Many Young Friends at the Funeral of Irving Medlar

At the funeral held for Irving Medlar yesterday afternoon, the home was crowded by the friends of the family and the friends of the young man. The funeral was military to an extent, in charge of the high school cadets, of which the young man was a member. Services were conducted by Rev. E. H. Jenks. The pallbearers were members of the T. K. quartet. There were many beautiful floral offerings.

Lobeck Introduces Bill For Relief of Mrs. McGovern

Washington, Dec. 6.—(Special Telegram)—Representative Lobeck today introduced a bill carrying $10,000 for the relief of Mrs. Thomas McGovern, and asking that the matter be referred to the court of claims for investigation. Thomas McGovern, ex-city commissioner of Omaha, was killed by a government truck early in November of this year.

PROD POLES TAKING PLACE OF BAYONETS

Soldiers of Fort Crook Adopt New Kind of Weapon for Use in the Daily Practice Drills.

In their drill practice the soldiers of the Forty-first regiment, stationed at Fort Crook, are using prod poles as substitutes for guns and bayonets. When Colonel Settle was guest of the stock yards men two weeks ago, he noticed the workers in the stock yards using long prod poles in handling the stock and he was impressed with the efficacy of the weapon.

"I believe those prod poles would make excellent substitutes for guns and bayonets," commented Colonel Settle.

Everett E. Buckingham, general manager of the Union Stock Yards company, sent 100 prod poles to the fort, and the soldier boys are using them in their bayonet drill. They answer the purpose admirably and have many advantages over the gun and bayonet.

August Behmke, Long in Employ of Cudahy's, Is Dead

August Behmke, aged 55 years and for 28 years employed by the Cudahy Packing company, died yesterday at his residence, 3632 South Twenty-fifth street, after an illness of two months. For a long time prior to his death he had been superintendent of the sausage department of the packing company. The funeral will be from the home to St. Joseph's Catholic church, at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, with burial in Holy Sepulcher cemetery. Mr. Behmke is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Frank Grace and Mrs. Thomas Moore, both of South Side.

Dr. Fischer, president of the Bohemian national committee, and Votja Benes, organizer of the committee, will be here to talk on "World Democracy." They will show war pictures.

An effort will be made to enlist young Bohemians in the legion of Bohemia, fighting in France.

Marked for Slaughter if He Returns to Mexico

Sam Olga, 2420 P street, cannot go to his home in Mexico because Carranza has put a price on his head, dead or alive.

The young Mexican's father, Anselmo Olga, owns two large ranches in Zacatecas, near Jalapa City, Mexico. Carranza's soldiers, under General Lopez, made three raids upon the Olga ranch. They took away the mules and cattle, the corn and wheat and all the money and left the family destitute.

Conception Olga, a young girl cousin of Sam Olga, was carried away by the soldiers in one of their raids. They kept her there for two months and then she escaped and found her way back home. Sam's eyes filled with tears when he told of the return of the broken-hearted girl.

New Gotham Officials Watch Morals of City

New York, Dec. 6.—After January 1, when the city administration comes into power, all places that tend to debauch the morals of the community will be gone after, "hammer and tongs," District Attorney Edward Swann declared in a statement issued tonight. Mayor-elect John F. Hylan endorsed the plan, said Mr. Swann.

Sensational entertainments and dancing acts at theaters, cabarets, hotels and restaurants will be closely scrutinized and suppressed if they exceed the bounds of decency, he declared.

Charles Marx, 4914 South Twenty-fourth street, was arrested Wednesday by Detective Lepinski and Officer Risk and charged with illegal possession of liquor. The officers said they found a bottle of whisky on a shelf. Marx said that he did not know the whisky was there.
