Gabby Detays Has Been Listening While You Thought Her Asleep

The Rich and Poor, Great and Small, Look Out or Gabby Will Get You All as She Flits About Unheard—Unseen.

By Gabby Detays
AN attractive young Dundee matron was beside herself last week as the result of her maid emulating the distinguished example of our President Wilson in writing notes.

could anyone even contemplate such a step without her knowledge? A sweet young thing, as yet unused to the wiles of the world, came dashing into the office that evening waving a paper which contained the story that the marriage license which the young captain had obtained would be returned.

SOME day Gabby is going to compile a book of stories she has gathered about maids and their mistresses.

HAS anyone seen Mr. Louis Clarke when he was angry? New Year's eve at the Orpheum Mr. Clarke was in a party occupying the front box.

Mrs. Douglas Cavers, nee Miss Inez Westfall, of Carroll, Ia., is a bride of the week. The wedding took place Monday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Westfall, in Carroll. The wedding was a complete surprise to the friends of the young couple and was a very informal one.

The marriage of Miss Anita Sturk, daughter of Mrs. Dell Sturk, to Mr. Earl Hagstrom was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother Monday evening. The wedding was a very quiet, informal one, only immediate relatives being present.

A charming bride of the week is Miss Margaret English, daughter of Mrs. James P. English, whose marriage to Mr. Richard D. O'Neill will take place Thursday morning at St. Peter's church.
