

ALLENBY'S TROOPS WILL PARADE IN STREETS OF CAPTURED STRONGHOLD

First Time in Seven Centuries Christian Flag Floats Over the City of David; Commander Takes Steps to Preserve Sacred Shrines and Private Property.

(By Associated Press.)
London, Dec. 11.—Official entry into Jerusalem, the holy city of the Christians, is planned for today. Allied troops entered the capital of Palestine after it was surrounded and the Turks were forced to surrender. Capture of the city was delayed through the fear that fighting operation might result in the damaging of religious shrines.

No attempt will be made to define the future position of Jerusalem until a general peace comes, the Times says it understands. In the meantime the city will be treated as in British military occupation and will be under martial law. General Allenby will appoint a military governor. While the British flag will fly over the city, the French and Italian flags will be placed over their national property, such as convents and schools.

A solemn thanksgiving and de dem was held in St. Paul's cathedral today in celebration of the surrender.

Field for Research.
The historical significance of this event cannot be overestimated. Archaeologists who formerly have been hindered, if not forcibly, in their tireless work of excavation, will now have unrestricted access to a fertile field of inestimable interest to the student of Bible life and times.

Thousands of Crusaders, believing themselves called to a holy war, shed their blood before Acre and other points near the holy city, only to be repelled by the sabre of the ferocious Turk.

The Zionists, who are at present making extensive plans for the return of the Jews to their ancient home, are especially jubilant over the restoration of the capital to civilized peoples. It is believed that much contention regarding the authenticity of certain portions of both old and new testaments will now be silenced. Adherents of both Jewish and Christian faiths say that historical sources will be brought to light, establishing many facts of Bible times now surrounded by a cloud of superstition and unbelief.

Children's Crusade.
At one time an army of children marched toward Jerusalem, believing that the Moslem would sheath his bloody sword at the sight of the young and innocent marching upon the city. Hundreds of babes died on the way, and the expedition had to be abandoned.

Richard the Lion-Hearted, famed in romance and song, led several expeditions against the former Jewish stronghold, and was taken prisoner and barely escaped with his life on more than one occasion.

Reporter Arrested While on Trail of A Balloon Story

The reporter sat huddled down in his chair in the office wondering whether he would be escorted from the post at the point of a bayonet or shot at/attentively while the reporter pleaded his case. He gently explained to the scribe that it was absolutely necessary for the well being of the United States in general that the greatest precautions be taken to prevent spies from obtaining photographs of any part of a fort or post; or to let every Tom, Dick and Harry have free access to the grounds for fear that a spy could slip in and in a few seconds do irreparable injury. Finally the reporter was released and the rapidity with which he "beat it" to the gate and liberty would have made a jack-rabbit look as if it was tied to a post.

The reporter as soon as he got outside the gate of the army post telephoned his office to explain where he had been half the day. Just as he left the telephone booth he bumped into a newsboy yelling "Wuxtry Bee!" He bought a paper—and there was the story of the balloon explosion in his bold type on the front page. "Good thing I got outside the gate before the colonel had a chance to see a Bee," mused the scribe.

There are proper methods of procedure to go through to gain admittance to the post and after one knows how it is no trouble at all, but bear in mind that any individual cannot stalk around and walk roughshod over the prescribed rules and regulations. The slogan, "Safety first," is quite applicable to forts and posts.

Cossack Revolt Grows; Menaces Bolsheviki Rule
The members of this body are men liable to have changing views. Refuse to Obey Bolsheviki.

Peking, Dec. 11.—The council of soldiers and workmen's deputies at Harbin, Manchuria, on the trans-Siberian railway line, have received telegrams from Nikola Lenine, the Bolsheviki premier in Petrograd, ordering the council to assume control of the town, the railway and the Russian customs on the Manchurian frontiers.

The Chinese astern railway employees union has protested against this action as bringing in foreign interference. The railway men express their determination to support Lieutenant General Horvath, the Russian military commander at Harbin, saying that it is impossible for either the foreign authorities or the local social organizations to recognize the Bolsheviki rule.

Fighting in Moscow.
London, Dec. 11.—Street fighting has occurred in Moscow, and the Swedish consul there has advised all Swedes to leave the city, according to advices received in Haparanda and forwarded by the Stockholm correspondent of the Morning Post. It is added that starvation seems to threaten Moscow. Most of the Swedes there are said to have taken the consul's advice.

The situation in Moscow is reported to be grave, according to a Times dispatch from Petrograd. The Bolsheviki, according to Petrograd newspapers, have placed machine guns in the streets, as they fear an uprising of hostile parties. The garrison, however, shows signs of insubordination and is reported to be disobeying the Bolsheviki commander, a private soldier named Muranoff. Considerable forces, the dispatch adds, are being detached from the west front to be sent against the Cossacks.

London, Dec. 11.—The Cossacks are preparing to fight, the Petrograd correspondent of the Daily Mail reports. Three trainloads of Cossacks are said to be at Bielorod and three at Sumsy, commanded by General Korniloff. Extremist red guards to the number of about 7,000 are expected at Kharko from Moscow.

Bolsheviki Troops Defeated.
Petrograd, Sunday, Dec. 9.—A "battalion of death," which left Staffka, is reported to have defeated the Bolsheviki troops near the town of Shlobin, in Mohilev.

YOUTHS BESIEGE ARMY BUILDING TO FIGHT FOR U.S.

Throngs of Applicants for Enlistment Crowd Corridors and Wait for Chance to Sign Up.

Were it possible for the superficial "all highest" of the Germans to make a tour of inspection of the Army building in Omaha and see hundreds of stern-faced, sharp-eyed youths anxious to enlist in the American army he would rush to the nearest long distance phone and advise the other members of central powers autocracy to send up the white flag and pray for an everlasting peace.

Sub-zero weather has no terrors for the soldiers-to-be. In great throngs applicants besiege the recruiting officers, almost begging for an opportunity to enlist. A number of tables have been placed in the corridor and volunteers have been selected from the enlisted men to assist in taking to gain access to the chief recruiting officer without the aid of a 42-centimeter gun, as a solid formation of humanity is arrayed in front of the doorway.

Many Upstate Youths.
The long and anxiously awaiting list of applicants has been supplemented by great numbers of upstate youths—young men fresh from the cornfields—bright-eyed, well-muscled youths who crave just one chance to go "over there."

Admiral's Construction Report Remarkable for Brevity

Washington, Dec. 11.—One single printed page constitutes the annual report, made public today, of Rear Admiral David W. Taylor, chief of the bureau of construction and repair, although that officer is carrying out the largest naval building program ever entered upon by any nation.

More than 800 vessels are under construction, from deadnoughts and battle cruisers of a size never before contemplated, to submarine chasers designed, built and sent abroad immediately after the declaration of war. In some cases a year has been saved in the construction of destroyers.

Vessels not expected for delivery until late in 1918 are today in actual service in European waters. Billions of dollars are involved in the contracts; yet, the report says, only that building facilities are being used and exceptional measures to accelerate construction of certain types have been taken.

"These measures are producing results," Admiral Taylor concludes, summarizing his gigantic task in what is probably the briefest report ever made by a government bureaucrat.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Advertisement.

STILL CONSIDERING OMAHA FOR HOSPITAL

Water Facilities at Fort Crook Questioned, But Objection Disposed of in Letter From Commissioner Manley.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 10.—Special Telegram.—Omaha is still the subject of serious consideration by the surgeon general's office for the location of one of the reconstruction hospitals soon to be needed when wounded and "invalided" boys return from France. Last week one of the objections raised against Fort Crook as the site for such a hospital was inadequate water supply and further that it might not be large enough comfortably to house a large number of wounded. Happily a letter was received from Commissioner Manley of the Omaha Commercial club which gives all the information desired by the surgeon general's office to the points above mentioned. This letter was sent the surgeon general by Congressman Lobeck as soon as received.

Mr. Manley states that the Omaha water board has agreed to extend the water main from South Omaha to Fort Crook without expense to the government. The letter further says: "Colonel Settle, commanding officer of the Forty-first infantry, now occupying Fort Crook, desires to requisition the government for water and is now preparing his information so that he may send it in with his requisition." As to the possible enlargement of Fort Crook, Mr. Manley writes: "Photographs of the different angles of the 60-acre tract adjoining the County hospital have been made and forwarded. At Dr. Cutter's suggestion we have also assembled and secured low lease price on the 20 acres adjoining

Telegraphers' Strike Averted by Mediation

Washington, Dec. 11.—Difficulties which threatened a strike of 2,300 telegraphers employed by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and a tie-up of traffic on one of the country's most important mainlines and coal-carrying roads were settled today by the federal board of mediation and conciliation under the direction of Commissioner G. W. Hanger.

A basic eight-hour day and increased pay for overtime work were the most important concessions gained by the men. Questions of pay for all Sunday work and a general 20 per cent increase in wages will be arbitrated by a board to be chosen by the two sides.

Today's settlement is regarded by the Order of Railway Telegraphers as confirming the principle of an eight-hour day for operators, which has been established through demands made on western roads.
