M'LAUGHLIN OUT FOR CONGRESS IN THE FOURTH

York, Neb., Jan. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—M. O. McLaughlin, president of York college, sent his filing fee to the secretary of state today and will enter the race in the primary for the nomination for congressman in the Fourth district on the republican ticket.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

In a short statement given to The Bee correspondent Mr. McLaughlin outlined some of the things he will stand for if he gets the nomination, as follows:

A vigorous prosecution of the war until democracy is made safe throughout the world.

An international armament after the war that will guarantee future peace.

A program for internal improvements that will encourage the fullest possible developments of the country's resources. This program should include the development of highways and waterways.

Government control or direction of the manufacture and sale of farm machinery and binder twine so farmers can secure these necessities at reasonable rates.

A graduated income tax which will reduce the amount of tax on incomes in proportion to the number of children in the family.

FARMERS' MEETING STARTS POLITICS

Rumor Charles W. Bryan and W. J. Taylor of Merna Want to Run for Two Highest State Offices.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Lincoln, Jan. 9.—(Special.)—The State Farmers' union was in session today at the city auditorium. The session is held in secret. Officers of the union are: C. H. Gustafson, Mead, president; J. M. Burdick, Creighton, vice president; D. R. Ellis, Omaha, secretary-treasurer; O. E. Wood, Bethany, organizer. Directors are: John Havekorst, Hooper; H. D. Lute, Paxton, and C. O. Schroyer, Humboldt.

It is understood that some representatives of the farmers' nonpartisan league are mingling with the delegates in an effort, so it is rumored, to get an endorsement of the union for the nonpartisan political program for controlling the election next fall.

W. J. Taylor, mentioned in connection with the nonpartisan league as a candidate for governor, was in the city all day yesterday, but left last night for his home in Custer county. Since his departure his name has been coupled with that of Charles W. Bryan as the possible candidate for lieutenant governor and governor, respectively. It is known Mr. Bryan feels he is enough of a farmer to be entitled to the support of the nonpartisan league for governor, although he still has the little $16 necessary to become a member in good standing safely stored away in his jeans.

Lieutenant Governor Howard also is in the city. Mr. Howard says little. He comes out flat footed and says he is a candidate for the United States senate and expects to land.
