SOUTH SIDE SOUTH SIDE SENDS 22 POLISH RECRUITS

Young Men Will Leave This Afternoon for Buffalo on Way to France; Dinner at Exchange Building.

Twenty-two recruits enlisted yesterday in the Polish army for service in France. They will leave Omaha this afternoon for Buffalo, N. Y., where they will mobilize previous to embarking for France.

They will fight in France under the direction of the French and United States governments, but under the Polish flag for the independence of Poland.

A farewell dinner will be tendered them Thursday at 2 p. m., in the spacious hall of the Exchange building, South Side.

Patriotic speeches and entertainment will be in evidence.

Boys and Girls Plan For Vacation Work

Many South Side high school students will work in the stores and business, and packing houses during the two weeks' Christmas vacation, which begins December 18. Most of the boys and many of the girls have procured situations where they can help out with the Christmas rush. They are willing to do their bit in relieving the labor shortage and this spirit of helpfulness is fostered by E. Huwaldt, principal of the South Side school.

More than half of the boys in the South Side high school work after school and Saturdays.
