Fanny Herself

By EDNA FERBER

Author of "Dawn O'Hara," "Poast Beef Medium," "Emma McChesney & Co.," etc.

$1.40

Will be read eagerly by every business man, because it is a true and stimulating picture of modern American business; everyone of Jewish faith, because in its heroine is portrayed the highest type of their own race; every American, because it is the very embodiment of the national motto, "I CAN"; every lover of good fiction, because it is a fine novel and is one of the best full books.

Vanguards of the Plains

By MARGARET HILL McCARTER

Author of "Price of the Prairie," "Winning the Wilderness," "Peace of Solomon Valley," etc.

$1.40

A romance of the Santa Fe Trail. The trail, the romance of empire building, the splendor of the faith and patriotism which carried the flag westward, the thrill of love and youth these are among the features which appeal to the reader of this epic of the Great Trail.

The Golden Triangle

Return of Arsene Lupin

By MAURICE LEBLANC

Author of "Confessions of Arsene Lupin," "Woman of Mystery," etc.

$1.35

In this latest of M. LeBlanc's incomparable detective stories, intrigue, captivately, malignly yield themselves to the author's magpie handling. And when all seems hopelessly tangled and good Captain Belval is at his wits' end, behold Arsene Lupin appearing in the nick of time, to restore order out of chaos.
