

MUCH EVIDENCE AGAINST THOSE HOARDING FOOD

Attorney for Nebraska Administrator Will Decide What Action is to Be Taken Against Violators.

Ed P. Smith, attorney for the Nebraska food administration, is going over the evidence against a number of retail grocers in the state who have been selling sugar and other staple commodities in quantities greater than permitted by the federal food administration under the anti-hoarding provision.

Some of the violations are said to be flagrant. One retailer in a town in the state is distributing hand bills over the town asking people to come in and get his prices on 100-pound lots of sugar, and is selling sugar in 100-pound sacks, though the government's regulation is that anyone having more than a 60-day supply of sugar or any other staple on hand is guilty of hoarding, the seller equally liable with the buyer.

In another part of the state a firm which has never done a grocery business and whose business is entirely foreign to the handling of sugar, has in some unaccountable manner obtained a large quantity of sugar, and is selling it out in 100-pound sacks. This case is also under investigation.

Reports Are Numerous. The reports coming to the office of Food Administrator Wattles of violations of the rules are numerous, but have all been referred to Attorney Smith, who is preparing to give an opinion as to what action should be taken immediately against alleged guilty persons and concerns.

On account of the fact that the sugar situation has eased up somewhat, the food administration is now sanctioning sales of sugar up to 25 pounds to a single purchaser. Up to a week or two ago the dealers were urged not to sell more than $1 worth to any person at a time.

Bakers Soon Will Have To Standardize Loaf

Omaha may expect to get bread for 6 or 7 cents a pound after a while, if the bakers here do as well as they have done in some cities throughout the country. Information contained in a government chart on wheat, flour and bread prices of the country shows that, although millers of Minneapolis are now getting $10.50 a barrel for flour, bakers in some sections who are selling for cash, and make no deliveries, are able to put out a full pound loaf for from 6 to 7 cents.

These are the bakers who have standardized their loaf.

On December 10 all bakers throughout the country are required to standardize their loaf, as this is one of the requirements under the baker's license. Under this requirement bakers must after that date make loaves of 16 ounces, 24 ounces, or multiples thereof.

Indian Dancer Thrills Guests at Jacobs' Hall

One hundred Fort Omaha soldiers danced at Jacobs' hall Thanksgiving night. It was the second dance of the series that the women of Trinity Cathedral parish have arranged for the soldiers.

At these dances the young women of the parish attend, making the functions most successful and enjoyable. Dean and Mrs. Tancock chaperone the young women, mothers of the girls assisting in the entertaining. The music is furnished by a high class orchestra and during intermission lunch is served.

At the Thanksgiving night dance one of the most graceful soldiers on the floor was a full-blooded Indian from Arizona.

Community Singing at The Strand Saturday

Community singing, led by Mrs. Samuel Foote, has been introduced into the children's movie matinees at the Strand theater Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The children sing patriotic songs. Marguerite Clark in "Bab's Burglar" will be the showing tomorrow. The Muse will feature "Jack, the Giant Killer."

The regular Friday night family program will be given at the Apollo, Lothrop, Hamilton and Suburban theaters tonight.

Mrs. Foote also led the singing at the free movie entertainments given by the Muse management this morning to inmates of all the charitable institutions of the city.

Five Wives File Petitions For Divorce in Court

Five completely dissatisfied wives have filed petitions for divorce from husbands who have failed to make good on the job.

Bertha Rooney says Miles deserted her.

Anna Loversa Porter alleges William never made good as a provider.

Lillian V. McKenna says Frank abused her.

Bertha C. Schmidt, suing Roscoe, alleges cruelty.

Minda Pickereel says James has failed to support her in the manner to which she has been accustomed.

Nebraska Boys to be Regaled By Home Folks in Far West

Nebraskans living in San Francisco will entertain Nebraska boys in the army and navy stationed in and near San Francisco Saturday of this week. They could not make arrangements to entertain them Thanksgiving day, so they have arranged for a big dinner and celebration at the Biltmore hotel Saturday. Katherine Hughes has telegraphed the information to the Commercial club of Omaha.

Negro Lawyer Admitted To Practice in Federal Court

Amos Potter Scruggs has received a certificate admitting him to practice in the federal court. He was graduated from the law school of the University of Illinois in 1917 and was admitted to the Nebraska supreme court July 1, 1914. He is said to have been the first negro graduated from the law department of the University of Illinois.
