HOWARD SOON TO BE COVERNOR OF ALL NEBRASKA

News From Military Headquarters Comes Like Bomb Into Camp of Politicians Who Supposed Fight Over.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Dec. 25.—(Special.)—That this is a cruel old world has been demonstrated more than once in the recent past, but not more so than in the announcement made today that the seventh regiment has been given the right again to assume the name of "Lucky Seventh" and that just as Lieutenant Governor Howard had gotten over his "shuddering" at the thought of being governor, he must suffer a relapse and continue to shake and shake and shake.

Not very long ago when a man began to shake he could call on the justly celebrated medical experts Drs. Thomas and Jeremiah and receive an antidote, but now it is a long time past May 1 and the only thing left moved away, is to resort to hot foot

A New Novel by the Nebraska Writer, Mrs. Anna C. Newbigging

A ROMANCE OF 1862.

An open air story of primitive conditions and stout hearts, and, primarily of a royal battle between love and faith.

The story opens in New York in 1861, though the Civil War has little to do with it, for it follows the fortunes of a train of Mormon convert emigrants crossing the continent to Utah by ox team and on horseback, and flood, fire, pestilence, wild beasts and Indians left scant leisure for politics on a cross-country trip those days.

It is a tale to make the blood race, and he who "loves a lover" or an adventure will find both here, and much to his liking.

Published by Sherman, French & Co., Boston, Mass.; the letter press is high-class, on good paper, and handsomely bound in cloth. Price, $1.50.

Get Your Free Copy of The Navy Art Calendar Today

The Omaha Bee is sending free to its readers a beautiful patriotic Art Calendar.

The illustration on this calendar, the work of a well-known artist, sums up in a striking poster the War Spirit of America.

It shows the figure of Liberty with drawn sword pointing the way to a staunch American sailor, while over them both wave the folds of the Stars and Stripes.

There is no advertising matter on this calendar. It is a work of art, intended to serve as an ornament and a patriotic inspiration through what may well prove to be the most trying year in American history.

The calendar itself is practical and made for service. It is of the form which has a separate leaf for each of the twelve months, and a complete calendar for 1918 on the last leaf.

This is the American calendar for 1918. To get your free copy, write your name and address plainly on the attached coupon and mail with a 2-cent stamp for return postage to The Omaha Bee Information Bureau, Washington, D. C.
