FIELD MARSHAL HAIG SHOWS TRUE STRATEGY

DESERTED ATTEMPTS OF TEUTONS TO STOP RUSH OF BRITISH END IN FAILURE

Surprised Germans Leave Equipment and Personal Belongings Behind as Haig's Tanks Bear Down Upon Them; Bloody Hand-to-Hand Engagement at Fleuryqueres.

American Officer Thrills Army By Daring Rescue of Private

With the American Army taking over the big role in the present war, it has been said that Frank T. Hall of the 113th Engineers, who was detailed to this country to serve with the 113th Engineers, was the son of a famous surgeon in New York City and that he had been educated at Harvard University. In private life, he is reported to be a member of the New York Stock Exchange and a successful businessman.

In action, he is reported to be a man of great courage and determination, who never desert his post or his men. He is said to have been the first man to rush forward through fire and smoke to save a stricken comrade, and to have been the first to charge against the enemy with his bayonet.

The American Officer's, however, has been described as a man of great precaution, who never冒险 without first ascertaining the safety of his position. He is said to be a man of great resource, who has never been known to lose a battle.

The American Officer's Conduct During the Charge

The American Officer's conduct during the charge has been described as brave and gallant. He is said to have led his men forward without fear of danger, and to have been the first to rush through the smoke and fire to save a stricken comrade.

The American Officer's Death

The American Officer's death is said to have been a result of his gallant conduct during the charge. He is said to have been hit by a bullet while leading his men forward.

The American Officer's Death Has Been Mourned By All

The American Officer's death has been mourned by all who knew him. He is said to have been a man of great character and of great promise.

GERMANY THROWS NEW BARRED ZONE AROUND AZORES

An ordinance that the islands should be made into a new barbed zone has been announced. The islands, which have been made into a new barbed zone, are now under the control of the United States Navy.

The islands have been made into a new barbed zone in order to prevent the entry of any foreign vessels.

The islands have been made into a new barbed zone in order to prevent the entry of any foreign vessels.