jecting a few sage words of advice Coach Mills gave his Blue and White warriors a final stiff gruelling before the big game with the Colorado Miners on Thanksgiving. Light signal practice will be the order for tonight.

Coach Horr commented favorably on the work of the Omaha team, say 1872 to Association Which ing that its line work was excellent, and that the backfield ought to show up brilliantly on Turkey day. "The combined efforts of the two will certainly bring home the bacon," he said. Captain Morgan and his cohorts are in the pink of condition. Eddie Mullholland's stiff knee has slowed the speedy left half up a little bit, but he is nursing it carefully and expects to have no trouble with it on Thursday.

The whole team is on its toes and eagerly awaiting the final game of the season. Blue and White sup-porters are predicting a victory for the local eleven, although it is well known that Coach Parson's Miners fight bitterly until the last dog is drawn, hung and quartered. Two Military Bands to Play at Big Grid Game

Two 40-piece military bands will provide harmony for the Omaha foot ball fans who attend the Camp Funston-Camp Dodge foot ball game at Creighton field Saturday after-

These bands will be two of th best bands in the entire United States army. They are divisional bands; that is, the players for these bands have been selected from the 20 or so regimental bands composing

The Camp Dodge divisional band is being brought to Omaha by the Camp Dodger, the camp newspaper at the Iowa cantonment. The Dodger raised all the funds to bring the band to the game.

The Funston team starts for Omaha Friday. One squad comes from Joplin, where it meets the Camp Doniphan team today. The other comes from Funston, where it plays Illinois university today. The two will be combined for the big game with Dodge. It will be the first time the entire Funston squad has ined for one game.

The Dodge team leaves Des Moines Friday night, arrives in Council Bluffs Saturday morning and journeys to Omaha by auto during the forenoon.

NATIONAL RIFLE CLUB IS GROWING

1872 to Association Which Covers Entire Country in 1917.

Back in 1872 the National Rifle association of America was founded by group of public-spirited men who had the best interests of their country and their fellow citizens at heart. The object of the association—to quote from the by-laws-is "to encourage marksmanship throughout the United States * * to encourage competition in marksma: ship between teams and individuals; to encourage legislation for the establishment and maintenance of ranges."

If you are a devotee of the sport of Creighton is out to avenge the two rifle shooting you can see therefore defeats suffered at the hands of North that the object of the National Rifle and South Dakota, two inferior teams, association is directly in line with the both of which had the "breaks" with best interests of the sport.

Hindu Witness Balks in Conspiracy Case; Set Free

San Francisco, Nov. 28.-Expressed design of Shiv Dyal Kapur to "die with his countrymen," Hindus, among 34 defendants on trial in the United States district court on a charge of conspiring to foment revolution against British rule in India, was thwarted today by United States District Attorney John W. Preston, after Shiv Dyal had refused to testify for the government unless he was granted assurance of his final freedom.

Instead of arraigning Shiv Qyal, named in the indictments, but not placed on trial, Preston moved that the charge against him be dismissed. Judge W. C. Van Fleet agreed to this and then ordered Shiv Dyal to testify. Shiv 'Dyal's refusal to give testimony came in the same manner as the refusal of Jodh Singh yesterday. Before he took the oath, he asked this question of the court: 'Can I go free after testifying, or shall I have to go back whence I
