The Spirit of Christmas

A Few Thoughts for the Nebraskan—Man or Woman

WHAT IS THE SPIRIT OF THE CHRISTMAS-TIDE? It is the spirit of helpfulness, the expression of unselfish love and of human kindness. It is the spirit that annually softens the hard, cold exterior of humanity and warms the heart, making it pulsate with joy and love. In addition to its deeply religious significance, the Christmas-tide is characterized by the giving of gifts between relatives and friends. The Christmas spirit should prevail this Christmas time, even though America is at war. It does us all good to give, so it pays to enter into the spirit of Christmas. In spite of war and problems incident to war, there is abundant reason for keeping up the beautiful custom of giving this Christmas.

He or she who selects gifts this Christmas is not taking away the man-power of the United States from Government work because the merchandise is already manufactured and on merchants' shelves. He or she who gives practical gifts saves the recipient from making a purchase to fill the need later on.
