A Deed to A Home----What More Appropriate Gift Could You Make to Your Wife, Daughter or Mother?

THAT the NORTH SIDE of Omaha is rapidly becoming its fine residence section;

THAT more new homes are built out there every year than the south and west side combined; THAT the prettiest spot in Omaha is the Miller Park district, with its perfect contour, its rever view and its fine paved streets;

THAT MINNE LUSA is the finest place for you to make your future home, where ground value is STILL LOW, where you can quickly and easisell your home if your plans should be changed; THAT we are building 25 MORE of those beautiful homes, new designs, every modern convenience, shingle, siding and stucco exteriors, on fine large lots, with every street improvement already in, with ORNAMENTAL STREET LIGHTS that greatly add to its charm; THAT we sell those homes on EASY TERMS.

Bible Class of the North Presbyterian to Present Service Flag to the Church.

At the Sunday morning services at the North Presbyterian church the adult Bible class will present a service flag, on which will be as many stars as there are young men of the church now in the army. The flag will carry 34 stars.

The presentation speech in turning the service flag over to the church will be by D. W. Merrow, teacher of the Bible class. The response is to be by Rev. J. M. Wilson, who will occupy the pulpit of the church for the first time Sunday morning as the regular pastor. Following the presentation and the speech of acceptance, there will be prayers for the young men who have been called to the colors, these to be followed by the singing of patriotic songs.

Rev. J. M. Wilson, recently elected pastor of the North Presbyterian church, has arrived in the city and Sunday morning and evening will occupy the pulpit. Plans are being arranged for a reception to be held for the new pastor and his wife, but the date has not been determined.
