away to a 41 to 2 score against Henry Kendall college.

Michigan Fallen Idol

New York, Nov. 18.—Several surprising lapses in the supposed form of prominent foot ball teams were the outstanding feature of the eastern college foot ball games of the weekend. Pennsylvania swept Michigan from its pedestal of undefeated supremacy; Tufts upset Dartmouth and Fordham completely outplayed Cornell.

Pennsylvania took command of the situation at the very beginning of the game and never ceased its aggressive tactics until victory had been achieved.

Michigan was outplayed, both as a team and where individual comparisons was possible.

Cornell was utterly unable to cope with the aerial attack of Fordham. Dartmouth showed the effects of recent hard games against formidable opponents and was unable to hold Tufts aggressively checked. Syracuse triumphed over Colgate by a satisfactory score.

Army and Navy Strong

Both the army and navy swept their opponents before them until huge scores had been rolled up. Villa Nova succeeded in kicking a field goal before the middies, but the Lebanon Valley team was unable to score against the cadets.

Among the so-called informal and military or naval cantonment teams, Yale defeated Trinity, Princeton won from the Cape May naval reserve, Rutgers took the League Island marines into camp, while Harvard lost to the Newport naval contingent. The Yale freshman won from the Harvard youngsters just a week after the Crimson first-year players had defeated Princeton. With college players forming all-star teams, the Camp Dix team won from the Camp Devens eleven, 19 to 0, in a game of sensational features.

Fight for Second Place

Chicago, Nov. 18.—With Ohio State in possession of the "Big Ten" foot ball championship for the second consecutive season, Chicago, Illinois and Minnesota, each with a defeat chalked up against them, will fight it out next Saturday for secondary honors of the western conference race.

The powerful Ohio eleven with "Chick" Harley, all-American half-back again its star, crushed Illinois, 13 to 0, yesterday, and kept its claim clean. The Ohioans displayed a remarkable race, having only been scored on twice in seven games. They piled up a total of 264 points against six for their opponents.

Minnesota displayed a surprising reversal in form in downing Chicago, 33 to 0. The defeat of the Maroons—the first of the year—may be recorded as one of the biggest upsets of the year.

The Maroons were completely outclassed and never had a chance. Not one did Stagg's players make first down.

Iowa Puts Up Fight

The battered-up Iowa eleven staged an unexpected stand against the supposedly superior Northwestern team, and although beaten, 25 to 14, put up an exhibition of thrills. Northwestern regarded the contest merely as a practice affair for the game with Michigan next Saturday, and over-confidence of the purple-clad players nearly resulted in their downfall.

The Michigan Aggies continued to hit the toboggan, losing their seventh straight game of the season to Notre Dame, 25 to 0. The game was a poor

OMAHA WINS NEXT MIDWEST TOURNEY

St. Louis Puts Up Hard Contest to Get Tourney, But Bowlers Favor Gate City; Local Rollers Take Part.

Des Moines, Nov. 18.—(Special Telegram.)—Following a spirited fight this afternoon at the annual meeting of the Midwest Bowling congress, Omaha won the honors from St. Louis for the 1918 tournament. E. M. Tracy of Omaha was the principal spokesman for the Nebraska city and Dennis J. Sweeney led the opposition.

Omaha had a margin of six votes over the Missouri city when the vote was counted.

E. M. Tracy of Omaha was elected first vice president at the annual election of officers and two Omaha men, H. Edison and M. R. Huntington, were elected members of the executive committee. An effort to displace M. J. Locker as secretary was defeated, the "insurgents" getting only nine votes.

Mound City After It

It was a hard fight between Omaha and St. Louis for the next meeting place and the Des Moines bowlers held the balance of power. Kansas City was expected to put up a strong fight for the place, but the name was not even mentioned.

Tracy led the fight for Omaha and without credentials from any commercial organizations of any sort, with no guarantees of any kind, but merely by putting forth the strong points of his city, won the day. The St. Louis delegation bore invitations from the mayor of the city and several organizations.

Dennis J. Sweeney, who headed the St. Louis delegation, when the vote was counted, indicated he moved that the selection of Omaha be made unanimous and pledged St. Louis to fight hard for the success of the tournament the following season.

Menne Is President

It goes without question right now that St. Louis will get the 1919 tournament without an effort.

H. C. Menne of St. Louis was elected president of the association following the refusal of George Strotz of Des Moines, who has been president since its organization, to serve. Strotz was, however, elected treasurer.

Secretary Locker was re-elected over Charles Knight, secretary of the Des Moines base ball club.

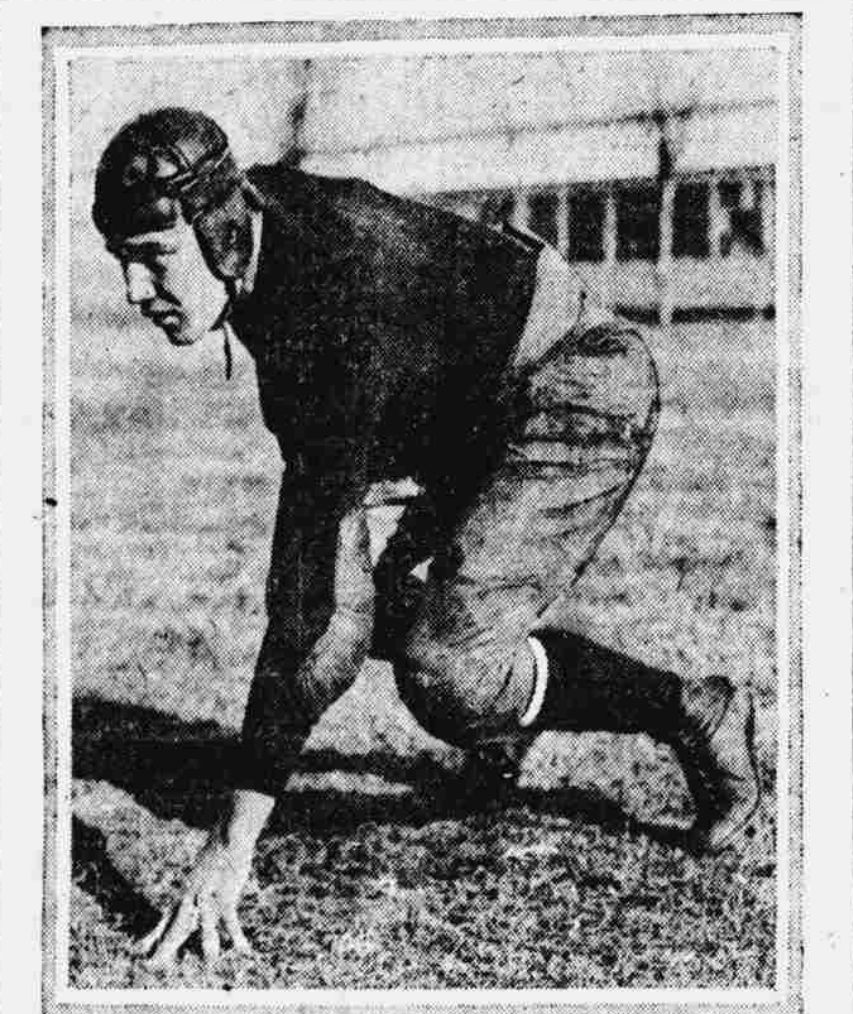

Omaha bowlers failed to place in the big money in the singles and doubles, but everyone placed for enough on the list from all indications, to get a slash at the pot when the melon is cut.

SALVATION ARMY ON BATTLE FRONT

Thirty Thousand of Its Members Are Fighting and Others Conducting Religious Services Behind Lines.

Working under the direction of the Red Cross, the Salvation army is doing its wonderful "bit" on the European battle fronts.

Its 620 soldiers devote their entire time to religious and social work among the soldiers; it offers religious services weekly to 100,000 soldiers; 30,000 of its members are now fighting in the trenches, besides many others who are with the other allies; it has placed 12 ambulances in the hands of the United States government, and 15 more will be ready when needed; it has built 174 "huts," each in charge of a Salvation army officer and his wife, near the fighting lines for social and religious gatherings and for dispersing refreshments among the soldiers.

James B. Wood, correspondent of the Chicago Daily News, writes from the American Field Headquarters in France, "The Salvation army is working without the donations of millions with which America is supporting other organizations. * * * The cost of opening one hut is $6,000. The worker gets little, and he lives at the soldiers' mess. * * * Every lazzie, when not having meetings, is busy every minute sewing buttons on the soldiers' uniforms, writing letters to soldiers' sweethearts, or listening to homesick boys describing their mothers' pictures which they carry next their hearts."

GIRL DECLARES THAT SHE WAS ATTACKED

Bertha Wittulski Tells Police That Companions Induced Her to Take Auto Ride With Three Young Boys.

With the arrest of three boys, ages 16, 18 and 19 years, respectively, juvenile authorities think they have uncovered facts of a serious case of aiding and abetting delinquencies in three girls under 16 years of age.

The arrest of the boys by Detectives Rich and Pisanowski yesterday afternoon followed the recital of an attack upon 15-year-old Bertha Wittulski, 3201 Burt street, who pitifully told the story of meeting the boys and two girl friends Saturday night and going automobile joyriding with them.

Helen and Frances Netzell, ages 15 and 16, respectively, 3002 Sprague street, who were in the party, told detectives yesterday that they were automobile riding with Bertha and the three boys, who had rented a car for the night, and that when the boys became "fresh" with them, they begged to be taken home.

The boys took them as far as Twenty-fourth and Leavenworth streets, they said, where they got out of the car and coaxed the girls to come with them. They said that she remain in the car with the boys, who then drove away.

The boys' names are Thomas Fox, 16, Stanley Fox, 12, and Leo Fay, 18. All three gave their addresses as 917 1/2 South Thirteenth street.

Bertha Wittulski, who was arrested at Twenty-fourth and Leavenworth by Officer Janda when he saw her at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, is being held in the matron's ward pending the action of juvenile authorities.

The girl is the oldest of a family of six children for whom she cares while the mother and father are working during this day. She said:

"These girls came to the house in an automobile with the boys, whom I never met before, and asked me to go riding with them. When I said I would go, one of the girls showed me a loaded revolver and told me not to worry about getting home.

"The boys drove us around awhile, and then took us to Elmwood park, where they stopped the car and got fresh with us.

Helen pointed the gun at the boys and told them to get out of the car. Helen and Frances got out of the car and started home while the boys held me. Then they attacked me.

Begged to Be Left Alone

"I begged them to leave me alone and to take me home. After a long while, they took me to Twenty-fourth and Leavenworth streets, where they put me out of the car and told me to walk home. I was arrested there."

Helen and Frances Netzell deny having had a revolver with them and told detectives that they coaxed Bertha to get out of the car when the boys attempted to attack them.

All three boys denied that they attempted to assault the girls, but said that one of the girls had a revolver with her. They said they brought the girls to Twenty-fourth and Leavenworth streets, where they got out of the car and started home.

Police are holding them for the juvenile authorities.

Queen Liliuokalani Buried With Medieval Pomp

Honolulu, Nov. 18.—With all the pomp and ceremony of the ancient Hawaiian funeral ritual, befitting the departure of the last monarch of the islands who had held tenaciously to the traditions of her former domain, Queen Liliuokalani was buried today in the Nuuanu cemetery. The entire population of the city lined the route from the throne room, where the funeral services were held to the burial ground, while the procession contained 5,000 persons passed.

The magnificent catalogue was drawn by 210 native Hawaiians surrounded by 60 Kahili bearers attired in the primitive feather cloaks of the time of King Kamehameha, Prince and Princess Kalaniano'ole were the chief mourners.

The body of the monarch was enclosed in a rich 'koa casket, upon which lay a wreath sent by President Wilson.
