OMAHA EXCEEDS QUOTA IN BOTH U. S. BOND DRIVES

When Called Upon to Help Out the War With Its Cash.

People of Omaha subscribed more Barbers' supplies than $20,000,000 to Liberty bonds on the first and second issue during the Batteries (storage) throughout the country for the sale of the government bonds the government bonds.

As the time for offering these gov-crnment war bonds drew near Omaha business men formed strong committees to work on the taking of subscriptions. R. C. Peters was the active chairman of the Omaha cam-paign in the first issue in the sun-Cereals and health foods paign in the first issue in the summer and O. T. A vast corps of speakers from all parts of Furnishing Goods and ready-tothe state was organized and the men wear comprising it were known as the four-Fruit Tree Spray. minute men, who were available in all parts of the state to make four-minute talks in the theaters and other public places urging the sale of the bonds. The campaign resulted in the sale of nearly $10,000,000 of the bonds in Second Drive.

The second drive was organized in much the same manner, with T. C. Byrne as state chairman, and W. E. Rhoades chairman for Douglas county. E. F. Folda was state secretary and O. T. Eastman again acted as treasurer for Omaha. At a mass meeting held at the Commercial club at the opening of the campaign a total of nearly $8,000,000 was subscribed in

In this campaign Omaha and Douglas county subscribed a total of $10. 351,500, though the quota for Omaha and Douglas county was only $4,986,-000. Thus Omaha and the county subscribed 207 per cent of the quota set for the county.

Orly one county in the state exceeded Douglas in the percentage of oversubscription. This was Hayes county where the quota was $11,400 and where the people subscribed $29,-550, or 260 per cent of the quota.

Thirty counties in the state met . exceeded their quota. Twenty-two counties reached more than 75 per cent of their quota. Twenty-one counties reached between 50 and 75 per cent of their quato @ 19 counties ran under 50 per cent.

At Club Luncheon was just like the mess cabin in an American dreadnaught at the Commercial club dining room at noon. American jackies in blue uniforms were everywhere around the tables. It was navy day at the club. The navy men attached to the recruiting station in Omaha were invited for lunchcon, and all other navy men in the city were invited to be present.

Ensign F. G. Condict, in charge of the naval recruiting station in Omaha, spoke of the importance of the navy and the need of recruits in that branch. He said that men of draft age. $100,000. forbidden now to enlist in the army while the new draft is awaited, still have the privilege of enlisting in the No credentials for admission to the dining room were required other than the uniform of Uncle Sam's sea $100,000,
