Society Women Speak at Movies.

No longer can we watch Theda Bara vamp her way through a couple of hundred feet of film undisturbed. We have heard men talk for the Liberty bond, for the Young Men's Christian association and Young Woman's Christian association and we were interested and glad to listen when we attended a movie, but now something entirely new and different will be presented to us. Just between ourselves, I am waiting with great interest the appearance of the "two-minute women" on the movie platforms. These "two-minute" speakers will urge us to carry our Christmas packages home. I understand Thirty young girls and matrons have volunteered to appear at the different theaters and moving picture houses and impress on the Omaha public in the short space of two minutes how they can help Uncle Sam by carrying their own packages home.

The war has brought many changes and not among the least of them is the cure it has affected for stage-fright. Many women have become accomplished speakers since the war began who probably had never been called on before to perform such a task. Mrs. O. C. Redick, Mrs. Charles T. Kountze and Mrs. Luther Kountze have become finished public speakers since assuming their duties in the Omaha chapter of the Red Cross. Mrs. Clement Chase has even been out on a speaking tour through the state. Poise and executive ability in conducting a meeting have been acquired.

The younger girls will now have a

IT'S MONEY IN YOUR POCKET

You can help Uncle Sam conserve the wool supply and make money for yourself by having your faded and out of style garments dyed.

We will dye your suit, dress or jacket without ripping apart; but if you intend remodeling or making them over you should do such ripping as is necessary and send the ripped goods to us for dyeing.

We prefer to have them ripped, but can do them either way.

We will gladly advise you, without charge, on any work you have in mind.
