Camouflage Sweaters the Latest.

Hear ye! Something new in the knitting line!

Yes, I know you think everything has been made for the soldier or sailor possible from yarn, but have you heard of the new "camouflage" sweaters?

You know how awfully cold the poor jackies' throats look these wintery days in their decollete middie blouses and square-cut sweaters! The poor boy can't wear a string of pearls as the girls do to keep them warm and the mufflers look so "bungly." Here comes in our little camouflage sweater or dicky. The sailors, especially, adore them, for they just fit into that chifty V and they look so trim and neat.

These little sweaters are quite the rage in Pasadena and one philanthropic woman is buying $300 worth of yarn monthly for the city's firemen, who are knitting for the shivering champions of democracy.

I am looking eagerly at every knitter I see these days to determine whether she is making one of these baby sweaters, but as yet I have seen none of them. I hope some of the patriotic knitters of our city will try them, for they say they are a pleasant relief from helmets, socks and the full-grown sweaters.

Hagstrom-Sturk Wedding.

Mrs. Dell Sturk announces the marriage of her daughter, Anita, to Mr. Earl Hagstrom of Omaha, which took place Monday evening at Mrs. Sturk's apartment at the Hamilton. Rev. F. E. Pamp, a cousin of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony. The wedding was a very quiet, informal one, there being no bridal attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagstrom will be at the Fontenelle for a few days, when

Ruth Beecher Engaged

Right Rev. and Mrs. George Allen Beecher of Hastings, Neb., announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth Allen, to Lieutenant Adrian Robert Brian, of the 40th United States infantry, now stationed at Fort Sheridan, Ill. Miss Beecher graduated at Brownell Hall in the class of 1914, and has since pursued her studies in the College of Fine Arts at the Nebraska State university, making a specialty of journalism. At the present time she is acting as her father's secretary.

Mr. Brian is a graduate of the state university, and received his commission at Fort Snelling last August. No date has been fixed for the wedding.

They will leave for Salina, Kan., where they will make their home.

Wedding Announcement.

Announcement is made of the marriage on New Year's day of Miss Mary Hallahan and Mr. Roy A. Walker of Fort Smith, Ark. The marriage took place at St. Peter's church, Rev. Father McCarthy officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Walker left for thence on to Fort Smith.

The bride wore her go-away gown of blue chiffon velvet with hat to match. She was well known as a singer and entertainer.

For Miss English.

Miss Philomena Gorman entertained at luncheon and a wiscellaneous shower at her home in honor of Miss Margaret English, who will be a January bride. Pink roses formed the centerpiece for the table and a corsage bouquet marked the place of the honor guest.

Church Benefit.

A dainty sandwich or a sugary doughnut will make your glass of buttermilk taste a great deal better and if you will patronize the David Cole

"buttermilk bar" today and Saturday these goodies will be on sale. Delicious home made cakes, just the thing to buy and take home for dinner, will also be displayed. The Young Women's auxiliary of the St. Mary's Congregational church has the sale in charge.

About the Luncheon Tables.

Mrs. Jesse L. Hiatt entertained at luncheon at the Blackstone. The guests were members of a bridge club who have been playing together for some time. Covers were laid for 14 at the luncheon table.

Young People's Party.

Mr. Denman Kountze was host at a small dinner party at his home Thursday evening. Following the dinner the young people joined Mr. and Mrs. Ward Burgess in their box at the Boyd.

PERSONALS

Sugar Famine a Blessing

From the standpoint of hygiene and economy changes in diet represent a positive gain, says the Popular Science Monthly. For instance, take sugar—a food which yields more calories per unit of cost than any other food, but which, on the other hand, gives us nothing but energy. It contains no protein and no mineral value, elements which are essential. So the present sugar shortage is a blessing in disguise, for we are obliged to substitute in its place vegetables and fruits, which are real body-building foods. Had we made this simple substitution many years ago we might have been a sturdier race today.

Butcher-Artist-Inventor on a Woman's Job

The masterpiece a. the recent English bazar for the sale of the handiwork of wounded soldiers was a cushion beautifully embroidered in a stitch invented by the man who made it. Previous training had nothing to do with his skill. He was a butcher until the war forcibly shot him into an artistic career.

Bureau of Chemistry is Enforcing Pure Food Law in Strict Manner

In the enforcement of the food and drugs act the United States Department of Agriculture, during the past year, recommended 719 cases for criminal prosecution and 371 for seizure. There were collected for examination 5,649 official and 2,171 informal samples of food and drugs. This, however, does not include thousands of examinations made in the field, such as candling of suspected shipments of eggs or the critical inspection of consignments of wormy or decomposed nuts. The various laboratories of the bureau of chemistry analyzed 27,301 samples, and in addition took 70,739 flour inspection samples. Over 9,000 cases were made the subject of hearing, either in person or by correspondence.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw Is Strong for Schools and Child Advancement

Dr. Anna Shaw says that coal shortage, war emergency and like troubles should not be an excuse for closing the schools. "An ignorant and illiterate citizenship," she says, "will be a greater menace to the country than all the financial debt of the war." There are pagents glad of an excuse to take children out of school and get them into factories and she thinks that this country should take warning by England, which saw, all too late, where the taking of children from school would lead them. Dr. Shaw calls to the women of the nation, through the women's committee of the National Council of Defense, of which she is chairman, to "rise and put an end to this menace at once."

Policewoman of New York Was Too Strenuous in Her Pursuit of Evil

The village trustees of the town of Ossining, N. Y., did not like the way in which Policewoman Anna O'Shea strenuously pursued evil doers, so they discharged her. She gave up the emblems of her office to them and was immediately appointed deputy sheriff by Sheriff Wiesendanger, having been recommended by prominent persons for the position. Mrs. F. A. Vanderlip and other wealthy residents of the place have fitted up "head-quarters" for her, and she will get after illicit liquor sellers and those who annoy young women in any way as her particular line of work.

Advice to Lovelorn

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

You Were Very Wrong.

Dear Miss Fairfax: My brother has been attentive to a young lady for some time. Recently my parents received an announcement of their engagement. The following day my brother's friend paid us an unexpected visit and did not mention anything about the engagement to mother or anyone else.

The same evening each member of the family besides the parents had received a personal invitation from the young lady's sister—whom we have never met—to a party given in honor of her sister and her fiancé.

My dear Miss Fairfax, were we justified in ignoring the invitation? A. E. H. Of course your brother's fiancée did not mention the engagement. When she was friendly enough to come to call on you, surely your family should have greeted her as a daughter and should have given her a loving welcome into the family. Then when the invitation to a reception was sent you by people who were doing everything in their power to be cordial and friendly, you did a hideously rude thing in ignoring it. From the point of view of propriety alone, your conduct has been all wrong. But from the point of view of common sense and kindness, it is even worse! How could you all make such a foolish and stupid fuss about your own dignity and stand so firmly on questions of propriety—particularly when you have proven that you know very little about it!

Michigan Women Assist the Draft Board

Members of the Marshall unit of the woman's defense committee proved themselves of real patriotic value when they volunteered their assistance to the Calhoun county draft board in the classification of all the men registered who had not been called into service.

Cock-a-Doodle-Do!

One way of saving chicken feed has been developed in Maryland—kill the chicken and can him! Demonstrations of the proper method of putting up chancier and his harem have been given in some counties.

Of Interest to Women.

The war has opened up a wide field for American women in chemistry.

Many girls at Wellesley college are taking a war course in wireless telegraphy.

The coming year will mark the centennial anniversary of the birth of Lucy Stone, pioneer American woman suffragist.

Women employed as conductors on the street railways in New York City work eight hours a day and receive the same wages as men.

A nail-driving contest is a leading feature of the annual field day sports for girl students at the Minnesota School of Agriculture.

The elevated and subway roads in New York City, which already have women ticket sellers and platform guards, are now to employ women as ticket choppers.

As their "bit" in the sugar conservation movement the coeds of Montana State college have pledged themselves to eat but six small pieces of candy a week and but one tablespoonful of sugar a day.

The attorney general of New York has rendered a decision to the effect that women lawyers, admitted to practice in New York state who are married to aliens, German or otherwise, lose their rights to practice law in the state courts.
