Keep Soldiers' Feet in Trim

So important to military efficiency is the condition of the soldiers' feet that a division of the new national army has attached to it an automobile shoe repair unit, consisting of a motor car and trailer, carrying a crew of six and all the leather stock and machinery needed to care for the footwear of the division.

Put red peppers in vinegar and bottle—discarded olive bottles are good for the purpose—and use with very dry baked beans.

Engagement Announced

Miss Dorothy Myers

An interesting announcement was made during the last week by Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Myers of the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Pennabaker, to Lieutenant Marlon Brando, son of E. E. Brando of this city, who is stationed at Camp Lewis, American Lakes, Wash.

Miss Myers is the first Ak-Sar-Ben princess of this year's court to become engaged. The future plans of the young couple are indefinite. Lieutenant Brando expects to be ordered abroad very soon and Miss Myers will continue her nursing course until his return.

Lieutenant Brando has had some interesting experiences while on duty at Camp Lewis, American Lakes, Wash. In one of his letters he tells of a reception given in honor of the American officers at Victoria, Canada. Writing of the trip and their entertainment Lieutenant Brando says: "The whole town turned out to meet us, and after many rousing British cheers, we were escorted to the Empress hotel, which may be compared to the Blackstone in Chicago, only the architecture and furnishings are typically English. A hotel like that supported by Victoria, a little town of 50,000, seems impossible. We went to the parliament building to meet the duke and duchess of Devonshire, three mayors and other British-Canadian officials. As our names were called we would front and center down the red carpet, meet, front and center out, while the people of Victoria looked down from the balcony. Great stuff! This letter might be entitled 'My First Brush With Royalty.' "The first thing we noticed when we got off the boat was the entire lack of young men. That little town of Victoria has sent 14,000 men to the front. Everywhere you turned you saw what they call returned men, men who have been wounded severely and are physically unfit for service at the front. They say there is not a family there that has not lost either a father, a brother, etc. That trip really brought the war home to us. The women up there are wonderful, though. Nearly all of them have lost someone, but they take it very bravely, and philosophically."

Christmas Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Huff entertained at the third annual Xmas dinner-dance at their home Saturday evening. Patriotic decorations were used throughout the rooms and on the din-

Reminiscences

There's a little boy, and he lives next door,
And I hear him every night;
Telling his nurse of a big toy store,
And laughing with keen delight,
She answers with stories of Christmas eve
Till the little lad is still,
Dreaming of lands of make-believe,
As children forever will.

And as I listen I close my eyes,
And wander back again
To the days when I was just his size,
And dreaming was not vain.
'Tis bedtime in the long ago,
And on my daddy's knee,
I hear the tales all children know,
And they are new to me.

Of Santa Claus and reindeer, too
Of workshops filled with toys,
And of the things I must not do
To earn my Christmas joys.
And as I hear my daddy speak
Out of the past again,
There comes a dream that I would seek,
Did I not know it vain.

Single-Thread Machine

Here is a time-saving way of threading up a single-thread sewing machine: Break the thread off at the spool, leaving the machine threaded up; tie the thread of the new spool to the end that was broken off and pull toward the needle; break the old thread off, thread the new through the needle, and you are ready to sew.—Good Housekeeping.

CAMERAS! Yes, we have them for every member of the family. Brownies for the children; Kodaks for the young people and father and mother, and Vest Pocket Kodaks for the soldier and sailor boys.

FROM the kindergarten days up, there's wholesome fun for the children, and lasting joy for all the family, in the Kodak and Brownie pictures the children make—and Christmas day, with its home pictures, is an excellent time to start.

Come in and see our stock of Kodaks and Brownies. There's no obligation.

Housekeeping Suggestion

The first of the trimmings for the fall hats are quite simple. Fancy ostrich is used as banding and in small pompons, cockades of plaited gros-grain ribbon find place on tailored hats, while on the velours a novel trimming is narrow velvet ribbon fashioned into flowers.

Drop a cream peppermint in a cup of hot water and you have a sort of after-dinner cordial which isn't open to the objection of expense.
