We are pleased to recommend this company and its officers as responsible and desirable business men.
Very truly,

Cattle—There was a fair supply of cattle on hand for a Friday, around 2,200 head being reported in. Packers were out early today, but they all have more cattle on hand than they can kill this week, and the trade did not show any life, being slow and weak at the present decline. Cornfeds are off 75c@$1.00 since last week's close. Best of the short feds are not bringing over $12.00, and a spread of $10.50@11.50 is catching the bulk of the decent to good ones, while half fat tight stuff is selling on down as low as $8.00. Western beeves broke rather sharply yesterday, and are 25@50c lower for the week. A similar decline has been enforced on everything in the cow and heifer line except canners, which are in good demand, and not much if any lower than a week ago. Stockers and feeders have been lifeless all week, the market not amounting to enough to make comparisons. Sellers are quoting nominal declines of 25@50c.

Quotations on cattle: Prime heavy beeves, $13.50@15.00; good to choice beeves, $12.50@13.50; fair to good beeves, $10.50@12.50; common to fair beeves, $7.00@10.50; good to choice yearlings, $14.00@15.00; fair to good yearlings, $12.00@13.50; common to fair yearlings, $6.50@11.00; prime heavy grass beeves, $11.25@12.00; good to choice grass beeves, $10.00@11.25; fair to good grass beeves, $8.75@10.00; common to fair grass beeves, $6.50@8.50; good to choice heifers, $8.00@10.50; good to choice cows, $8.00@9.50; fair to good cows, $6.25@7.75; common to fair cows, $5.25@6.25; good to choice feeders, $9.50@11.00; fair to good feeders, $8.00@9.50; common to fair feeders, $6.00@7.00; good to choice stockers, $8.75@10.00; stock heifers, $6.50@8.25; stock cows, $6.00@7.25; stock calves, $6.00@10.00; veal calves, $9.00@12.50; bulls, stags, etc., $5.50@8.00.

Hogs—Receipts of hogs today were liberal for a Friday, although the lightest for the week to date. Trade was fairly active. Shippers took only a limited number of hogs, packers getting the majority of theirs mostly 25c lower. With all outside points quoting lower prices sellers were satisfied to let go their hogs and a fairly good clearance was made around 11 o'clock. Choice hogs went at $16.80, with the bulk from $16.65 to $16.70.

Sheep—A light run of sheep and lambs was here today, the bulk of the arrivals being made up of killer offerings. Early trade was active at another cut in prices generally. Fat lambs sold 25c lower, all around. No real choice light lambs were here best medium grades going at $16.00. Heavy lambs around 90 pounds and better brought $15.50. Fat ewes suffered another decline, best early offerings bringing $10.85. Nothing real choice was here. Feeders were very scarce, and not enough was done to make a market. They were nominally steady.

Dun's Review of Trade.

New York, Dec. 14.—Dun's tomorrow will say:

Only in the retail field have storms and low temperatures been helpful to business and it is of less general importance that demands for seasonable commodities have been accelerated and augmented than that transportation problems have been aggravated and manufacturing still further impeded. Through the vigorous and unusual measures taken to better conditions, partial relief from the freight congestion was indicated before real winter weather set in over a wide area, but since then the situation has become even more troublesome and not a few plants have been forced to shut down altogether or to appreciably reduce operations because of the added difficulties of obtaining fuel.

The stoppage or curtailment of work is especially unfortunate at a time when the pressure for supplies of various materials and merchandise for the government and other interests is so great and in branches where regular buying has diminished the change is not unwelcome, with producers hampered as they are. That strictly civilian trade, while not so conspicuously active as previously, remains large in the aggregate reports make clear and Christmas shopping has started in a way forecasting favorable results on the whole. But holiday purchases in most instances are both more conservative and discriminating than last year and emphasize the movement toward economy which has grown out of the war and which is spreading in about all sections.

Coffee Market.

New York, Dec. 14.—Coffee—The market for coffee futures showed a steadier tone today. Trade selling was less in evidence, suggesting that a cargo of coffee now being loaded in Brazil has been pretty well hedged in the local market and there was some buying here supposed to be for New Orleans account. Fewer steamers are clearing from Brazil for New Orleans at present and the New Orleans market has been relatively firm, which may have accounted for the further southern buying around the local ring. The market opened unchanged to 1 point higher and closed at a net advance of 6 to 10 points, with March selling at 7.20c and September at 7.70c. Closing bids: December, 7.05c; January, 7.11c; March, 7.26c; May, 7.41c; July, 7.57c; September, 7.74c; October, 7.81c.

OMAHA CASH GRAIN PRICES TODAY

Early sales made on the Omaha Grain exchange indicated that corn was off 5 to 8 cents and oats, a cent a bushel. The market was slow and bidders did not seem anxious to take over the offerings.

Corn receipts were 68 carloads and the sales up to noon were around $1.40 a bushel.

Early sales of oats were at 74½ cents, with an apparent lack of bidders. Receipts were 26 carloads.

Wheat receipts were six carloads, the lightest in several days.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

Cash Corn Breaks, Selling Off Several Cents; Oats Follow in Decline; Rye and Barley Firm.

Omaha, December 14, 1917.

Today's receipts of grain amounted to 193 cars, with six wheat, 68 corn, 26 oats, two rye and one car of barley.

Cash corn broke off sharply, selling down several cents, late sales being made at a 7c to 10c decline. Arrivals showed a fair increase over those of yesterday, 68 cars showing up. Trade in this article was practically at a standstill during the forenoon session, no transactions being reported. Buyers and sellers were unable to agree, opinions differing 2c to 4c, and for this reason trade was unusually slow and the amount of business done very light. The local demand, however, was fairly good, especially from elevator interests, but are only taking what they can handle easily, as the present cold weather is a considerable drawback to the railroads in the handling of cars. No. 4 white sold today at $1.43@1.44 and the same grade of yellow brought $1.43. No. 5 white sold at $1.36@1.40 and No. 5 yellow at $1.38@1.40, and the No. 5 grade of mixed at $1.36@1.36½.

Oats followed the decline in corn, this cereal selling off 1c to 1¼c. Trade was very light and the demand slow, with practically no export inquiry in evidence. No. 3 white sold at 74½c.

Rye quotations were firm and the tone of the barley market somewhat stronger, figures advancing around a cent. No sales of rye were made, while the No. 3 grade of barley brought $1.45@1.53, and one car of rejected went at $1.37.

Clearances were: Wheat and flour equal to 192,000 bushels; oats, 380,000 bushels.

Primary wheat receipts were 509,000 bushels and shipments 407,000 bushels, against receipts of 803,000 bushels and shipments of 770,000 bushels last year.

Primary corn receipts were 617,000 bushels and shipments 236,000 bushels, against receipts of 706,000 bushels and shipments of 519,000 bushels last year.

Primary oats receipts were 569,000 bushels and shipments 535,000 bushels, against receipts of 543,000 bushels and shipments of 576,000 bushels last year.
