Socialists Denounce Bolshevik Armistice

Petrograd, Dec. 11.—Fears that the Bolsheviks will dissolve the constituent assembly, if they are opposed therein by a majority are expressed in manifestos issued by various non-Bolshevik socialist bodies. The central committee of most of the socialist organizations and the executive committee of the peasants' deputies have issued an address to the public wherein they say:

"Only the immediate conclusion of peace can save Russia from political and economic ruin and civil war and preserve the acquisition of the revolution, but it must be a stable peace, guaranteeing the economic and political independence of Russia and the interests of the revolution. It must not be a separate peace, but a general one. Nevertheless the Bolshevik government began negotiations for a separate armistice without awaiting the decision of the constituent assembly, without the approval of the people, without any control on the part of the people, without consulting other parties, without awaiting the replies of our allies. The representatives conducted these negotiations in accordance with secret instructions.

"We therefore declare that the separate armistice concluded by the Bolsheviks is only the affair of a party of usurpers, the responsibility for which rests exclusively upon them. The armistice does not bind Russia nor any part of it, pending the decision of the constituent assembly. The separate armistice of the Bolsheviks will not result in a general peace. We are firmly convinced that the constituent assembly, truly expressing the will of the people, will obtain a peace guaranteeing the interests of Russia and international democracy."

Soldier Says Wife "Trifled On Him," Seeks His Freedom

Private Ernest L. Harrig of Company M, 134th United States infantry, finding that his wife, Zora, has been unfaithful to him, so he alleges, since he was ordered to Camp Cody, sued for divorce.

They were married in Hall county, Nebraska, in September 1917. He brought her to his home in Omaha where his father, H. A. Harrig was willing to take care of her in his absence.

Harrig says he was ordered to Camp Cody at Deming, N. M., shortly afterwards and left his wife in his father's care at home. He alleges as soon as he was gone in the service of his country his wife began to "trifle on him." He says she has been attending public dances.

Cuba Awaits Official Notice From U. S. to War on Austria

Havana, Dec. 11.—Apparently all that prevented the introduction of a war resolution against Austria-Hungary in the Cuban congress this evening was the lack of official notification from the United States that that country was at war with the dual monarchy. It is believed that within 48 hours of the receipt of such notification, Cuba will be at war with Austria-Hungary.

When the House convened late today, it was fully expected that a message from President Menocal recommending a break with Germany's principal ally would be read. The galleries were packed in anticipation of such an event. That the president had prepared a war message is an open secret.

Dr. Medders Files Answer To Suit Brought by Dr. Mick

Dr. David A. Medders, sued for $10,000 by Dr. W. H. Mick who alleged the former stole his X-ray practice when he entered the army, has filed an answer in which he recites that he found the expense of maintaining Dr. Mick's laboratory to be larger than the income justified. He states that the income was represented to him as approximating $10,000 annually when he took over the laboratory in September, 1917. He further says he received notice from Dr. Mick to vacate the latter's offices on October 22, 1917, and that he did so, moving to the offices formerly occupied by Dr. H. M. Fitzgibbon.

Make Your Own Cough Syrup and Save Money

Better than the ready-made kind. Easily prepared at home.

The finest cough syrup that money can buy, costing only about one-fifth as much as ready-made preparations, can easily be made up at home. The way it takes hold and conquers distressing coughs, throat and chest colds will really make you enthusiastic about it.

Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex, (50 cents worth). Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Shake thoroughly and it is ready for use. The total cost is about 65 cents and gives you a full pint—a family supply—of a most effective, pleasant tasting remedy. It keeps perfectly.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the inflamed or swollen throat membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and drowled cough will disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, whooping cough or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is known the world over for its prompt healing effect on the throat membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Our photographs cost no more than the other kind. They are better, too.
